There seems to be a great deal of confusion across the nation over the pronunciation of the word Centenary. The Financial Post points out in an editorial. Some speakers on radio, TV and public platform, variously say "cen-ten-ary" or "cen-ten-ari" instead of the correct "centi-nary" (Webster and Oxford are the authorities. The word comes from the Latin "centenarius" (cenit) — a hundred each) There is no confusion in French It is centenaire: phonetically, "saunt-leair".

Expounds Plan Likey To Win World Hockey Championship

Frank Boucher, one of the National Hockey League's all-time stars and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, is highly critical of Canadian amateur hockey's efforts to compete in world hockey tournaments and he offers, in Maclean's magazine, his own scheme for sending fourth-rate teams to world competitions.

Under Boucher's plan, the NHL and the CAHA would appoint between them a permanent manager and a permanent coach for a national team and these two men would in turn choose play— for the team from among the 200-odd players on the country's Junior 'A' teams who are in their last year of junior competition. Coaches, managers and trainers connected with junior teams would be directed to bring their best players to the national coach's attention, and each fall all of these players would gather at a central training camp for the final selection of the team.

The team would, under Boucher's plan, stick together for the whole year, playing exhibition games and training, until they would be in top shape for the world championships at the end of the season. Such a team brought along under such a system, in Boucher's opinion, couldn't fail to beat the world's best — for a change.

Local Superintendent To Attend Educational Conference At Banff

Mr H G Sherk, Superintendent of Schools for the County of Vermilion River is one of 79 educators from Canada's ten provinces meeting at the Banff School of Fine Arts Alberta, for two weeks beginning May 24 to study problems of educational leadership in local communities. Mr Sherk has been selected as a member of a short course for school superintendents and inspectors offered by the Canadian Education Association in conjunction with the Faculty of Education of the U of A Forty five of the 79 are superintendents and inspectors who have been married to attend the conference by their employers (Departments of Education of the various provinces. Twenty three are superintendents and other administrative personnel of local school systems. Thirteen are trustees (men and women) elected by the residents of school districts to govern their local schools. Seven are Teachers' Federation and the Corporation Secretary of the Association. Also in attendance are two representatives of educational ideas and from the Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources, Indian Affairs Branch, Department of Citizenship and Immigration will also be in attendance.

Much of each day during the Canadian setting course will be devoted to work groups set up on the basis of problems as outlined by members based on their experiences in their own areas. Two such groups will focus on varying aspects of instructional leadership, one on developing the curriculum, one on the administrative problems of the school superintendency and one on the problems of the principalship.

The theme of the course is "The Role of the Superintendent in Educational Leadership".

Within the overall aim of working toward better education for children in the schools, the course is intended to serve four purposes: 1. To provide an opportunity for further exploration of problems in educational administration and supervision 2. To provide an opportunity for individual members to have plans for later local action. 3 To provide members with an opportunity to gain further understanding of philosophies and techniques of leadership in the evaluative group processes 4. To provide for the communication of educational ideas and practices between widely separated areas in Canada leading toward the identification of emerging principles of supervision and administration in a Canadian setting.

GREEN ACRES

By H. MORLEY DOUGLAS
District Agriculturist

GREEN ACRES ARE MORE THAN GRASS AND GRAIN

Crop Insurance will operate in the Barrhead, Vermilion area 1965. It was made thanks to the efforts of the municipalities who went to farmers and explained the advantages of the plan in the Long Stretch. Now we have 24 per cent. Mayor Forbes who ended up with a negative for the first year. Crop insurance could be a valuable tool and about 40 per cent of the farmers contacted, it seems that the success of any insurance depends upon men like Mr. Forbes, who really believe in it and make a real job of personal sales.

MONEY MAKING MONEY

Can I see the forest for the trees? This is a question that most people should ask themselves first thing in the morning. I spent many of these days on the land, big or big ways to spend a few hours is much more time to spend planning how to set up a few thousand dollar swine feeding barn or a dairy barn for a cream can herd when a planned investment of a thousand bushels of fertilizer could have a more pleasant effect on the net income. In some cases a planned investment of those thousand dollars in weed spray would return an additional three thousand dollars. There is a risk. Is it as great a risk as changing to a new enterprise?

The Homemaker

By DIANE SHUPTRAW B. Sc. District Home Economist Box 519

SHINE ON

Another very popular question that is constantly arising is how to care for floors and the types of waxes to use.

Given floors proper care is not the time-consuming job many homemakers imagine. Indeed, women sometimes make more work than necessary for themselves by polishing and waxing floors too often. Manufacturers say floors are more often "worn out" by washing than by traffic. To keep floors looking their best with a minimum of effort, know the types of waxes and cleaners available and the type of floor to be used in the various parts of your home.

Waxes are divided into two types: (a) polishing and (b) self-polishing.

POLISHING WAXES

Either in paste or liquid form, must be rubbed to a shine. A paste polishing wax gives a long-lasting, mellow sheen. A liquid polishing wax is similar to the paste form, but thinned with additional naptha or some other drying agent. Thus a liquid polishing wax should be shaken before use. Both paste and liquid polishing waxes contain solvents, which make them unsuitable for asphalt or rubber tiles.

SELF-POLISHING

The other type of floor wax is the self-polishing kind which dries to a sheen without rubbing. Self polishing waxes are composed of tiny particles of wax in a water base. Easy to apply and remove, they are especially suitable for use in kitchens and bathrooms. Because of their water base, however, they are not recommended for wooden floors. Generally, self polishing waxes should not be shaken before use. They should be applied with long smooth strokes to a clean dry floor, free from all traces of soap.

To maintain asphalt, cork, linoleum, rubber and vinyl floors, clean with a damp rag after installation. Never wash until adhesive is thoroughly set—four or five days after flooring material is laid.

Wax after initial cleaning. Use water-base wax or naptha-base wax on cork, linoleum—for vinyl use water base waxes recommended for same. Use water base wax on asphalt and rubber tile—never naptha-base as the naptha, a solvent, softens and pits the material and causes colors to bleed.

Sweep daily, using a soft broom or dry mop. Do not use an oily mop or oily sweeping compounds.

Wash and wax when needed. Rinse off all soap or detergent before applying wax. Avoid too frequent washing. Wipe up immediately any water, tracked in dirt or item spilled.

Use a liquid floor cleaner recommended by the manufacturer in preference to soap (or detergent) and water. Strong soaps dry out asphalt, cork, linoleum and rubber, making them brittle, porous and hard to clean.

Do not apply varnish, lacquer, shellac or similar products. These cause materials to dry out, crack and curl.

Pleasant Valley

It is not very pleasant today, we have snow on the ground and the buds look as if they are frozen on the trees. Makes one feel blue as they look out.

The power is off and has been for some time now. Some folks will be drinking cold water and eating sandwiches for dinner, so things aren't going our way as we always plan it.

Mrs. Gillies and the scribe visited at Mrs. Corman's home last week. She has all her plants and dahlias in the ground. We hope her lovely apple blossoms escape the frost. Her house plants are beautiful.

Mrs. Purvis and Mrs. Kee visited at the writer's home Thursday. Friday morning Betty Shaw came and took home with her a new rose bush. I hope it grows for you.

Sylvia Gould returned home on Sunday

Many Phases of Educational Development Considered

During the past two months various County officials have given much attention to the preparation of the School and Municipal budgets. Work on this particular aspect of County administration culminated at the special meeting of the School Committee on the evening of April 30th, when the budget providing the means of financing the operation of school facilities of the County of Vermilion River during 1965 was accepted. Representatives of Vermilion, Dewberry, Kitscoty, Marwayne and Paradise Valley were invited to attend this meeting.

The budget provides for some $58,000.00 increase in the form of Supplementary Requisitions from the contributing municipalities of Vermilion, Dewberry, Kitscoty, Marwayne, Paradise Valley and the County of Vermilion River over the 1964 budget in spite of $30,000.00 increase in grants from the Foundation Program Fund. A brief explanation of the requirements which give rise to this requisition for funds in addition to those supplied by the Provincial Government is of interest.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION

$26,000.00 — on increase of $6,000.00, due to the appointment of administration expenses between the Municipal and School sections on a one-third, one-third, one-third municipal basis. This distribution is carried into fields which were charged entirely to municipal account in 1964 resulting in a large saving to the rural County administration by the new agreement.

INSTRUCTION

Salaries and Expenses

The increase of approximately $37,000.00 in this section of the budget is accounted for in three ways:

(1) Teachers' Salaries — up approximately $28,500.00 over 1964 which represents a 5% increase of $14 which is accounted for in the form of annual increments based on the present staff's training and experience!

(2) Clerical Salaries — up approximately $4,000.00 which provides part time clerical assistance in the Principals in the five large centralizations in the County (ie. Dewberry, Kitscoty, Marwayne Paradise Valley and J. R. Robson School at Vermilion at approximately $1,000.00 each in 1965 and provision for an adjustment in the salary of the librarian at the J. R. Robson School from $1,000.00 in 1964 to $3,000 in 1965.

(3) Internships and Apprenticeships — An increase of $4500 is provided for an expansion of the program to allow for twenty apprentice teachers at $1000.00 each, making a total expenditure of $4,10.00 each

INSTRUCTIONAL AIDS

This section reflects an increase of approximately $26,000.00 over 1964 as follows:

(1) Library books $4,000.00 to provide more books and more extensive coverage in the new sets of encyclopedia placed in schools in 1965.

(2) Text books on an expansion of the text book rental plan to all grades in County schools costs an additional $14,000.00 this year.

(3) Instructional supplies up approximately $2,000.00 for the introduction of Audio-visual equipment into some of the schools equipment repair and equipment servicing agreements

(4) Miscellaneous — an additional $2500.00 is provided for librarian training, testing materials and seminar expenses.

OPERATION EXPENSES

An increased amount of $4,500 has been budgeted for bursaries in the current year as teacher training bursaries were increased from $500.00 to $600.00 per year

PLANT OPERATION

An additional amount of $6,000 has been allowed in this section reflecting the increasing costs of repair and maintenance materials and more extensive repair program

DEBT CHARGES

An increase of $7000.00 is being experienced in this section of the budget and represents roughly the part of borrowing not cover ed by Provincial grants under the Educational Foundation Program

CONTRIBUTIONS TO CAPITAL AND LOAN FUND

The construction of two new high schools — one-third of the cost of in addition to the County Administration Office at Kitscoty in connection of Marwayne and the lights, the addition of rooms to the basements of the new schools at Kitscoty and Marwayne the final payment on the new school at Riverview the redevelopment of facilities equipment the provision of additional playground equipment and school equipment adds up to an increase of $14,000.00 in this part of the budget

CONSTRUCTION OF PUPILS

An additional amount of $4,000 is being provided for the payment of contract busses in the County this year.

NEW BUILDINGS

An amount of approximately $2,000.00 of unassigned money is being incorporated into the budget dealing with expenditures estimated to be in excess of one and one-third million dollars. Certain of the additional expenditure items to some extent is an increase in the amount according to the County under the Foundation Program of approximately $26,000.00, sale of Capital Assets of $4,000.00, and recovery in the form of last book rentals of $6500.00. Three thousand dollars less is being received under the school grants Act. Nine thousand dollars is being used from Cash Surplus Funds. The sum provided in the budget for teachers' salaries may prove to be unrealistic as a result of the Salary Negotiations Committee of the Vermilion Local of the Alberta Teachers' Association (A.T.A.) and the Teachers' Salaries Negotiation Sub-committee of the County School Committee have resulted in no teachers in the settlement for the 1965-66 (each) the year 1st September to 31st, 1965 to August 31, 1966). The teachers' representatives have recommended to the County that the second offer of an increase in the salary schedule which would involve costs of approximately $11 300.00 more 1964-65 teachers' salary costs 12% approximately) in addition to salary increments incorporated in the present salary schedule. The second offer provides part time clerical assistance in the Principals in the five large centralizations in the County (ie. Dewberry, Kitscoty, Marwayne Paradise Valley and J. R. Robson School at Vermilion at approximately $1,000.00 each in 1965 and provision for an adjustment in the salary of the librarian at the J. R. Robson School from $1,000.00 in 1964 to $3,000 in 1965.

Historical Note . . .

Early in February 1911 a young man stopped overnight at the King Edward hotel. He was on his way to visit his mother in Manitville

He recalled to a Bulletin reporter that he was busy on a romantic novel "probably laid in the country north of Edmonton

Speaking of his earlier writings on literary life he said he was not greatly concerned with the stories because he tried to give a picture of life as he saw it or as I believe it to have been."

He agreed that "Easterners seemed to expected to find fairy tales in the west because they knew nothing of the conditions prevailing here on the other side. The incentive that drew men to the North was lust of gold and those here brought into prominence the truer qualities of human nature."

Undoubtedly the young fellow received his visit to Manitville [illegible]

Hermitage Robert W. Service

"There must be a better way to build a highway."

"In Alberta there is!"

Build the highway for safety first! Highways with safety factors built-in offer several advantages to roads constructed with an eye solely to convenience and economy. Safety factors such as limited access roads and cloverleaf intersections eliminate most of the major hazards leading to accidents and loss of life. Where access to a highway is limited, through traffic flows easier, faster.

Constructing a highway with every known safety factor built-in is expensive in money, but the saving in life and injuries is well worth every penny. The inconvenience caused to local traffic by limiting access roads is a small price to pay for the additional peace-of-mind.

Alberta's Department of Highways has built 26 clover-leaf intersections and four are now under construction. Six more are planned for the near future. Elimination of at-grade crossings is part of Alberta's policy for building better, safer roads.

Alberta's motorists are among the most taxed in Canada, and yet they enjoy almost 100,000 miles of better road travel facilities — more than almost any other group of Canadians.

Good, safe highways — another feature that makes Alberta A Good Place to Live.

Survey Team To Examine Education Problems In Vermilion River County

At the request of the Educational Committee a survey team from the Department of Education will be in the County of Vermilion River No. 24 during the first week of June. A number of problems within the field of education prompted this request. A great change has taken place in the courses offered in our public schools. The trend is toward more being expected of a child at an earlier age. Their comprehensive has increased due to the pressures of the world in which we live. In arithmetic for example, youngsters are expected to know not only what has been taught for the last hundred years but they must understand new concepts to prepare them for the automated world toward which we are moving. We must find ways to meet the needs of these children. It is not possible to give the depth of study required in this old secular area in a multi-grade classroom.

TRANSPORTATION AND BUILDINGS

The survey team will also report on transportation of school students. The condition of existing school structures with a view to building and improvements to further the average expansion and development program will also be considered. The team will make recommendations in the fields of industrial arts and home economics as to whether these courses are being served adequately across the division. Many of further consideration within the county.

Another matter will be of a very comprehensive nature the results will of the investigation available to the Minister of Education.

CONSIDERATION AT STREAMSTOWN

At a meeting of the School Committee of Vermilion River No. 24 held May 11, 1965, very careful consideration was given to the existing situation at Streamstown. There forty six students comprising eight grades are being instructed by two teachers in a two room school. A questionnaire was sent to parents to discover if they desired the children to remain in Streamstown or attend a larger school. A number of various answers were received. It was decided by the School Committee that any parents who wished to send their children to schools that have lower grades per room may do so and those who preferred to stay at Streamstown would be free to send their children there. A policy was established so that any who wished could send their children to either Kitscoty, Marwayne, or Lloydminster.

TEXTBOOK RENTAL PLAN EXTENDED

The textbook rental plan has been extended to cover all grades from one to twelve.

RESIGNATION OF TEACHERS

Mr. H. C. Sherk reported on his work as recruitment and staffing officer for the School Committee of the County. As of the 20th of May 16 new teachers have been signed for the coming year and negotiations are under way with a number of others. These people will be replacements for the teachers who are returning to the university for further training or have resigned.

At the present time there are still openings in the following schools: Dewberry, 1 high school position; Kitscoty, 1 junior high school position; McLaughlin, 1 high school position; Paradise Valley, 1 high school position; Tulley Lake, 1 intermediate position. Vermilion, 1 Grade II position, 2 junior high positions, 1 home economics position; Woodvale, 1 intermediate position.

It is expected that a number of these positions will be filled soon as applications have been received for several. Formal offers have been made and are awaiting verification.

I. O. D. E. Hears Delegates Reports

The May meeting of the I.O.D.E. was held at the home of Miss K. Fulcher. The slides of James Cousin were shown with Mrs. V. Tillett giving the commentary. A personal letter from James Cousin who lives in the north of India.

He was adopted by the I.O.D.E. in 1959. His mother is a native woman and his father a Royal soldier who deserted his family when James was quite young. As the mother could not provide for him he was placed in the home. He is now 9 years old, a most fair haired lad with a round happy face.

The I.O.D.E. Regent Mrs. Fleetwood Gibson, Mrs. A. Mead and Mrs. Dowdell gave a very interesting report of the convention which was held in Edmonton.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Les. Kushkadey. A delicious lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

Thank You!

We would sincerely like to thank all our friends and neighbors in the Preston community who came to help extinguish the fire when all our buildings and belongings were destroyed. Also those who cleaned our house, for the cash gift in lieu of chosen articles, the W.I. ladies for food gifts, and many other kindly acts of hospitality too numerous to mention. Such things cannot be repaid or ever forgotten. Thank you all again, from the bottom of our hearts.

Teen-Agers Study Smoking in Canada-Wide Conference

Delegates from Alberta joined teen-agers from all across Canada in Ottawa last week at the Canadian Youth Conference on Smoking and Health sponsored by the Department of National Health and Welfare under the Honourable Judy LaMarsh.

Delegates from Alberta were Susan Shields of Edmonton, Bonnie Dow of Red Deer, Kendal Johnson of Calgary and Dennis Pelnis of Lethbridge. In addition, Miss Frances Galvon of Calgary had been especially invited as a result of her interesting and informative displays on smoking and health, which were shown at the 1964 and 1965 Calgary Schewe Fairs. All students are of Grade 11 or lower level in school, and were accompanied to the Conference by Dr. E. S. O. Smith, of the Alberta Department of Health. Two students from the Yukon and one from the Northwest Territories joined the Alberta group in the afternoon.

The main tasks of the delegates were the discussion and subsequent reporting on three main questions:

"Why do people smoke?"

"What can and should be done, and what is being done about the cigarette smoking problem?"

In what way can teen-agers themselves participate in the smoking and health program?"

The Alberta delegates played an important part in the proceedings. Susan Shields served as chairman of one of the discussion groups while Miss Shields acted as recorder for one group. Miss Galvon was one of two students speaking on the subject, "Youth as Educators", and as well got up on Hansbury on "Smoking and Health".

Each delegate was provided with reference material assisting him or her in discussions held during the conference and each was required to have some knowledge of what is being done in his or her own community.

The Conference attended from noon on May 12 to evening of Friday May 14 and was held at Carleton University where the delegates "lived in" for the duration of their stay in the capital city.

Recruiting Units Of Services Integrated

A saving of $1,200,000 is expected from the integration of recruiting units of the Royal Canadian Navy, the Canadian Army and the R.C.A.F. Integration will be largely completed by Oct. 1st when personnel may be reduced from 600 to 325. Fifty two recruiting centres will be reduced to 34 with no single service unit remaining.

During the next two years the services expect to lose 24,000 personnel through retirement and other causes. The planned reduction in the services strength of 10,000 through integration will leave 11,000 jobs to be filled.

Recruiting is at a very high level. The services took in 10, 000 last year and recruitment figures for each month this year show increases for the same month of 1964.

The Canadian Armed Forces Recruiting Centre Edmonton has been integrated with Major J. E. Hivler of Turnide assuming command. The centre will be reduced in staff to 14 from 80 present 17.

The Edmonton centre covers all of northern Alberta, north of Red Deer, the South Peace area of B.C., the Yukon Territory and part of the N.W.T.

Health Unit Notes

HOW TO CARE FOR THE CHILD WITH RHEUMATIC FEVER AT HOME.

Caring for a child with rheumatic fever is best by having him giving medicines, maintaining his nutrition and keeping him entertained in a program which is new to many mothers. Public health or visiting nurses can give a great deal of help with all these problems.

The doctor will prescribe certain medicines and recommend a nutritious diet. Using charts of Canada's Food Rules, including milk, meat, fruits, fruits and juices as well as vegetables and cereals. It will take the mother's imagination to prepare and serve the diet in a varied way to tempt the rather finicky appetite of a sick child, but it is very important in the child's recovery.

Another important step, once the disease has been diagnosed and the doctor has prescribed bed rest, is to find out from him exactly how much activity the child can enjoy. At first he may not be allowed any activity at all. As time goes on, he will be able to do more and more, his program will be adjusted to his needs.

At first, perhaps, the only way to divert him will be to give him something to read and listen to. A radio will keep him company and so will anything that moves, whether it is a bowl of goldfish, a bird in a cage or an ant colony in a glass case. A small child might be amused by a paper windmill hung in the window or tinkling glass bars hung together like a Japanese library.

As the child is permitted more activity, such diversions as crayons, cut-outs, scrapbooks, stamp collections, puzzles, jewelry, simple embroidery and knitting can be introduced.

Time goes on the child can begin to work at his school program. In some cases there are home teachers who visit sick children and help them with their school work. Ideas for bed rest and activities can easily be found in any library and public health nurses have some good ideas too.

Minburn Ratepayers Demand 3-way Vote

A three way plebiscite to determine the location of the county office was demanded by the ratepayers of Minburn County at an overflow meeting held at Innisfree on Tuesday evening.

The motion for the plebiscite was made by Joe Kufeldt, seconded by Mr. Landry and read "that a three way plebiscite be held with the names of the towns, Mannville, Innisfree and Vegreville appearing on the ballot".

The decision will be made by a straight majority. The result of the vote was 185 in favor with 63 opposed.

The meeting was called on the petition of ratepayers in protest of the fact that two motions passed by the ratepayers at the annual meeting of the County had been disregarded by a majority of the County council. These motions were that the County office remain in Mannville, and secondly, that no money be expended on renovating either of the two existing offices.

Despite these two motions, regularly made, passed, and recorded in the minutes of the annual meeting, the council was now renovating the former Mannville office at huge expenditure, and were in the process of moving the County office to that town.

It was this total disregard of the wishes of the majority of the ratepayers that caused Mr. Jack Daily to move, seconded by Mr. Corbett, that the immediate dismissal of all the councillors be asked.

Councillor Robert of Vermville reserved decision, with Councillors Bartlett, Roland, Graham, Eyben and Tymchyszyn indicating that they were in favor of abiding by the decision of the ratepayers as indicated by the result of the three-way plebiscite.

Mr Castle Scott was appointed chairman of the overflow meeting and Mr. Irene Baker was secretary. Reeve Samoil was the spokesman for the County and remained unperturbed throughout despite varying shades of heavy fire — the wax of questions and explanations of council's actions.

Every available foot of space in the hall was filled with people seated on the stage and in the crowds standing at the back and around open doors

"Get Acquainted Day" At Vermilion Primary School

Tuesday and Wednesday, June 1st and 2nd, have been set aside as "Get Acquainted Days" at the Vermilion Primary School.

Children starting school in September will spend the two days in the classrooms and become acquainted with each other and their teachers.

In order that the school and facilities may be available to all this new class, the present grade one pupils will not be required to attend school on that day.

A special program has been arranged for the two days and there is hope of the primary staff that this time will prove to be a pleasant and profitable experience for these little people.

Testing will take place on Tuesday and Friday of next named times. Each parent will be notified.

Under the new plan, the Tigers will be run by a directorate of 15 members, with an executive of five answering directly to the larger body.

Other highlights from the meeting included the fact that the club operated at a deficit and wound up the season a total of $2232.36 in the hole; the possibility of another intermediate team in Vermilion to play in the Battle River league which is officially an intermediate C category, and a unanimously supported suggestion that the teams in the Eastern Alberta Hockey League be limited to six imports.

In their reports to the meeting both retiring president Frank Donald and the retiring manager of the club Fred Brimacombe expressed keen disappointment at the way the players they had brought in to play for the Tigers had performed. ## Have We A Master Farm Family?

Nominations are now being accepted for the Master Farm Family Awards for 1965. The Master Farm Family Awards are designed to recognize Alberta farm families who have made an outstanding success of farming, while also contributing materially to community life.

In making the announcement, Agriculture Minister Harry E. Strom noted that Alberta is becoming known as the province of Master Farm Families. Fifty-nine Alberta farm families have received this outstanding award since the inception of this unique program in 1949. The award is designed to recognize the Family Farm — not large acreages, pretentious buildings or large numbers of livestock. However it must recognize successful farm operators. "The important thing," said Mr. Strom, "is that the neighbors of a Master Farm Family can point to them as an example of sound and profitable farm practice, community leadership and good citizenship." He urged all interested groups to consider suitable nominees and to forward their names to the local District Agriculturist or District Home Economist by July 1st.

Nominees for the Master Farm Family Awards must be Canadian citizens. The head of the family must be the owner-operator or lease-operator of the farm and must have spent at least twenty consecutive years in actual operation of a farm. In the case of veterans, absence on military service will be accepted. Nominations must be signed by at least three neighbors. Nomination forms and further details about the awards are available from District Agriculturists and District Home Economists.

Farmers' Day June 11th

Farmers are beginning to doubt they will be in a position to enjoy their day, June 11th, in the manner they have been accustomed the past few years.

Farmers' Day has had massive observance by Alberta farmers, with family picnics, field days, 4-H achievement days, and community gatherings of all kinds. It has served as a break after the big planting push each spring.

This year, however, it begins to look like seeding operations may extend past the first week of June in some areas. A late spring, and untimely rains have caused delay. It could mean Farmers' Day observances will be curtailed.

Farmers' Day, June 11th is a recent addition to the rural calendar. The advent of tractors and powered machinery, which has made possible vast increases in agricultural productivity per man during the past 30 years, has also freed farm families from most of the drudgery that used to be associated with farm life. After a day in the fields, it is not necessary any longer to feed and look after an eight horse team.

On today's farm, it is possible for a family to take time off. June 11th will once again provide rural communities a chance to celebrate the completion of spring work. That is, if weather conditions will settle down and let farmers get on with the job. — P.U.A. Bulletin

Avoid Grazing Pastures Too Early

Grazing cultivated pastures before their growth reaches four to six inches can result in permanent injury to the plants and to their productivity for the entire season.

According to O. G. Bratvold, supervisor of Alberta's Crop Improvement Service, setting pastures establish at least four inches of growth before grazing is one of the most crucial factors in pasture management.

Mr. Bratvold points out that a plant cannot manufacture plant tissue until leaf growth has been established. If trees or a grass that pasture when the first shoots appear the plants must continue to grow on food reserves in their roots. This seriously weakens them and the pasture's ability to produce tenderer, less and less instead of increasing as it would under normal growing conditions.

Rats Bring Fine

The following is a news report appearing in the Medicine Hat newspaper some time ago. It could happen in the County of Vermilion River as the rat problem increases.

GREEN ACRES

By H. MORLEY DOUGLAS
District Agriculturist

GREEN FOXTAIL

Green foxtail or wild millet is becoming a more serious weed each year. The weed was particularly bad on overworked areas and third crop land in 1964. Hot dry weather aggravates the situation. Chemical control is possible on flax, rape, oats, and barley crops. The treatment varies with each crop. For flax three quarters to one and a one quarter pounds of dalapon or four to six pounds of T.C.A. per acre is very effective. The time of application is from the 5th leaf to seedling to boot stage. MCPA may be mixed with either chemical and applied at the same time on flax. For rape the treatment is similar but the sprayer must be absolutely free of 2,4-D or MCPA. Herbicides are also [illegible] rape. The dalapon should be the two to four leaf stage for barley, or oats two to four pounds of T.C.A. per acre when the foxtail is in the one to two leaf stage. The higher application will stunt the weed and prevent seed set. Best results are achieved in dry hot weather and a minimum of 15 gallons of water per acre to increase the delivery of a fatal dosage to the weed. Summer fallow which root absorbitis soon each year. Moses of Vermilion has controlled foxtail last summer on barley using the regular field sprayer with two pounds of T.C.A. per acre. It cost him about eighty cents per acre for chemical.

CEREAL SMUT

A recent release of Canada Department of Agriculture states that Sown Seeds farmers are sowing [illegible] acreage of mixed barley and oats for feed. Mixed grain has always been popular in this County, especially with farmers who put up silage. Art Ireland-Gordon of Paradise Valley uses a mixture of late ripening oats and Otti barley for silage. When Art began making silage he tried green oats, but his cows lost weight all winter. What to make the cows seemed to feed the cows more than when they pastured on straw and greenfeed. The almost mature barley and oats by increases the total feeding value of the moisture content. Don McFadden Lacombe Experimental Farm, says barley is a more competitive crop than oats. He has found that if 20 per cent of the seed is barley the crop will result in about 50 per cent oats and barley.

IN SEED TIME

Don Brantwaite reports there will be real competition at the brewery 4-H show on Monday, May 31st. The 4-H calves have not been short of feed and every one did a good job of selecting calves last fall. Mrs Dunstan, D.A. from Wainwright will judge the show at 2:00 p.m in the Dewberry skating rink.

Clarence Brown was into the D.A. office the other day enquiring as to what happened to the Tullby Lake 4-H Club's order for Slow Moving Vehicles signs. Clarence wasn't gone long until Bryson Electric Street Electrical[illegible] came in about the same matter. Apparently Mr Usher of the 4-H Branch is having quite a time to get Reeve Monds to speed up operations. They are coming slow but sure.

Clarence Brown's chief mission was to complete arrangements for the Tullby Lake 4-H Beef Show 1:00 p.m. at the school on May 26th. That 4-H show is always an event worth taking in. That same Saturday the Paradise Valley 4-H Beef Show will be held at 1:00 p.m. at Bob Coleman's. Don Bettle the leader of the Paradise Valley club, has everything under control. Stu Duncan, D. A. from Wainwright, will be the judge.

All of the clubs showing this week-end will also end well their animals at the Lloydminster Interprovincial Show and Sale June 7th. It's a big one, about 240 animals from sixteen clubs. Gets underway 8:30 a.m.

FACTS FOR THE FARMER

There are now 1 120,827 contributors of farm produce in Alberta. Although only 17 per cent are farmers, this increased home market must be good for farmers.

Beef tenderness is affected by how much the muscles shorten after slaughter. Experiments have shown that if muscle fibres are stretched rather than allowed to contract while hang ing, the beef will be more tender

INVESTIGATE BEFORE INVESTING

There are the usual confidence men around selling everything from magazines to life insurance. It's a good idea to check your man and either check them out or buy from someone who is going to be around to see that it works.

"The Cross At Frog Creek"

By
Alan Brookings, Consort, Alta.

Have you heard the story of the cross at Frog Creek? Perhaps not. The massacre has always enjoyed the limelight, and a lesser cross commands more attention than the cross at Frog Lake. But the place where Frog Creek runs into the Saskatchewan River has had its moments too, and this is a fitting time of year to tell about it.

In May of 1885 the Alberta Field Force under General Strange was proceeding east ward from Fort Edmonton to Fort Pitt in search of Big Bear. The force was divided into two groups. One made up of the 82nd Winnipeg Light Infantry, the Alberta Mounted Rifles and the Mounted Police followed the old trail toward Frog Lake They would the ruins of Frog Lake settlement and find the bodies of those massacred there The other group under Lieutenant Colonel Hughes, was made up of four companies of the 65th Carabiniers Mont Royal. These men were on board four scows and had with them the force's one cannon.

The men of the 65th floated with the current during the day, tying up and resting ashore each night. Their speed may be judged by these facts: Departure from Victoria (now Pakan) took place on May 20th. By the night of May 23rd they had travelled one hundred and twenty miles and were at Mouse Hill Creek. On the night of May 30th they made camp at Frog Creek. During the night a sentinel sounded the alarm, but nothing alarmed enough to be found.

Though camped at Frog Creek, their thoughts were at Frog Lake a few miles to the north. Here the massacre had taken place on April 2nd. Others were given for the erection of a cross, forty feet in height, in memory of those who had been killed there. The inscription put on the cross may be translated as follows: "Erected by the 65th battalion in memory of the victims of Frog Lake." A document was drawn up outlining the facts that necessitated the erection of the cross, and the officers all signed their names. This document was placed in a bottle wrapped in lead foil, which was then buried at the foot of the cross. Father Prevost spoke a few words and the ceremony was closed with the sing ing of "O Crux Ave spes unica." The place was christened "Mont Croix."

The 65th moved downstream and took part in the Battle of Frenchman's Butte on May 28th.

The cross remained in position in the Saskatchewan valley at least until the second of July, 1885. On that day the 65th regiment on board the river steamer "Baroness" and headed for home in Montreal took off their hats in salute as they passed the cross they had erected at Frog Creek. One of those men, Cortlandt Starrs, would later have a distinguished career as Commissioner of the R.C.M.P. Another C. R. Daniel would write an account of his regiment's campaign in the North-West which ranks among the best works published about the events of 1885.

What happened to the cross at Frog Creek" Did it remain long enough to become a landmark on the river" Did steamboat pilots point it out to their passengers as a Rebellion relic, and tell them the story of the 65th Mont Royal" Or did a grass fire brush fire destroy it some day spring or fall day long before Cross or settlers could find it there and wonder about its story?

Perhaps some one reading this account can tell us that part of the story.

Just a "few" wild oats can cause a profit leak too big to shrug off

Carbyne kills wild oats after they come up!

Take a look at these startling facts before you decide to ignore wild oats:

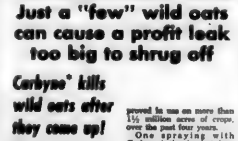
Let's say you have as "few" as 4 wild oats per square foot. There are 43,560 square feet in an acre. That means 174,240 wild oat plants per acre. Field tests prove that 4 wild oats per square foot can cut wheat yields by at least 6 bushels an acre. In all there's a loss of 240 bushels—far too big a loss to shrug off.

Carbyne kills wild oats. It kills them after they've come up, when and where they occur. Carbyne has been proved in use on more than 1½ million acres of crops, over the past four years.

One spraying with Carbyne is the simplest, lowest cost way to control wild oats.

You can expect to get back $3 in extra yields for each $1 you invest in Carbyne.

Don't put it off. See us right away for information on how to spot wild oat troubles in time, and for complete details on how to apply Carbyne.



FREE! Come in and pick up this new book on Wild Oats. Carbyne Loaded with facts Tells you how, when and where to kill wild oats with Carbyne.

Facts-of-Motoring-Life

The first American gasoline taxes were levied in four states during 1919. Today 12 years old states and the District of Columbia levy some name for a temporary federal tax of one cent a gallon, adopted in 1932 as an emergency measure but has grown four times larger.

Gasoline taxes now add 30 per cent to the average retail price of motor fuel. These taxes cost U.S. motorists more than $6.5 billion a year — roughly $18 million every day!

Since World War II, states have enacted 90 increases in gasoline taxes, more than the average six cents a gallon, plus the four-cent federal tax. The average tax per gallon, including taxes, dropped 9 per cent in the same period, while the overall consumer price index rose 8 9 per cent

If missing teeth are not replaced, food cannot be chewed properly and stomach troubles begin. Decaying roots can throw pus into the system, leading to rheumatic problems.

An overextended or loose fitting denture can be so irritating that continuous pain can occur. Have you visited your dentist recently? If not, you would be very wise to check your teeth soon. We carry a complete stock of helpful dental aids.

Health Unit Notes

NAIL BITING IN CHILDREN

Chek's on his general physical condition, recheck his eating and sleeping habits. Make sure they're in line with what are considered to be likely needs for a child of his age. He should be gaining in weight steadily and his color should be good. Does he tire easily? If so something's amiss. Again, ask yourself if he is getting enough activity, running, jumping, lively outdoor play.

Now how about the emotional well being? Here is likely where the real trouble lies. Build up the child's self-confidence by talking him feel that he can do things himself and that when he really needs help you are ready to give it. Show him you're proud of the things he is learning to do for himself.

2. If you have him too dependent on you, however, he may reveal his need for more freedom by nail biting. He may show his anxieties and fears in the same way if you expect too much of him and give him reason to fear that he won't be able to measure up. Or it may be something in his school situation facing work that is overwhelming for difficult or a teacher who is very severe in her discipline.

Standard Fee For Birth, Marriage and Death Certificates

A flat rate of two dollars for each birth, marriage and death certificate has been in effect in Alberta since April 1st 1965. Birth and marriage certificates are available in attractive wallet size plastic or long paper form and death certificates in paper form.

The introduction of this fee in Alberta marked an important first step towards a standard fee all across Canada for these certificates. This standard fee for all provinces and territories was recommended by the Vital Statistics Council for Canada at a meeting in Ottawa last June. The Council is body composed of the vital statistics registrars of the provinces and territories under the chairmanship of the Dominion Statistician, found wide variations in the fee charged from province to province and for different types of certificates in the same province, as well as for extra copies of the same document. The discrepancies in price ranges were confusing to the public who often purchased the wrong amount with applications especially so in cases where an applicant was applying for certificates concurrently from several provinces. The council members also felt that the $2.00 fee was a fair and reasonable one for the service that is being provided.

The new two dollar rate replaces prices ranging from one to five dollars depending on the province and the type of certificates required. The rate applies to all applications postmarked or requested in person on or after April 1 1965

In Alberta application forms for birth certificates are available from most hospitals and for birth, death or marriage certificates from the District Registrar of Vital Statistics in the larger centres throughout the province. Letters of application for certificates may be forwarded to the Division of Vital Statistics, 9811 Jasper Avenue, Edmonton, accompanied by the two dollar fee.

Communities planning a centennial project are reminded that the deadline for submission of applications for centennial grants is Jan 31 1965. Enquiries regarding provincial grants may be addressed to R. D McLean, Director of Centennial Programs Legislative Building, Edmonton. Provincial Centennial Officers will assist communities in the preparation and forwarding of applications and provide liaison between Centennial organizations throughout the province and the Provincial Government.

Eskimo Children View Telephone Toll Office In Edmonton

A look at a modern telephone toll office and the intricate equipment which makes it work was afforded ten Eskimo children from Tuktoyaktuk recently.

The guided tour, provided by Alberta Government Telephones, introduced the students, many of whom had not seen a telephone before, to one of the modern, taken for granted, facilities most Canadians enjoy.

The students are in Edmonton on a 20-day visit from the far north centre, sponsored by their own community, Northern Transportation, Pacific Western Airlines and Canadian Coachways.

At the AGT toll office they had the opportunity of seeing long distance telephone calls from all parts of the world being processed and directed. In addition, they were taken through the equipment rooms where the complicated electronic devices which made modern telephony possible were operating.

GRADUATION EXERCISES

At the conclusion of the banquet Graduation exercises for the invited guests proceeded to the school auditorium for the graduation exercises at which Mr. E. Krider, school principal was the Master of Ceremonies. With his usual humor he put forth some very good ideas on how to be entertaining

As the graduands came on to the stage to a processional played by Lindsay Wilson, they were introduced by Mrs. Rea and Mrs. Berry as they walked through a rose entwined archway.

The prayer of Invocation was delivered by the Rev. W. A. Swinton. They were seated, the girls in their frothy gowns and the boys in their smart suits, before a backdrop of roses along the front edge of the stage was a rose entwined white picket fence which provided a beautiful setting for these young ladies and gentlemen who are to be commended on their achievement, for as Mr Krider pointed out, many are the honors that the students of Mannville school have brought to their school their parents and themselves. But as he said, the battle is not completely won, for in less than two months the June depart mental examinations must be attended to.

Mr. Krider also mentioned the very good coverage of the 1964 graduating class and encouraged the 1965 group to do as well.

The Salutatorian was George Pulyk, who has attained the second highest average of the graduating class during the 1964-1965 season. George proved to be a very sincere young man as he expressed his thanks to those responsible for the opportunity to continue on in school.

He closed his address with words that believe all of us to remember, for he said "No man can tell what he is by turning to his ledger. He is rich or poor by what he is."

He also said that we must give friendship as well as receive it, and quoting a short poem he concluded with "God make me worthy of my friend At the end of George's mini lecture setting talk, the Mannville Melody Makers sang the theme song of the graduation "Moonlight and Roses". This was beautifully done and very well received.

Mr Malin, Mannville representative on the County School Committee, was then invited to speak. In doing so he congratulated the parents of the graduating people on the stage whom he wished every success Mr Malin said that it was the desire of the school committee to provide facilities for all to gain the knowledge they desire.

CLASS HISTORIAN

The class historian was Keith Berry, a Grade XI student at Mannville high. Keith produced an interesting account of the activities of the graduands since they started school stating they had done something humorous making themselves known through the years some stating bringing honor to their school, others by brightening the atmosphere with their escapades. He also mentioned Miss A Bourassa of Reno Nevada, stating that the 1965 graduating class were Miss Bourassa's grade one pupils A copy of the class history has been sent to her in Nevada.

FORMER PRINCIPAL IS GUEST SPEAKER

Mr Oisenberg, guest speaker, was then introduced, but in all reality he did not need an introduction for he had been a principal at Mannville during the late 40's and early 50's, a period of 19 years in all. Mr Oisenberg who is, among other positions, assistant principal at Victoria Composite was a most interesting and able speaker He expressed his pleasure at being invited to speak that night and could remember many of the graduands' early days in school He chose as his topic "How to be a successful failure" and after pointing out the requirements of such, changed his topic by giving the first step to being a success which he quite accurately stated is to "know thyself" Each must study their interests desires and capabilities and after all make sure of the capabilities he stated that Alberta has passed the stage when a university education is a status symbol The public has come to know that a university education does not always make the person. Many fine men in the audience that evening did not have the opportunity to continue their formal education in their youth. Nonetheless they are well educated for they have learned that education never ceases unless it is by desire of the individual

There are many ways to continue to a higher education in these days and many ways of attaining the desired goal, the speaker stated and mentioned financial assistance Education is not only acquired in school, however, but also by books that we read, by participation in life and participation in community affairs

Mr Oisenberg stated that all must look for opportunities in their chosen field stating that a weak man waits for opportunities stir up men make them

He also stated that there should not be too much fear of automation replacing manpower for it still requires manpower to operate the machines and in some instances he is sure it will require more men than before

In closing he advised the graduands to: "Climb every mountain; Ford every stream; Follow the rainbow until you find your dream."

It is worth the effort and such is the road to success.

VALEDICTORIAN ADDRESS

The Valedictorian the Grade XII student with the highest a ledge average was Martie Hoek who gave address Martie stressed the value of education in the 20th century stating that in the ship of life as they leave shore to be launched on the sea of experience

Linda Wilkes then entertained with a piano solo entitled

The Editor
Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alberta.
Dear Sir:

May I have some space to make a request of your readers? My request concerns a newspaper "The Link — and Mannville Enterprise" which was published in Vermilion from about 1916 until at least the early twenties. The copy I have seen is dated January 3, 1923. To my knowledge no complete set of this publication exists in any of our country's archives.

I would like to hear from any of your readers who have copies of this paper and would be willing to lend them for microfilming after which they would be returned.

In this way at least a partial set of this newspaper could be made available for study by future historians.

Thank you sincerely.

Allen Rosaghen.

LOWER THE BOOM ON WEEDS!

Save as Much as $1,000 Per Year!

The average weed cost for each prairie farmer is $1,000 per year. Weeds rob the growing crop of valuable moisture and plant food. Use NATIONAL GRAIN Weed Control Chemicals and use them wisely. Spray early, check your sprayer, and see your NATIONAL GRAIN MANAGER for the proper chemicals and equipment. Follow these steps to better weed control.

1. SPRAY EARLY — Watch your growing crops closely . . . note the kinds of weeds and the stage and condition of both the crop and weeds. Tests have shown that yields have been increased as much as 30 bushels per acre when spraying was done in the 4-leaf stage rather than at the shot blade stage.

2. CHECK YOUR SPRAYER — Be sure it is in top condition. Check filters, hoses, nozzles, pump and gauge, and be sure calibration is accurate. A field sprayer is one of your most valuable implements. Keep it working proper-ly. Your NATIONAL MANAGER has a full line of nozzles, filters, gauges, pumps, etc., to fit most sprayers.

3. SEE YOUR NATIONAL GRAIN MANAGER—For quality chemicals at competitive prices . . . for new spraying equipment, or replacement parts for your present sprayer . . . for sound advice on what, when and how much . . . when it comes to spraying see your NATIONAL GRAIN MANAGER. He can help you with the battle against weeds, and save you money. If you don't have a copy of the new National Grain Weed Control Handbook and Catalogue, ask for one. See us NATIONAL GRAIN MANAGER soon!

Some Changes In Seeding Plans

By RALPH WILSON
Field Supervisor
County of Vermilion River

Heavy rain occurring through out the County of Vermilion River during the past week will no doubt cause some dramatic changes in the seeding plans on many district farms.

Through out the McLaughlin, F.V. areas all the wheat and about 75% of the course grain had been sown when the wet weather started. The land in these districts was getting quite dry so the rain was welcome.

In the areas around Vermilion and Clandonald and out to the border seeding has been spotty. About 80% of the intended wheat acreage has been planted but only about 30% of the coarse grain is in the ground.

Much of the remaining wheat area will now probably be seeded to rapeseed or mustard, with oats and barley acreages being increased if seed can be procured.

WILD OATS APPEARING

Wild oats infestations are noticeable on many fields as that it is probable a considerable amount of chemical spray may be used.

Flax and grass crops show excellent promise. It is late, but the prospects of a heavier crop year are still good.

May 1965 Wet, But The Wettest Ever? Not By A Jug-Full

"Never remember a May with so much rain." No sir this year was the wettest ever." Those words or something similar are the main conversation when ever people from the Vermilion area meet — but those of us who make the statements are all wet!

A casual check of 11 years weather reports in the Standard files for the month of May between '46 to '65, show that May 1965's 2.74 inches was twenty-one one hundredths of an inch below last year's 2.95. We have to go back to 1951 in the 11 year spot check to find the only other over 2 inch rainfall in May. That year the Merry Month produced a whopping 3.18 inches of precipitation.

AVERAGE LESS THAN ONE INCH

May's rainfall in 1965 was heavy, record or not. According to the Standard's records for the ten years from 1946 to 1955, the month's rainfall averaged 934 inches ranging all the way from 1951's 3.18 inches to the .01 inches which fell eleven years later in May of 1962.

DON'T BET ON THE WEATHER

The above would seem to indicate that the safest thing in the world not to bet on is how much rain will fall in the Vermilion district in any given month of May.

BE SEEN, BE SAFE

Everyone should know the value of clean, correctly-focused headlights for use in rain, fog and after dark," stated Owen C. Good, Toronto, of the Canadian Highway Safety Council's vehicle safety committee. Mr. Good advised "Never drive with parking lights. They are ineffective and illegal." He said there was plenty of reserve power and little danger of running d...n the battery by using headlights while driving.

Referring to the Council's spring car-check campaign, Mr. Good said, "Use the headlights to be seen by. Another driver is less likely to hit your car if he sees you in time. Keep a check on all lights by frequent inspection of headlights, high and low beam; tail lights, stop and brake lights, and turn signals."

Rat Spearheads In The County

Rat spearheads in the County of Vermilion River are just north of the Battle River exceeding 13 miles east of Paradise Valley.

By legal description the spearhead is centred in Ranges 1, 2, 3 and 4 Townships 47 48 and 49. This is the area in which rats were discovered in September of 1964 by a special survey, sponsored by the County and City of Lloydminster. The area was worked over in the fall but severity fell off with November's severe weather. The enemy became inactive and it looked as if Mr. Rat had the upper hand. A spotted Alberta survey which began May 17 indicates that the rats still exist. Most serious infestations were unmolested but sixteen places were found where there was evidence of rats. At three places there was no Warfarin bait out. The survey team is of the opinion that perhaps the rats have moved out to straw borts, old buildings or to some neighbour's farm.

EFFECTIVE MEANS USED AT LLOYDMINSTER DUMP

In the Lloydminster area, where was active two years ago, most quantities of Warfarin bait have been fed during the later evening time. Spring activity has been slow to a standstill. In the areas of municipal responsibility e.g. the dump, the close surveillance of city pest control officer has been effective with the problem quickly and efficiently.

PERSISTENCY PAYS OFF

Farms pose other problems, especially in the busy season when there are not enough hands. Most farmers find that if bait is placed regularly it is some time rats frequent, e.g. under grain arses on the second layer of bale stacks or old vacant buildings they never become established. Once rats are established in the rat spearhead area, bait must be put out and replaced at least once a week. Rats are particular They only eat what they want. Two pounds of bait are available at the County office rolled out Warfarin and found where there was evidence of rats. At three places there was no Warfarin bait out. The survey team is of the opinion that perhaps the rats have moved out to straw borts, old buildings or to some neighbour's farm

BAIT SHY RATS

Indications would now appear that if everyone in the rat spearhead area, ranges 1 to 4, townships 47 and 48, baited regularly, the County of Vermilion River would soon be free of the pest.

LLOYDMINSTER 4-H BEEF

The Dunrose and Blackfoot 4-H Beef Club Achievement Days will be held in the Lloydminster Exhibition grounds 1:00 p.m. on Saturday June 5. These two 4-H clubs represent 4-H Fat Stock competition at its best. During the past five years members of these clubs have been either grand champion or very close. Mr Bob Barr of Vermilion, formerly on the staff of the Exhibition Association, will judge the Blackfoot club and Mr. Lyle Robinson shorthorn breeder, Vermilion will judge Dunrose. Preparations are underway for that big Lloydminster Interprovincial 4-H Beef Show and Sale. Mel Love Supervisor of Alberta's RDP Beef Program, is Judge Reg Wade Larry Kourbatoff, Joe McLean and Stanley Donaldson worked over the program Thursday and expect 251 animals. Joe McLean is a real cyclone of energy when it comes to getting a show on the road. The committee however doesn't assume any responsibility for stall arrangement, which was done by a new central group the day before. Anyone wishing to buy some extra beef may do so Monday June 7 at Lloydminster, Sale time is 1:00 p.m.

WEEDING TREES

Perhaps someone may think the two D.A.s working out at Vermilion are shirking their traditional 4-H role. If they are it is because they are fascinated with two new chemicals, namely dimadine and paraquat. A thin layer of dimadine on the soil kills plants when they emerge from the soil. The layer is so thin as you can spread four gallons on a whole acre. At three per cent dimadine doesn't harm your trees. Two ounces of paraquat in a gallon of water will kill any living plant tissue it hits. Mixed together these chemicals kill the weeds that have plagued trees years Trials have already been started on roadside hedges at Jim Gordon's and Park Dobson's at Paradise Valley, at Joe Bahr's at Marwayne and on the high school grounds in Vermilion. Treatment is rather limited this year because a calibrated pack sprayer is the only equipment available. It is the County's hope that these chemicals will encourage more roadside hedges. If the hoe can be eliminated it is reasonable that there will be less need for more plowing in the future.

FERTILIZER TRIALS

There are only three extensive forage fertilizer trials laid out by the D.A. and County staff for the summer of 1965. One is located three miles south of Paradise Valley on some old grass land of Arthur Pate's. The other two are at John Klug's and Clarence Brown's at Pullby Lake On each of these trials every conceivable recommendation was run on with most commonly available fertilizer The fertilizer was broadcast both spring and fall. The number of forage trials at tempted in 1965 was limited by a cooperative fertilizer test with the Lacombe Experimental Farm. During the winter of 1964-65 recommendations for high nitrogen treatment of summerfallow wheat and barley were made by the soil testing laboratory. Keep out that every farmer wouldn't abide by the recommendations. Both nitrogen urea are being run on a number of farms. About 20 have been completed. Results will be harvested in the fall to check for yield differences. Reports will be built public at that time.

CROP VIGILANCE

Weed and insect damage to crops is the responsibility of EVERYONE — if the matter's eye is kept on the crop. Weeds

Dear Sir:

I would like to compliment the council of the County of Vermilion River on the very intelligent article carried in the Standard of May 20. There can be no second guess because of the excellent layout, arrangement and the well worded article with in a clear concise manner. In my opinion this type of factual reporting to the general public will not only create better

...an quite sure that in many cases and particularly regarding school affairs the very fact that so little information was available caused the public to become suspicious. If it's so good, why don't they tell us?" While evaluation of facts can lead to constructive criticism it can also lead to suspicion but instead a feeling of a reluctance that we have trees ... are being attended to I have no more information of this type in the paper and suggest that anyone interested in school affairs read each article a couple of times.

Yours truly,

Report From Ottawa . . .

. . . by Harry Hays

The Speech from the Throne, which outlines broad legislative intentions of the Government for the current session of Parliament, included plans for a major effort to improve the position of the less fortunate in Canadian society — the elderly, the ill, the unemployed, the victims of blight and poverty in our cities and our countryside.

One aspect of the government's effort to eliminate poverty among all Canadians is a more adequate housing program, to encourage conservation and rehabilitation of our cities and to eliminate urban blight.

We are also working on redevelopment programs for our rural areas, and I will discuss them in a later column.

The Government's attack on housing problems is being ably led by my good friend, Jack Nicholson, the Minister responsible to Parliament for Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation.

A few weeks ago, he introduced legislation to provide the following increase in housing finances: Three quarter billion dollar increase to be used for purpose of making direct loans to borrowers to assist in contruction of house and housing projects.

300 million dollar increase to be used for urban renewal projects.

100 million dollar increase for joint projects of the provincial government and other agencies.

50 million dollar increase for university housing projects.

2½ billion dollar increase in the maximum amount of all loans in respect of which insurance policies may be issued under the Act.

When the legislation goes into effect, these new funds will provide a very important part of the war on poverty.

They will allow more citizens to earn their own home, better provide for eradication of blighted areas, help provide adequate houses for those in the lower income groups, provide more accommodation for senior citizens, provide more accommodation for the handicapped, and provide more accommodation for university students.

This is only one aspect of our program for social welfare but it is an important one and I am pleased that we are able to proceed with it as quickly as we have been.

ARNOLD W. PLATT

Former President United Farmers of Alberta Honored

The University of Alberta conferred the honorary degree of Laws on Arnold W. Platt, executive secretary of United Farmers of Alberta Co-operative, at the spring convocation in Edmonton on Wednesday, June 2nd.

Dr. Platt, native of Innisfree, Alberta, Mr. Platt gained international recognition in 1944 by developing Rescue wheat, the first semi-rust-resistant Canadian wheat variety. His important plant breeding discovery for which he was elected to fellowship in the Agricultural Institute of Canada, was made while he was employed by the Canada department of agriculture at Swift Current, Sask.

Mr. Platt received the B.Sc. in agriculture and the M.Sc. in genetics and plant breeding from the University of Alberta, and 20 years later he returned there to his alma mater to serve as a member of its board of governors.

While farming near Lethbridge he was elected president of the Farmers' Union of Alberta in 1936 and for 13 years held the present position as executive secretary of the UFA Co-operative Limited.

He was advisor to the Canadian government department of trade and commerce at the International Wheat Conference in 1938, and a member of the Royal Commission on Transportation from 1950 to 1952. He is a member of the Agricultural Institute of Canada, the Alberta Institute of Agrologists, the Canadian Agricultural Advisory Council, the Farmers' Union of Alberta and the Canadian Seed Growers Association. Platt Lake in Saskatchewan is named in appreciation of his development of Rescue wheat.

"Where do we go from here, Mr. Mayor?"

Alberta's phenomenal expansion has led to the development of new communities, has created planning problems for present towns, villages and municipalities, from land use planning to road and expansion requires many of trained technicians. Because few of the small communities are in a position to retain their own planning staff, assistance is supplied either through the Department of the Department of Municipal Affairs or through the Regional Planning Commissions.

The Department of Municipal Affairs encourages the orderly development of municipalities through the formation of Regional Planning Commissions, and pays 50% of the operating costs of these commissions. The assistance is supplied to help municipalities cope specifically for problems ranging from road intersections to zoning by-laws. In 1964 all Alberta Regional Planning Commissions received 100% applications for sub-division, while the Provincial Planning [illegible] received [illegible] applications.

Planned Communities — another factor which makes Alberta a Good Place to Live!

Pleasant Valley

It's cold and raining and lots of mud and water layin'g around. Anything but pleasant, let's hope it clears up soon to enable the farmers to get their crops in.

It's pleasant indeed, with a beautiful baby in bloom. This should have bloomed at Christmas, but got mixed up, too!

The Doreen Gould, had a pleasant surprise on Sunday, too, when Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bidwell arrived from Killam. Ralph only operates a barber shop there. We'll be down shortly for a manicure for a free hair cut and shave — is there such a thing?

Farm Safety Drives In Areas Of Canada

While Canada has no national farm safety week yet, farm safety campaigns will be conducted in certain areas during the summer period. Ontario plans a farm safety week from May 30 to June 5. The prairie provinces will observe a farm safety drive from July 25 to St. Dates for campaigns in other regions have not been announced but plans are being developed in B.C. and some Atlantic sections.

The National Safety League of Canada has been exploring this field of safety promotion for several months and expects to organize a national farm safety campaign eventually. The need is pointed out in the League's statement that, if present rates continue, more than 120,000 of Canada's farm population would be involved in accidents that would result in 25,000 injuries and 2,400 deaths in one year.

HEALTH UNIT NOTES

THE SICK CHILD AT HOME

Most illnesses in children do not last long and are not serious. They can be treated at home with the help of your doctor

The onset or signs of illness vary. A small child cannot always tell you that he feels ill. The way he acts and the way he looks will show you when he is feeling out of sorts. The older child will be able to describe his feelings when questioned, but may not want to admit that he feels sick enough to go to bed. He will need help in learning to understand the meaning of illness and the resulting limitations in his activities.

IS ME SICK?

A child is usually fussy and irritable and often refuses his food. He may appear pale and tired or ill. He has a fever his skin may be hot and dry and his face flushed. He may vomit or have the diarrhea or perhaps he has a runny nose a cough or a rash. The main complaint of pain may be earache or stomach ache

SHOULD YOU DOCTOR BE CALLED?

If your child does not seem to be his usual happy self and has a fever or other signs of illness, it would be best to contact your doctor. You should enquire about even mild signs of illness in a baby as they may quickly become more serious. It will help the doctor to know the exact temperature. Temperatures should be taken by rectum in small children. It is dangerous to try to treat your sick child without your doctor's advice, so don't give any medicine even a laxative, before asking him. Some medicines may even make it difficult for him to determine the nature of the illness.

WHAT CAN BE DONE BEFORE THE DOCTOR ARRIVES?

A sick child needs to be kept quiet and comfortable. Many childhood illnesses are infectious — you should always keep this in mind and be careful to prevent the spread of germs. Keep him away from other children so that his illness will not be passed on to them. If possible, he should have a bed in a room by himself.

If he has diarrhea it is wise not to give the child solid foods, but he should be given cool boiled water or weak tea to replace the fluids he is losing. If he is vomiting, do not try to force him to eat or drink large amounts. Fluids are best given at frequent intervals in small amounts. When his temperature is high he will be hot and restless, so a sponge bath with warm water will make him more comfortable

It's three inches taller than a Cadillac.
You didn't believe it, either.
So you measured a Cadillac sedan twice to make sure.
And we are three inches taller.
Which is nothing for a VW owner to get swell-headed about.
But when it he did, he'd still have plenty of room for his hat.
From where a lot of people sit, the Volkswagen has always been a roomy car. It has as much legroom in front as most of the big cars you see around.
And for a very simple reason. We put the engine well out of the way in the back of a VW.
Of course, we thought of more than your head and legs when we built the Volkswagen.
That's why the rear window basket seats in a VW collect forwards and backwards. And that's why the seat backs can even be moved to three different positions.
Which goes to show that you don't always have to be rising in the lap of luxury to be comfortable.

Cooking Demonstration Enjoyed at Manville

One hundred and fifteen ladies from Manville and district thoroughly enjoyed the Northwest Utilities Cooking Demonstration sponsored by the Birch Creek W.I. and held in the local Legion hall on the evening of May 19. Home Economist Mrs. Joyce Pearson and Mr. Ron Gibbons of the Northwest Utilities were graciously introduced by Mrs. Muriel Johnson, convenor of District 2 of the Alberta Women's Institute. Mrs. Johnson explained that the monies realized from the evening's admission price would be used as a contribution to the awards and scholarships fund which is contributed to by the Birch Creek W.I.

NEW SANDWICH

Mrs. Pearson gave a most acceptable cooking demonstration, giving many useful hints that man's well "seasoned" cook could utilize as well as the younger homemaker. Such interesting innovations as "Pumpernickle Pile-up" a huge four slice sandwich with a variety of fillings [illegible] Lemon Chicken; Potato Onion Packets; Beef Stroganoff and Instant Lemon Cheesecake were used as demonstrations and later won by several lucky ticket holders.

The winners and the dish they won are: Mrs. F. B Allen Lemon Chicken; Mrs. Don Upton, Potato Onion Packets; Phyllis Finley Mustard Butter Bread; Mrs L. Metzner Instant Lemon Cheesecake; Mrs Unterworth Dr. Pumpernickle Pile-up; Mrs Earbak for Beef Stroganoff; Mrs Jim Bryden Marks Ice Box Loaf; Mrs Lorenzen Chantilly Tarte

Also on exhibit was a quaint colonial type gas lamp, suitable for driveway posts, this was most intriguing in wrought iron

ITALIAN COOKERY

The 21/2c depicting Italian cookery was most entertaining. The Italian lady commentator being comparable to Madame Benoit of CBC "Cooking Time" whose chatter during the filmed demonstration depicted a food opera for the culinary arts, also giving the listener the feeling of personal acquaintance with the speaker.

LUNCH SERVED

At the conclusion of this most enjoyable evening a delicious lunch of coffee, fruit bread and cheese was served by members of the sponsoring W.I. branch. The winning ladies happily claimed their treasures and the [illegible]

A Thought From The Editor

A combination of the pressures of modern urban living in an industrialized society and the long Canadian winter make it almost necessary for Canadians to head for lakeside cottages and holiday resorts as soon as the warm weather arrives. But the eagerness to do so often make them blind to the dangers that they might encounter when using our natural water recreation facilities.

Last year 1,137 Canadians lost their lives by drowning. Time victims were enjoying themselves at the time they were struck down.

This should be a warning to us that enjoyment of the water must be tempered with the awareness of water dangers if we are to have our full measure of fun from it.

As the Red Cross continues to tell us, "Be water wise."

Appeal For Summer Jobs For High School Students

An appeal to employers was made today on behalf of high school students by W. C. Stewart of Winnipeg, director of the National Employment Service in the Prairie Region. Adding his support to efforts being made by National Employment Offices across the Prairies to line up summer work for students soon to leave their classrooms, he called on employers to try to fit a high school student into their hiring program.

The NES is doing everything possible to find summer jobs for these eager young people but with more applicants recruited at our National Employment Offices than ever before the task is a very great one," the NES director stated. He added that in many cases the students need money in order to return and finish their high school course or go on to university.

"But just as important as the money is the need for these young people to gain experience in the world of work," said Mr. Stewart. "Summer employment will make the student worker more valuable to an employer, upon graduation," he said. "Exposure to job discipline and to the demands of the employment market in our highly competitive times provides knowledge which can't be learned in the classroom." The importance of early experience in the work-a-day world was stressed by Mr. Stewart. "It has been wisely said that of all the resources needed for the nation's economic well-being and advancement, its human resources require the longest lead-time to become effective. It takes twenty or more years for a child to grow into a mature and useful adult and a competent member of the labor force."

The NES director referred to the student as "any community's most valuable resource" and noted that the employer has the opportunity to "take part in the moulding of this citizen of tomorrow". He reminded that selection of applicants is provided by experienced employment officers. "Many employers have solved their staff vacation requirements and are able to maintain production schedules by employing eager and energetic high school students," he stated.

GREEN ACRES

By H. MORLEY DOUGLAS
District Agriculturist

DEAD EVERGREENS

Winter killing of evergreens was common in 1965. The Forest Biology Lab attributes this damage to drought. Prairie evergreens suffer from drought when they have to compete with grass or other trees for moisture. The effects are revealed shortly to the human eye, often taking several years to be apparent. Evergreens suffer from drought in the winter when dry prairie winds dehydrate the needles and the weather is so cold the sap can't move. The needles discolor, dry up and drop off. Needles, unlike the leaves of deciduous trees, only grow on new wood. Evergreens which manage to grow under limited moisture conditions are always short of sap. Normally when insects attack under the bark of an evergreen, the tree finds the sap injected with sap. Trees short of sap are unable to ward off insect attacks and this is what has happened to trees that died in ten and 20 year old groves.

HORNED PENALTY 1965

Bill Mead, Alberta Livestock Commissioner announced this week that as of July 1 1965, the Horned Penalty will be taken off all horned pedigreed cattle sales through auction markets. Non-pedigreed cattle will be marketed as penalized or as polled cattle whether these cattle are sold at a auction market or other method. To be recognized as a polled cattle sale the sale must be limited to pedigreed cattle.

SPRAYER CALIBRATION

1 Clean all dirt sludge scale from tank, hoses, boom, screens.

2 A toothbrush is a good tool for cleaning brass screens and nozzles.

2 Check pump pressure gauge and hoses for wear and leaks.

3 Check boom height for sprays minus or overlap. It's the top that gets the spray

4 The rate of water delivery from each nozzle can be checked by hanging plastic bags or cans under each nozzle for a measured time of the sprayer for one minute. There should be very nearly the same quantity of water from each nozzle. If a nozzle delivers more or less water, check it for dirt. If there appears to be no obstruction, replace the nozzle with a new one.

5 Fill the tank with water. Operate the sprayer for one half hour.

Leslie Francis, a grade 7 student in Taber used the car game of recording license plates as her prize winning idea. Last year Taber produced a provincial winner in grade five.

Gleaned from a CNR advert—Round trip ticket to Edmonton $2.60. For one day.

Under a heading of "Thoughts that Should", we read:

The town has, we believe, several regular employees for each week, a cement mixer, gravel pit, team of horses, in short, everything we need but the type to invest, for the repairing of the sidewalk about 1st St. South. We know that times are bad for the distribution of even the small amount required, but having the work done now will save a much greater expense next year.

48 Years Ago Today

JUNE 8th, 1917

As we go to press it is learned that Vermilion will celebrate Dominion and George August, the three in-fant Princes. Trappers and explorers, who left Vermilion a year ago on a trip through the northland, have not been safely. The party reached Crook Lake, a short distance from the head waters of the Eskimo.

Citizens of Canada will be called upon to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of Confederation on July 1st next.

The fire alarm was sounded about 3 p.m. Sunday when the general store of Nesbitt & Sons' loor was discovered to be on fire. Owing to the blaze spreading it was difficult to locate the exact point where the fire was burning but W. Telford of the Alberta Hotel did effective work with a chemical fire extinguisher which kept the fire down until the firemen got to work on it.

The Valley of The Vermilion

By Allen Monaghan

Many Alberta valleys carry more water than the Vermilion River valley, but none is more beautiful or varied in scenery, or more closely connected with man's history.

The Indians appear to have called the river several names. One was "Paint Creek," and early diths over the white-banked cliffs of the best source of the clay that the Indians so loved to use for decoration.

Both Cree and Blackfoot built buffalo corrals in the Vermilion valley, and these pounds were visited by the earliest fur traders in the forts on the Saskatchewan.

Duncan MacGillivray wrote about "Big Hand's" grave in the 1790's, and Alexander Henry visited the pound of "Painted Feather", the Blackfoot chief, in the early 1800's.

Next time you attend the Lea Park stampede try to imagine these hundred tents of Blackfoot camped right there on both sides of the Vermilion River. Alexander Henry counted that many there in 1808.

Geologists tell us that the drainage of this area was greatly changed in glacial times. It appears that at one time the Vermilion River ran into the Saskatchewan through the valley east of Mirvam. At another time the Saskatchewan River, blocked by ice and gravel, ran south from Deverney into the Battle River by way of the Vermilion, Sheep Creek, and Grizzly Bear Coulee. Perhaps this glacial drainage accounts for the size of these valleys.

Be that as it may, the Vermilion River now winds over a considerable area from its source near Viking. Listen to the history in the Vermilion valley: Toria Flats, Vegreville, Two Hills, the Chain of Lakes, Bruce o'Benachie, the Island Hill, Lauds Hill, Hollingdean's Bridge, The Elbow, Lea Park. And, speaking of names, Jack Cheverie said of allowing a meeting in 1905 at which someone suggested the name "Wa Wa Catsmah" for the new hamlet which was named Vermilion. "Wa Wa Catsmah", is Cree for "it winds, as a path", and was another of the river's names. Appropriate, isn't it?

To see how appropriate the name was, stop some time at the north bank of the valley north of Islay, and enjoy the view looking west over the river's meanders and ox-bows. For a different sort of view, stop just west of the Armstrong place in the Allendale district. Here there's a long panorama looking over Campbell Creek, past Land's End to the hills south of the Bowtiel district. Or, if you must be in some what attracted some of the first settlers to eastern Alberta—Scotland, Evans and Playne visit the lush valley country on the east of the Island Hill just down the valley from Vermilion.

Many times in living memory these meadows have been flooded just when the haying crews were ready to go to work. And in the spring of 1916 there was only one occasion, the approaches to most of the bridges were under water under a foot or more of water, and crossing was a risky undertaking.

How many of us have taken a boat ride along the Devil's Hole, or at Mercier's Bridge, or at Bill Digby's, just up the river from the old mine tunnel? And how nice it is to take a picnic lunch to the provincial park on which man has made a lake by putting a dam across the "Valley of the Vermilion"!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I notice your remarks re rain statistics during May with a 1.70. This might apply to Vermilion but not to the district Mr records for north of Clandonald around Rath Lake show 4.05" for May which is quite a different story.

We had a total winter's snow of 52 inches: no precipitation between Mar. 1 to April 20th Apr 28-30, .39" May 1st, 10, 16th, 17th, 20, 14th, 15th, 20, 16th, 17th, .80, 22-23rd, .70, 26th, .30, 26th, .30, 27th, .30, 30-31st 1.20. May total 4.05 inches. June 1st starts again with .20 This shows how misleading general statistics are or reports sent in from a particular station.

But this is only half of the story We had extremely heavy rain falls rains which restored most of the moisture reserve after an extremely poor year. In addition the slow break-up didn't cause much run-off and most of the snow moisture soaked in and the land is really waterlogged. In our own case we have been fortunate enough to get a considerable acreage seeded on older land before May 15th. The germination record shows, since May 15th there was hardly been a day fit to work on the heavy clay. June 3rd, we are not able to work 30 acres of new breaking without getting hopelessly mired without even pulling an implement. There are quite a few neighbors around who haven't been able yet to seed a single kernel or the are barely started. In spite of those assistive figures from our agricultural representative or from the department, things are far from being rosy, and we all are depending on a long and open fall High seeding percentages in our summer mean nothing. a few miles away things might look quite different

Rats Reported In Dewberry Area

One rat infestation was reported on a farm west of Dewberry on Monday, May 31st. No other new outbreaks were reported.

The special rat survey team of Mr. Savage and Mr. Sharek reported working over the week. Mr. Slavin Harpstead, County Pest Control Officer, found rats north of Onion Lake and west of Dewberry. The Onion Lake infestation was suspected for some time, but Dewberry was a new situation. Marvin's advice to people living in township 55 and the south half of 54, ranges 4 and 5, is to keep out fresh clean Warfarin bait at all times. One pound plastic bags of rolled Warfarin should be placed under granaries, old buildings and like shelter. The openings of such places must be closed up as the bait is in a dark cosy place. Rats feel safe in these confined places. Bait must be checked once every week. Rats will not take bait that is dirty, wet or soiled. Warfarin bait set out properly and habitually checked will rid you of the premises and control the mouse population. People who are concerned about pets, chickens or small livestock getting the bait can build a simple bait station, the plans of which are available at the Vermilion Elbow County office.

TRAFFIC' SAFETY

By Arleen Sperberg, Woodvale School

The first thing to learn in traffic safety is that accidents don't just happen; they are caused, usually by careless people, as in this case.

Donald and Johnny were good friends and they always did every thing together. As usual, they were out after school playing on Donald's motorcycle. Although they both knew that the motorcycle riding double in a small motor vehicle was against the law, they still continued to do it. They always and considered it a great thrill to be involved in this, but only to themselves, but to other people as well, but they still didn't listen.

It was a nice evening and as usual they were starting to ride down the streets of their small town, laughing and waving to their friends as they went, and neither of them had given a thought to the chance that they might be hurt; not to mention the worry and sorrow that had occurred by their parents.

Needless to say, both boys learned more respect for motor vehicles of all sizes; also they pay close attention to the rules of the road.

TRAFFIC' SAFETY

By Scott Webb, Vermilion (Jr. R. P. C. Counsellor Information School)

Phil was pedalling over to Frank's house. It was a hot day and Phil, and his dog named Candian boy, was restless. Thinking that Frank would be doing the same thing to do, he hurried on his way. Upon arrival he found Frank alone in the house, as his parents had gone for a drive.

Phil asked Frank if he wanted to play monopoly but Frank told him that he was starting to get to game. He suggested going to the park where there would be some great idea, but there was only one problem. Frank's bi cycle was also flat.

Frank suggested that Phil ride double with him. Phil agreed and it was against the law, but it was a short distance to the park, so they decided to risk it.

He told Frank that he could but they would have to be careful as he could have kept his balance on the bar, but not Frank. Frank added weight the bike happened over. Phil was thrown to the middle of the road. Just as he got there. The driver saw Frank and swerved to the left side of the road but he was not fast enough. The back wheel smashed both of Frank's legs.

Frank is living but in a wheel chair. He is in this wheel chair because he and his friend took the daring risk of riding two on a bicycle.

Writing Essay County of Vermilion River No. 24 for Grades 7 and 8 group 1 was by Miss Arleen Sperberg, Grade 8, of Woodvale school. Her teacher is Mrs M. Roberts.

Firemen Appreciate Bill McLean V.A.V.C. Dietician

Firemen attending the short courses at the V.A.V.C. certainly appreciate the good offices of Bill McLean, the dietician at the college. Bill knows how to feed hungry men and does it in a deliciously tantalizing as well as in a filling way. Anyway following the second course this spring the firemen thought that Bill needed a little recognition as they made him an honorary fireman, presenting him with a scroll extolling his good qualities, and with a fireman's helmet. Making the presentation on the left is Dirk Beland the Alberta Fire Commissioner's office who is chief instructor at the short courses for firemen, and on he right is the very popular Bill McLean who sees that the fire fighters are very well fed during their stay at the college.

"Falling In Love"

It was one of those hazy spring evenings, filled with the familiar treacherous restless urgings, those budding, clouds crowding around the setting sun and young boys and girls everywhere laughing, moaning and falling in love!

That's what they think it is, moves the pity We did, too, in our day, when boys went "courting" and the girls made sure we loved them.

But it wasn't falling in love we were recounting. There is nothing wrong with it, however, don't get me wrong. My advice wasn't that timed yet! But what I grieve about is the sad fact that these kids don't know the difference between love and romance.

If they did, these Springs could be so much more fun, so much lighter and gayer, and maybe a little less dangerous.

Romance is the meeting of new boy and new girl. The giggling and the blushes. There should be heaps and heaps of it, different boys different girls. It's the magic and excitement, the glow of the summer. Great stuff but we're not sure if it ends with that for grownup thing called love.

You are in love when you are willing to work your fingers to the bone to get your winner days so that your loved ones will be happy. You are in love when no sacrifice is too great when you can do without a car or a coat those little don't mean the difference between love and romance.

Dep. Minister To Speak At Special Rotary Meet

Mr. Kenneth Pugh, Deputy Minister of Labour and chairman of the Board of Industrial Relations of the Province of Alberta, will be the guest speaker at a special meeting of the Vermilion Rotary Club on Friday, June 11.

The meeting is the annual employer - employee dinner at which each Rotarian brings one of his staff, or an employee of another business or profession.

Mr Pugh, the guest speaker has spent many years in labor relations work. After wide experience as Chief Inspector of the Board and Conciliation Commissioner for the Department of Industries and Labor he was appointed, in 1948, chairman of the Board of Industrial Relations a position he still holds. In 1956 he was appointed Deputy Minister of Labor. This September he will have completed 29 years service in the Alberta Government making him one of our senior officials.

Mr Pugh is a recognized authority on labor law and labor-management relation in Alberta and Canada and has lectured on these subjects on numerous occasions.

The Rotarians feel fortunate in having such a recognized authority on labor-management relations as guest speaker at the employer - employee dinner and meeting.

Manville Happy Hour Group Reports

MANNVILLE: Several members of the Happy Hour W.A. of Christ Church met at the home of Mrs. R. A. Lugg for the June meeting.

President Ida Norman opened the meeting with prayers and used the form of service from the Living Message magazine during the devotional period. This was enjoyed and added much to the substance of the meeting.

Reports were heard and it was noted that local conditions are being met.

The Basement Fund has been closed out. This fund was established for renovating the heating system, realized a sum of almost $400 in two years, by the setting aside of 30 per cent of the gross receipts of the W.A.

Tickets for the "Successful Laundering" program that will be held in the church basement June 16th, were handed out to the members present, to be sold prior to the actual date of the program.

Another very interesting chapter from the Study Book "This Is My Calling" was read by Mrs. Otto. This section gave the views of a minister disclosing his thoughts on what is more or less expected of the clergy in their life that is somewhat apart.

Funds were donated for the Little Helpers. The members were pleased to have Anne Malin present as she was absent from the previous meeting due to ill ness. Anne is one of the more faithful attendees, seldom missing a meeting.

L.O.D.E. Holds June Meeting

The June meeting of the Frog Lake Chapter was held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Dowdell, Our Regent. Mrs. Florence Gibson, was in Winnipeg, attending the National Annual meeting of the I.O.D.E. Mrs. A. Mead conducted the meeting with Miss Kay Fulcher acting as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Ken Reeve who was confined to hospital.

Business items to be dealt with included a discussion of the film entitled "The Finest Hours" the story of Sir Winston Churchill. This is to be shown at the Oscalumbis Theatre on June 20th and 30th, and the I.O.D.E. urges everyone to see it if at all possible.

The winners of the lucky ticket draw were Mrs. M Pocknett and Mrs. Ken Reeve. A sincere thank you to all who participated.

This was the final meeting for this term, and plans for meeting in September will be held at the home of Mrs. Leo Klashinsky.

To bring the evening to a close the hostess served a delicious lunch served by Mrs. Dowdell and her assistants.

Nurses Review Spring Activities

The Vermilion Association of Registered Nurses Chapter No. 26 meet the last Monday of every month at 8 p.m. in the members' homes. All nurses of the district are welcome. There is an average attendance of fifteen regarding the Florence Nightingale Pledge.

The blood donor clinic had only 256 donors. Let's do better next time. There were twelve young people who participated in the Open House held at the local hospital in April.

The programs at most meetings have been very educational and up-to-date. A tape recording on Social Aspects of Plastic Surgery was narrated by Dr. Fowler of Calgary. He said that many more nurses are needed for this specific treatment area. A film on "Dynamics of Alcoholism" was shown. A question period followed.

Mrs. Waldenberger thanked all who helped with making of the posters for the hamper sale, and those who purchased tickets. Proceeds from this venture help with the Eye Alive Nursery and were the gift to the student standing highest in the VAVC nursing course.

It is found to be necessary to hold the St. John's Ambulance Home Nursing Course in the early fall. There is still room for a few more nurses. A member from headquarters will be on hand for the initial lesson.

Miss Jean McPhee and Mrs. Mae Brennan gave a very interesting report on the 47th annual convention of the Alberta Association of Registered Nurses held in Jasper, May 26 to 28. There were 513 registered nurses and 130 students attending. Rev. Hart Cameron was the guest speaker and gave a most inspiring talk on the convention's theme "Resolutions for Action". Higher education is needed to help us cope with the fast changing world.

The next meeting is to take the form of a potluck supper at the home of Mrs. Vera Barr, families are included.

INCREASED REQUISITIONS

Due to the increase in the school requisition, $5,919.00 for 1965 as compared to $3,329.00 for 1964 for the County School Division; and $27,394.00 as compared to $19,649.00 for the School Foundation Program Fund. It was found necessary to raise the Village tax rate by one mill. This will make 35 mills for the current year. A requisition was received from "Homestead" Senior Citizens' Home at Vegreville and the Minburn-Eagle Auxiliary hospital. These amounts were not large but unless the Village is a supporting municipality to these places, it would be necessary to contribute to a deficit in any home or hospital that a Manville person might be residing. There was a slight increase in the Minburn-Vermilion Health Unit and the Alberta Hospitals Act. The local hospital was over paid last year and the Village has a credit.

ASSESSMENT UP

A raise in the Village Assessment from $896,520 in 1964 to $901,916 this year made it possible to keep from raising the taxes more than one mill in various other villages towns and counties the mill rate has gone up from two to four mills. It is noted from reports in various papers.

NEW HOUSES TO BE BUILT

Building permits were approved for new houses for G. H. Newman, Elmar Christensen and E. G Rudd. Lot 7A Block B was purchased by J. Lalmas who plans to build this year. Reports are that there is a possibility of another five or more new houses being built this year.

TO OPEN LAUNDROMAT

Approval was given for a Laundromat in the former store building of Mrs. Irma Reddin. It will be looked after by Mrs. Nostad.

FIRE INSPECTION

A Fire Officers' Training School was held in Vermilion the last week of April and under the guidance of the Fire Commissioner, several fire chiefs as well as the hospital and schools in Manville were inspected. Several recommendations were made where necessary and the Fire Commissioner will be back in the very near future to check on the changes that were recommended.

BOARD OF TRADE ACTIVE

A Board of Trade has been reformed and several meetings have already been held and were very well attended too, but it is hoped that more village and rural residents will join and a permanent head this organization will be growing. This should relieve the Council of matters that are better handled by a Board of Trade. A reply from the Dominion Government re a veterinarian for the village was turned over to the Board of Trade.

CEMETERY CARETAKER

Mr. Alf Christenson has again been hired as caretaker for the Manville cemetery. It is planned to have a well dug at the cemetery — this will add Mr. Christenson in keeping the well cared for look after he has achieved in the past two years.

STREET HARVEST

It will be necessary to have a seal coat put on the Main street this year. It was advised that this be done five years after paving and the street was paved in 1960. The council has been in touch with the engineers re same. Railway Avenue and the best method of getting rid of the pot holes is under investigation.

The assessors have started on the general assessment and should be finished by the second week in June.

Part II

When the doctor comes to visit your sick child he will advise you what to do. It is important to follow his directions carefully. He will tell you what medicines are necessary, what care to give and the type of diet your child should have. He may suggest you call the local health department or the visiting nurse association to help you with care or treatments.

Explain to the child what to expect in the way of treatment and prepare him for the discomfort of examinations or injections. If hospital care is necessary tell him in simple terms what a hospital is like. Your doctor can help you with this explanation. Your child needs to know that his separation from you is temporary and that you will come to visit him when you can. It is a good idea to explain to your other children that the sick child needs more of your time than usual and to ask for their co-operation.

The sickroom should be sunny, well ventilated and as near to the bathroom as possible. Keep out other activities as possible. You will need to save your steps and energy. It may be necessary for you to cut down your usual household routine. You have your own health and the health and welfare of the other members of your family to think about as well.

The furniture in the sickroom should be the minimum. If your child is to be in bed for a week or more and the bed is low, you can protect your back from strain by raising the bed up on blocks of wood or piles of sand. The equipment necessary for care should be available: a basin, soap and wash cloths. You will want to use a tray; a double sheet or cardboard box are good substitutes! containing soap, comb and brush, toothpaste and paste, mouth wash, a glass and small bowl to receive water after tooth brushing and absorbent cotton, tissue, a paper bag for soiled tissues and a clean and jug for drinking water or drinks. There will be useful on the bedside table

The child will feel more comfortable with a daily bath and shampoo. Whether he is bed or put him in the tub will depend on his condition and on which is easier for you. Be sure he is dry and that he does not become tired or chilled. Keep clean and boiled separate especially if he has an infection.

When making up the bed be sure to protect the mattress with a piece of rubber sheet or plastic lag. When your child is very ill either no pillow or a small one may be all he will want. Later, or if he is more comfortable sitting up, additional pillows or supports will be necessary to help him stay in a sitting position. A small pillow under his knee will add to his comfort and a pillow or box to raise the covers from his feet and support them will prevent fatigue

The clothing worn in bed should provide for warmth and comfort. If your child is restless and will not remain under the bed clothes, dress him warmly and let him lie on top of the covers. In this case a sweater, overalls and socks would be indicated.

However, we should be careful not to dress the child too warmly just because he is ill.

Any sick person requires sympathy. Young children often become more dependent when they are ill and may appear to forget some of the things they have learned such as toilet training. These lapses should be handled with understanding. They will disappear with recovery.

Many of the illnesses of children are infectious and most infections are spread by germs from the nose and throat. Teach your child to cover his nose and throat with disposable tissues when he coughs or sneezes. After use, soiled tissues are placed in the paper bag at his bedside and should be burned or wrapped in newspaper for garbage disposal. If the child has diarrhea, stools should be disposed of carefully and diapers rinsed immediately.

Always wash your hands after caring for your child and before preparing food. Throw out food left on your child's tray and wash his dishes in hot, soapy water. Keep other children away from the sick one until after the acute stage of the illness is over.

If your child has one of the more serious communicable diseases such as scarlet fever, polio or measles, consult a doctor or your health department regarding isolation.

F.U.A. Advocates Improved Trade Relations With China

It would seem that shortages of other wheat producing countries had more than a little to do with the size of the recently concluded Canada-China Wheat sale.

F.U.A. President, Paul Bahry, who visited Mainland China at head of an agricultural mission sponsored by the F.U.A. last year, was commenting on a report that the Australian Wheat Board had turned down sales from 40 to 50 million bushels of wheat to China this year because of lack of supplies. The report came from Canada's Commercial Secretary in Canberra.

Members of the F.U.A. China Tour last fall stated emphatically on their return that if Canada did not take steps to improve diplomatic and trade relations with the People's Republic of China, and to make some attempt to balance our trade with her, this potential market would be lost.

It now appears that Canada will wheat only when others cannot supply it. Australia has been much more in balance. The sale sheet with China that Canada has. This effort would seem to be paying off for them.

There is no better market for surplus Canadian feed grains than 700 million stomachs in China: it appears that Canada is missing the boat and it is high time trade in both commodities and fertilizers was established.

Graduands Honoured At Paradise Valley

PARADISE VALLEY — On May 7, the Paradise Valley High School auditorium was transformed into a picturesque setting in honor of the Paradise Valley Graduands.

DIAMALTA THEME

The theme, in accordance with Alberta's Natural Jubilee, was appropriately named "Diamalta." Included in the outstanding decorations, arranged by the grade eleven class, were silver diamonds suspended from the ceiling, roses gracing the walls, silhouettes of the graduands, and two large Alberta crests. A display within a picturesque archway was enhanced by a gleaming silver fountain at one end, on which blue and red lights were focused, and a beautiful eight foot by six foot plaque held red and white roses which were arranged to read "Class of Grads".

This, then, was the scene of an exquisite banquet commencing at 6 30 p.m.

D. R. McCALLUM

Officials Named For Marketing Council

D. R. McCallum, Alberta Dairy Commissioner, has been named chairman of the Alberta Agricultural Products Marketing Council. C. H. Ferries Supervisor of Marketing Services of the Farm Economics Branch will be the secretary.

In making the announcement Agriculture Minister Harry E. Strom said Mr. McCallum has been chosen for the position because of his integrity and his prestige among both producers and processors. "The dairy industry is one of the most highly regulated", he said, "but Mr. McCallum has earned the respect of producers and processors for his fairness and his sound judgment. He is the type of person who can help producers and processors reach mutually satisfactory solutions to their marketing problems."

Mr Ferries is a marketing specialist in the provincial Farm Economics Branch. He was chairman of a department committee that studied the operation and administration of producer boards and commissions across Canada and made recommendations for amendments to the Marketing of Agricultural Products Act.

Amendments to the Act provide three alternatives to assist producer marketing methods: producers themselves can establish their own marketing commissions. The amendments also provide for the formation of the Marketing Council which will advise the minister and advise on the suitability of marketing plans, and supervise the operation of producer boards and marketing commissions.

Legislation also provides for the Marketing Council to have from three to seven members but Mr. Strom says five members will be appointed for the present. The five, in addition to the chairman and the secretary who will include representative of producers and industry, will be appointed in about two weeks Mr Strom said, so would like to have the Marketing Council fully operative by July 1st.

The work of Mr McCallum and Mr. Ferries on the Marketing Council will be in addition to their regular duties

Power Utilities To Honor Junior Citizens

EDMONTON, June 7th.—Alberta's investor-owned electric utilities will honor the award winning 1965 Alberta Junior Citizens at a banquet in the Park Plaza Motor Hotel in Lethbridge, October 22nd. The banquet will be held in conjunction with the annual Alberta Weekly Newspapers convention slated for the southern city October 21st, 22nd and 23rd. At the banquet, the winning candidates will be presented with framed certificates of merit and a $50.00 Canada Savings Bond by representatives of the electric utility companies.

In speaking of the Junior Citizen program J. C. Dale, president of Canadian Utilities, Ltd. and Northland Utilities Ltd., said, "This is the third consecutive year our companies in cooperation with the Alberta Weekly Newspapers Association, have entered in the sponsorship of the Junior Citizenship awards. The growing enthusiasm for the program by the public and the press has been most gratifying."

Every Alberta between the age of six and sixteen years who has carried out an act of heroism, performed some outstanding achievement in the face of difficulty, or displayed exceptional courage in overcoming an illness or handicap, is worthy of nomination.

Again this year an award will be made to a group of young citizens such as 4-H Clubs, CGIT groups, Boy Scouts who have completed or are carrying out a worthwhile community service project. Winners are selected by a judging panel of Alberta Weekly Newspaper editors.

Anyone can nominate a young Albertan or group for a Junior Citizenship award by sending the details of the achievement or achievements to the editor of their weekly newspaper. Nominations close July 31st.

District Couple United In Double Ring Ceremony

MANNVILLE - Norwood United Church, Edmonton, was the scene of a pretty wedding on May 22nd, when Alice Jean Winters, daughter of Mrs. Fred Leversedge and the late Mr. Jim Winters, was united in marriage with Daniel George Leversedge, only son of Mr Fred Leversedge.

The Rev. Raymond R. Smith, B.D. was the officiating clergyman

Given in marriage by her step-father, the bride was charming in a white floor-length gown of white silk organza, which featured a lace-edged neckline, fitted bodice and lily-point sleeves. The skirt was trimmed with appliqued flowers and was supported by a flowing floor length train.

Her chapel veil was held in place by a pearl laced crown, and she carried a bouquet of red roses. Her jewellery was a pearl pendant, a gift of the groom.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Ruth Lasdop, Miss Barbara McKenzie and Miss Isobel Leversedge as the junior bridesmaid, all wearing full-length gowns of blue pani de soie with lacy jackets and carrying bouquets of pink and white carnations.

The ceremony was attended by Mr Harry Lasdop and Mr. Gerry Carr The ushers were Messrs. C. Bonderove and Levern Waslynchuk.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose a blue linen dress with matching lace jacket. Her corsage was of pink carnations, and her hat was blue with white flowers

At the reception held at the Norwood Legion, the bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake, made by the bride.

Mr. H. Lasdop, as master of ceremonies, called upon Miss Florence Hall to ask the blessing.

Mrs. Fred Watling, uncle of the bride, proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded.

Telegrams were read by the groom's man.

Out of town guests were from Toronto, Regina, Calgary, Bedfort, Mannville and Vermilion.

Mrs. Arthur Watling, great aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Betty Watling, came from Toronto for the occasion.

In her travelling outfit the bride wore navy slim fit a pink wool suit, with pink fur cuffs and a matching pink fur hat. Her accessories were black patent shoes and purse and black kid gloves.

After a honeymoon trip to the west coast, the happy couple will make their home in Edmonton.

Mammoth Fair To Celebrate 60th Anniversary of Society

The Vermilion Agricultural Society will mark 60 years of service to agriculture in the Vermilion district on July 29th, 30th and 31st. This is quite an achievement when it is remembered that a Fair was held throughout the depression years with prize money being very hard to find. Those members who have strived to improve the agriculture in the area are to be congratulated.

MONSTER STREET PARADE

The Fair will get off to a flying start at noon on Thursday, July 29th with a monster street parade. The theme that will be used for the parade and throughout the Fair will be "60 Years of Agriculture in the Vermilion District". Mr. R. Gordon Ross is chairman of the parade committee and will be pleased to receive any and all entries in this event.

THURSDAY, KIDDIES' DAY

Thursday is also Kiddies' Day with special rates on the Midway rides from 6:00 p.m. Free tickets have again been made available to children under 12 years of age through the generosity of the local merchants. Each ticket is good for one ride or for admission to the Grandstand on Thursday afternoon.

4-H JAMBOREE

The 4-H Jamboree including sale of 4-H calves will also be a feature of the Fair. The attention of the general public is particularly drawn to this sale. If you are in need of meat for your locker or freezer, this is the place to buy it. Arrangements have been made with local butchers to take your order whether it be one quarter or a whole animal in the purchase, cut, wrap and freeze it to your specifications.

HALL EXHIBITS

The Judging of Hall Exhibits will also take place on Thursday and this should be finished by 2:00 p.m. so that exhibitors can inspect the results.

Judging of Light Horse classes will also start on the first day at 2:00 p.m. This is necessary so that all classes may be judged by noon Saturday. All other judging will commence at 10:00 a.m. on Friday.

SHOW OF CHAMPIONS

Saturday will feature a 4-H Show of Champions, an exhibit of dairy cattle from surrounding district clubs. This should prove to be a popular addition to the junior classes at the Fair.

The feature attraction of this show will be the Browning Family. Two children and their parents who are most versatile musically. They have been featured performers on the Ed Sullivan Show as well as many other T.V. and stage productions. One of the girls is Miss Missouri, 1965, which should be of interest to all the girl watchers of the area.

Due to ever increasing costs of operation the society has found it necessary for the first time in history to increase the gate admission. Advance tickets which will go on sale shortly will sell at 1 for $1.25. It is felt that a small increase will be possible at the gate and that every citizen will be a minor of entertainment. It is put out in the Fair Book that $1.00 admission

Auburndale United Church Observes Two Anniversaries

Members of the Auburndale United Church suitably observed the two anniversaries on Sunday, June 13, that of Church Union, and the dedication of the Auburndale United Church.

Built forty years ago, the new Auburndale Church was the first to be dedicated following the union of the Methodist, Presbyterian, and Congregational churches consummated on June 10th, 1925. Thus two anniversaries were observed, anniversaries of movements which have both played important and major roles, one in the life of a nation, the other in the life of a virile rural community.

To suitably commemorate the two anniversaries, an inspiring service was held in the Auburndale Church under the able direction of the student minister, Mr. Roy Babcock, with the guest minister being the Rev. C. D. Powell, D.D., Superintendent of Home Missions for Northern Alberta.

Mr Babcock offered a sincere welcome to the congregation, a congregation which completely filled the church. He mentioned those who had returned from distant points for the special occasion, and welcomed to the congregation Mr Ashley Cooper, M.L.A. and Mrs. Cooper.

He also delved into the records of the church for some interesting reminiscences, remarking that the first baby to be christened in the church was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Saunderson, and that Mr and Mrs. Samuelson were in the congregation to-day. The first couple to be married in the church were Mr and Mrs Lloyd Ewart who were present. Mrs Ewart is a member of the church.

Father's Day — June 20th

Father's Day isn't quite so highly publicized as Mother's Day, but on his Day-of-the-year, his gifts should be as well thought out as those for Mother. If Dad is putting on a little too much weight, choose something that will take him out of his armchair and into the garden, onto the golf course or out fishing. Like Mother, Father may need new glasses or a little dental attention or, if he hasn't had a medical checkup since goodness knows when, a visit to his doctor might be arranged. Perhaps Dad is on the retired list and funds are not too easily available, so that some gift that would help his good health and comfort might give him a longer lease on life and more "Happy Father's Days."

* * *

In 1964, traffic accidents in Canada took 4,655 lives; traffic accidents caused 139,534 injuries, totals that had increased by 10.6 from 1963. Pedestrians and motorists should be conscious of their responsibility towards the safety of the public; parents should realize that their children's safety is influenced by their training both by precept and example. Parents who disobey traffic lights encourage their small children to take dangerous chances in crossing busy streets.

GREEN ACRES

By H. MORLEY DOUGLAS
District Agriculturist

RASPBERRY FLEA BEETLES

Art Chesterman and Henning Stavenhiver are reported to be spraying rape fields with D.D.T. to control Raspberry Flea Beetles.

It might be very worthwhile to treat any rapeseed still to be sown with Lindane. Insecticide Lindane seed treatments have been specifically formulated for rapeseed.

Any fields which were sown with treated seed should be watched closely and at the first indication of damage should be sprayed with D.D.T. The Flea Beetle is small but difficult to see but small holes in the leaves of rape seedlings are a sure indication of his presence.

CROP INSURANCE

Farmers who are signed up for crop insurance with the Alberta Crop Insurance Corporation are urged to get their final seed acreage reports in to the local agent as soon as seeding is completed. The acreage report should be accurate because the acreage will be measured in case loss is paid. If you report less acreage than you have, loss will be paid only on that acreage declared. If acreage is over declared, you will pay unnecessary premiums.

GRASSHOPPERS

We overheard Marvin Herpchen say that some people are still concerned about the safety of rat baits. From one point of view this is encouraging because we should all be concerned about the safe use of pesticides. With respect to the baits being supplied by the county, however, we need not be too afraid.

There are two basic types of rodenticides: the quick acting poisons and the slower cumulative poisons. Warfarin, which the County is distributing, is an example of the anticoagulant type. These antiprothrombins when eaten even in small quantities for three to five days, cause a gradual thinning of the blood. Death is slow and painless as a result of loss of blood from internal and external bleeding.

It is readily seen that Warfarin is quite safe to humans and domestic animals because of the absence of either of these eating some regularly for a number of days is small. The safety margin can be further improved by using bait stations which are accessible to domestic animals. The faster acting poisons are not as safe, of course, because only one dose of it could cause death.

A new quick acting poison has been developed which has been given the name "Shoots" It is said to be ready to use here and while it kills rats it is non-hazardous to domestic animals or humans. This poison will be used for reducing sweet infestations, but will probably not be as effective in complete eradication as are the Warfarin type baits.

FIELD SPRAYER OPERATION

An important consideration in obtaining satisfactory results from spraying operations, besides good mechanical conditions of the pump and nozzles, etc., is the stabilizing of the booms. We often see sprayer booms whipping to the point where one end may be three feet above ground and the other end near to dragging. If the nozzles are spaced at twenty inches along the manifold the spray pattern will cover about twenty inches when the boom is at the right height. If the boom drops to a point where the spray pattern is only four inches wide the narrow strip will receive roughly five times the amount of chemical it should and the spaces between will receive almost none.

HEADLICE

Vaccination of all cattle between four months and two years of age is mandatory in a very cheap insurance against the loss of these animals. Cattle should be vaccinated two to three weeks before they are turned out to pasture in the spring.

Usually the first indication of this disease is a heed in a dead animal lying in the field. Since the disease is not the only disease which causes sudden death in cattle, a veterinarian should be contacted immediately. Once the disease is confirmed carcasses must be completely burned or deeply buried to prevent further contamination of pastures.

AROUND HOME

Tent caterpillars have made their appearance on some of the ornamental trees. At this time of the year the tents are quite small, but yet easily enough seen. The caterpillars are easily killed with D.D.T. or Malathion or a torch on a cool evening when the caterpillars have gathered in the tent. If these leaflets get a start they will quickly reduce a tree of its leaves.

GO TO YOUR DOCTOR

We all know someone making adjustments to a power lawn mower while the motor was running the other day. These adjustments were licensed by the College of Physicians and Surgeons, but they will perhaps, on occasions, quite willingly if given a chance.

An ounce of prevention...$120,000,000 a year

Preventive care and treatment is a major contributing factor to the high standard of public health Albertans enjoy. Your Department of Public Health maintains diagnostic and treatment clinics for cancer, mental illness, mental health, rheumatoid arthritis, social hygiene and tuberculosis.

The Department co-operates with, and assists financially, local Health Units and city Health Departments throughout the province to provide services to infants and pre-school children . . . school health programs . . . investigation of outbreaks of communicable diseases . . . immunization of all age groups for whooping cough, diphtheria, poliomyelitis, tetanus and smallpox . . . control of sexually transmitted diseases . . . pollution control . . . and health education programs.

The annual cost to maintain this program of preventive care and treatment this year amounts to $126,326,000 — 25c per day for every man, woman and child in Alberta. A small price to pay compared to the high cost of care.

And when Illness does strike, Albertans find it comforting to know that they can receive the finest hospital care for a maximum of $2.00 per day.

Health Unit Notes

THE SICK CHILD AT HOME
(Concluded)

Your doctor will tell you what foods your child may have. Maintenance of good nutrition depends to a great extent on appetite. Whether his doctor allows him just liquids, a light diet or a normal diet will depend upon his condition. Give him small amounts of liquids or food at frequent intervals. He will require extra fluids while he has a fever. Fruit juices are appeal to children. Use bright dishes, colored straws and colored paper napkins to cover his tray, or to cover the plate on which you have placed his glass of juice. Choose foods with color appeal, for example, orange, tomato or grape juice, strawberry ice cream or jelly. Only a small amount of pure food coloring can be added to clear diet to tempt your child. Remember him to drink more Alphabet noodles in meat or chicken broth, milk toast, bowl of soup fun to eat. Bread cut in fancy shapes appears appetizing. Catering to a sick child does not mean he must have a fuss eater if your special catering does not conform to his likes, after a period of a child he grow to feel better his appetite will improve but not as was as quickly as his general condition.

Your sick child will need a lot of rest and sleep. He will sleep more during the night and two rest periods of at least two hours each during the day. # County Service Board Pass Budget Over $20,800.00

An expression of pleasure was received from the Field Crops Branch at the decision of the Board and Council to make available prizes for the NCWE Weed Essay Contest.

WEED ESSAY CONTEST FIELD SUPERVISOR'S REPORT

Since the January Agricultural Service Board meeting your Field Supervisor has attended a succession of meetings held in various parts of the County. Crop insurance, fertilizer trials, tree planting, road clearing plans have been among the topics discussed. I have also attended one short course held in Edmonton and in Vegreville, one in Lloydminster and one in Vermilion. All of these courses dealing with various phases of agriculture. I also attended a beaver hog clinic held at the C.A.V.C.

SILAGE TOUR

It was my privilege to be able to assist Mr. Douglas with a successful silage tour. In addition of the many thousands of trees that are to be planted in the County this spring, Mr. I. Read, of Cedar Lake has been hired to operate the County tree planter. It is expected that Mr. Read will be able to continue with us to assist in the brush spraying program. We had hoped to be able to make some modifications on our brush sprayer so as to give the beaver greater reach. Correspondence with the Niagara Company, who manufactured the boom, however, revealed that this would not be possible and we therefore been decided to use the boom as it is and to build a back where necessary on the wide roads.

EROSION CONTROL

Several district farms where soil erosion has become a problem have applied for seed for grass seed for gully control. Should snow conditions be wide spread this spring we anticipate needing considerably more time for soil conservation projects.

There appears to be an active interest in chemical weed control in shelterbelts. It is our intention to continue our experiments with Simazine and to make a few trials using the chemical "Paraquat". The results of these trials will be made available to the public from time to time.

FERTILIZER TESTS

Our program of fertilizer tests will also be continued this spring. Of particular interest to many local farmers is a test that we propose to conduct on district farms where a soil test has revealed a serious lack of nitrogen. Nitrogen, up to and above the recommended rate, will be applied on these plots and the results recorded.

From the work that is planned it would appear that a very busy summer is in prospect."

SHELTER BELT CONTROL

Considerable interest was expressed in new herbicides for the control of growth in shelter belts (ie. Simazine and Paraquat).

Mr. Wilson informed the group that these two products would be applied by himself or his surveyor by County employees this year and that he estimated the cost for this big grass cut of tree shelter belts based on an application of 4 to 6 lbs. per acre) at $4.00 per mile for a four-foot strip.

The Field Supervisor's report was adopted as presented. CS.

PEST CONTROL OFFICER'S REPORT

Mr. Herperstal reported that up to September 15th 1964, 83 infestations had been reported. Since that time 21 farms have been checked, 11 infestations have been found (7 of which were reported by farmers) and this totals 94 infestations. Mr. Herperstal left could be attributed directly to publicity in the form of radio and press news releases.

WIDESPREAD INSPECTION

He reported that he has checked most of the shelterbelt and manage grounds in the County, but stated that severe weather had curtailed activity considerably as detection was almost impossible due to the extreme conditions experienced during the past winter. Farms have been checked as far west as Range 4 in the vicinity of Dewberry.

ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN

A more intensive advertising campaign was discussed and a joint program was suggested between Lloydminster, the rural municipalities in Saskatchewan adjacent to the County boundary, the County and Provincial Governments of Alberta and Saskatchewan. It was suggested that a committee comprising representatives from each contributing municipality could be formed to formulate and control publicity. Funds to defray the cost of this idea being that the committee would plan the campaign and draw funds from the administration fund. No vote, the motion could had been directed.

Moved by Mr. Hale, seconded by Mr. Dobson, that it be recommended to the County Council, that $750.00 be made available for 1965 for advocacy a program of publicity in the Pest Control Field. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Dobson, seconded by Mr. Stone, that it be recommended to the County Council that a member be appointed to the publicity committee for the Pest Control program. CS.

CORRELATE ACTIVITIES

The group engaged in probing and discussion of the role held by the counsel by the Provincial Pest Control officers in this area and various suggestions were put forward which would tend to make the various efforts more effective. It was felt that a certain lack of cooperation was being experienced among the officials of the various administrations working on the control of rats in the border area and it was the opinion of the group that the Provincial Pest Control Officer is in an admirable position to correlate the activities of the various people involved. It was emphasized that the personality of the government officer would be a key factor in the success of the program.

DISTRICT AGRICULTURIST'S REPORT

"The Advisory meeting on April 6th was extremely successful. There was active participation which evidenced real deep thinking. Suggestions for improvement are a resolution committee, program committee and a permanent chairman. In the future the members attending should receive an outline setting up the background of the matters to be discussed. Probably this will make possible more work in the time available.

SEED CLEANING PLANT MEETING AT KITSCOTY

The Kitscoty F.U.A. invited the D.A.'s to a meeting at the curling rink at 1:30 p.m. March 29th to discuss the feasibility of setting up a seed cleaning plant at Kitscoty. The Field Supervisor was present. The proposal was thoroughly discussed. The limitations to be served was pointed out and it was suggested that if the farmers really wanted a seed cleaning plant in the Kitscoty area they would have to get out and sell it, sell it not only to the farmers, but also to the County and the Provincial Governments. Selling means information and so the F.U.A. was asked to go out and survey the area for information that would justify the establishment of a seed cleaning plant. They were told that when Kitscoty, Paradise Valley and Vermilion established the need cleaning plants, all that was necessary was the capital investment because there were no seed cleaning plants. This was discussed today, now the County, the Department of Agriculture are more interested in whether it would pay in the end.

SOIL CONSERVATION

The District Agriculturist and Field Supervisor had an active soil conservation program operating out of the D.A. office. In this program various farmers agree to pay for the filling of their gullies and the County Council, Government supplies seed at half price. Seed is usually supplied to farmers who take steps to control erosion.

ARDA

A brief report was made on how ARDA might be used to improve the welfare of many of the farmers in the County. The complexity of ARDA programs causes many with study.

AMENDMENTS TO THE A.S.B. ACT

The Act is presently being amended in the Provincial Legislature to change the A.S.B. to an Agricultural Committee of the County Council which will consist of at least three councillors, no farm members, no D.A. The D.A. will have an advisory role to this Agricultural Committee. The Field Supervisor will now be known as the Agriculture Field Man. An advisory committee will be set up of recognized County farmers and their views who will meet periodically to discuss the Extension, County and other government programs.

THE BIG CAGE
June, and most of us want to bust out all over. We may even go a bit sun-heeded and envy the free, wild creatures.
Wild creatures, Envy? Look you better IQ
All wildlife is imprisoned by natural law, confined to vast cages with walls of air pressure, moisture, temperature oceans or mountains. The pronghorn antelope could never live in the Arctic and the polar bear wasn't built for a climate like Florida. Each has a broad but definite home range.
Within home ranges creatures are limited to definite habitats. The moose is generally confined to moist, low habitats like and the mountain goat have the same northern range, but never share the same habitat.
And even within like habitat, a wild creature is handed by nature into a set of living conditions called the ecological niche. This is a poplar beside an oak-field to a red squirrel or a brushpile by a wheat field to a chipmunk. It is the home, environment of each animal.
But the animal is not always free to wander at will within his home circle. Most animals and birds eventual territories, also by personal claims on a fragment of home range. These are set up for the individual family or social group, and trespassers of the same species must beware. Jenny Wren stakes her claim on a clothesline post. Grizzly bears claim "sign trees" and the rooster pheasant struts and crows. Men build fences and fly flags.
Territories are defended areas and may be defended to the death. A bear might have a territory of 30 square miles but will not leave it without a battle, for bears in adjoining territories would fight him and as a trespasser he would be at a psychological disadvantage. Your terrier can defend his own lawn against a mouth bigger dog. The entire town may be the terrier's home range. The city block is his habitat. The neighborhood is his ecological niche and the front lawn is his territory.

Riverton News

(Held over from last week)

With all the rain we have been getting lately especially on week-ends, the farmers are finding it hard to get their crops in. Quite a number have had to cut down their wheat acreage owing the lateness of the season. The rains have certainly provided us with a beautiful green countryside.

Mrs. Dick Vivian has her mother and small niece Sandra visiting her.

Mrs. Bill Madden is noticed driving a new green Volkswagen.

Mrs. Spicer is still in Edmonton undergoing treatments but is said to be progressing favorably and may be home soon. We all hope so and she is missed very much in our community.

Mrs. Edward Hyatt spent the week-end at home but had to return to the city for further treatments. We all wish her well and hope she will soon be home as good as she too is missed by all.

LADIES' CLUB MEETS

The Riverton Ladies' Club met at the home of Mrs. Dennis Thomason with an attendance of 15 members and two visitors. There was not much business to discuss but the ladies spent a pleasant afternoon with friends and neighbors.

Shirley West and two children of Hinton are at present visiting the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mathison.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fulton on the birth of a son.

WEDDING CELEBRATION

The Riverton Hall was the scene of a happy gathering on the evening of Sunday, June 6, the occasion being the Silver Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Boothman. The hall was filled to capacity with the many friends and relatives who came to wish them well and many more sent cards. The happy couple were presented with a stainless steel cutlery set and a very beautiful and unusual pole lamp, also an artistically decorated wedding cake from the Ladies' Club for which they each thanked their friends in well chosen words. Mrs. Gratton Gardner entertained the company by showing moving pictures of the trip she and her husband took through the U.S., Mexico and B.C. These were much enjoyed by all present. Congratulations are extended for many more happy years together to Beth and Ivor.

Eastern Brokers Solicit Alberta Buyers — Sell Worthless Shares

Anyone who buys mining shares from an unknown, unregistered sales promoter is asking for trouble, says G. H. Rose, Chairman of the Alberta Securities Commission.

Mr. Rose reports that residents in towns and villages and on farms throughout the province have been receiving mail and long distance telephone calls from a number of unregistered Ontario brokers-dealers seeking to sell speculative mining stock in Alberta.

When Toronto dealers focus their attention on the little men in the West, says Mr. Rose, you can be sure their business is not good at home. Why else would they go to the big expense of seeking out "suckers" in Alberta when Toronto is such a densely populated area?

Mr. Rose stresses that some dealers are not registered under the Securities Act to sell shares in this province and the shares they are selling by mail and telephone are not qualified to be sold in Alberta.

It has been said that to the uninitiated, Canada's penny stock market can be the biggest and most dangerous floating crap game in the world." If you want to play that kind of a game, says Mr. Rose, it is your privilege but you should appreciate the risks you are taking.

It is not wise to buy Deer area recently bought shares in a mining company at a price of 69c each. Inquiries made by the Securities Commission disclosed that the market in Toronto on the day she bought them showed a bid of 15c per share with no offers. This was the only market quoted and where the shares could be traded and there would not there would not touch the stock. Albertans are buying at 41c per share.

Mr. Rose says telephone stock salesmen from Toronto, almost without exception, attempt to sell shares at the offering price quoted in a prospectus but they never inform you that the shares are highly speculative investments, that they may be trading in Toronto at a price considerably below the offering prices stated in the prospectus and that in many cases there is no market at all if you want to sell them again.

If you want to buy Eastern speculative mining stock, Mr. Rose advises consulting a registered securities dealer in your area. If one is not available write or telephone to the Alberta Securities Commission, in Edmonton.

ISLAY LOCALS

We received word from Mr. and Mrs. R. Bruce Heckel Kennedy which reads: "This is the fifth day of our holiday and we have just finished a tasty fondue and are now on to Zurich; next, Lucerne."

Mr. Percy Golby and Mr. Ziz Budzinka and son Kenny had a very enjoyable fishing trip to Kingsmere Lake last week-end regardless of the inclement weather.

Here are a few Red Cross water safety tips. Always swim with at least one other person. Swim only during daylight hours. Investigate conditions before entering strange waters.

NEWS from ISLAY

(Held over from last week)

Mr. Mel Allen, teacher on the Edmonton school staff, called on friends in the area during the past week-end. He is gathering articles for his Canadiana Museum of Parkville, V.I., not far from Nanaimo.

Mr. Gordon McLachlan of Andover, Mass., U.S.A., is visiting in the Irricana and Marwayne areas. He is at the home of his brother Howard and family. He also came to attend the 30th wedding anniversary of his sister Hazel, Mrs. Hart Barnett, now living in Marwayne Islay folk are sorry to learn that Mr. Jim Barrett is in hospital with pneumonia. All hope he is soon better.

During the week-end Miss Merna McFadyen and her mother Mrs. Gordon McFadyen of Elk Point, also Mrs Maas (nee Madeline Ward) were calling on friends in Islay area. They continued on to Vermilion to visit Mr Jim Barnett in hospital there.

Word comes from Mr. Jim Allan who is visiting in Toronto that he is fine and having a very enjoyable time, getting around to see many of the outlying towns and resorts.

Congratulations to Miss Stella Purves on obtaining her B.Ed. at Convocation this spring. She is employed for the summer at the University Hospital office.

Residents of Islay were quite excited one evening last week when two men were noticed making a survey on the streets, and when questioned said it was for a water system. We think it only a preliminary one for some future use

HARDWARE STORE MISSED

The people are missing the hardware store it seems. Perhaps at times not needing too much, but already, no nails, no hinges, no linseed oil, a washer pane, a chunk of tin, tin of paint etc., we could go on and on.

The built oil station could do with an all day attendant.

The Red Cross says those backyard wading pools are lots of fun for the kids, but they could cause a tragedy if you don't supervise your children every time they go near it. Over 160 unsupervised children drowned last year in Canada.

Models From Fabrics and Dress 10 Course

These young ladies of Grade 10 are members of Fabrics and Dress 10 Course. From the left they are Yvonne Frederick, who is modelling a 3-piece suit of moss green wool, and polished cotton blouse. Wendy Brown, emcee for the evening's program at achievement night and open house at the J. R. Robson school, is wearing a blue dress in cotton and rayon blend, featuring a pleated skirt and low waistline. Barbara Payne is modelling a red two-piece suit in a wool blend fabric. The modelling was at the achievement night and open house held by the teachers and students of the J. R. Robson high school recently.

Marwayne C.G.I.T. Commemorate 50th Anniversary of C.G.I.T.

The Marwayne C.G.I.T. held their Mother and Daughter Banquet graduation ceremonies and social evening recently to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of C.G.I.T.

BANQUET

At 6 p.m. the girls, their mothers and the past graduates of Marwayne C.G.I.T. attended the Banquet in the Elks Hall which was sponsored by Unit No. 1 U.C.W. members. Following the turkey banquet several presentations took place. On behalf of past graduates, Betty Ann Murray (grad of 1959) presented the group with a scrap book, engraved with the groups name on the cover. This book is meant to keep pictures that have been collected over the years. On behalf of the U.C.W. Mrs. Laird, president, presented another scrap book in which to keep future pictures and souvenirs of the group. The girls presented their leaders with engraved spoons as a token of appreciation for the work they have done for the past year. Following dinner, everyone moved to the church for the remaining entertainment.

FIVE GRADUATES

The program began with the Graduation Ceremonies. Mrs Gardiner introduced each of the graduates, Ivonna Gawley, Norma Gray, Sharon Johnson, Darlene Robbie and Barbara Shaw, and told what each had done for the group and the church during their years in the C.G.I.T. They were each presented with a rose, an engraved spoon and a C.G.I.T. graduation pin. Then on behalf of the graduates, Norma Gray told the purpose of the C.G.I.T. and what it has meant to her and her fellow graduates for the past years. To end the ceremonies the lighted candles were passed on from some of the congregation members to show their work still goes in the church.

SOCIAL EVENING

A social evening followed. The program consisted of melodies selections, duets, solos, a fashion show of C.G.I.T. uniforms of the past and current fashions and a report on our Indonesian project. The evening closed with a play, All in the Family' which was written especially to tell the history of C.G.I.T.

During the evening Mrs Gardiner was presented with a life membership in the U.C.W. from mothers of the past and present C.G.I.T. members as a token of appreciation for the work she has done in C.G.I.T. over the past years. The graduates also presented her with a gift as she has been their leader ever since they started C.G.I.T.

We held a Tea on May 21st to raise money for our Indonesian project. A thank you to everyone who contributed

Reunion '65 Will Honor Classes Of 1915, '40, '55, '60

The 1965 reunion will be honoring the classes of 1915, 1940, 1955 and 1960.

It is hoped that we will be able to have some of the class of 1915 with us on July 2nd. This class is quite special as they were the first graduates of our college.

The class of 1940 will be celebrating their 25th anniversary and they hope to have as fine a turn-out as we did last year of the class of '39. Jonathan Fee has been very instrumental with this class and reports a large expected turnout.

Florence Briggs, Bernice Mercier, Alvin Goetz and David Aronson have rallied the class of '55 and are hoping for a large-in attendance of that year at the summer reunion.

Allen Hjorth has been doing a wonderful job of contacting the class of '60 for their 5th reunion.

While these classes are being specially honored the reunion is for all former students, staff, spouses and friends. Why not mark your calendar and start promoting the event among the former students of your acquaintance. Let's see you all on July 2nd at the Rose Hall.

Red Cross says to use life jackets from end of May to end of June throughout the summer.

Forest Fire Damage Lower

The 1965 forest fire season across Canada opened with lower estimated damage for the month of April than was experienced last year according to statistics released by the Department of Forestry of Canada.

Estimated damage was 4,000 acres, compared with 19,000 acres hit by fire in April 1964. The number of fires was 387, whereas last year there were 420 fires in the same period.

Zone Rally of I.O.D.E. Held at VAVC in May

The annual meeting of Zone 1 of the I.O.D.E. was held at the Vermilion Agricultural and Vocational College on Wednesday, May 12th with a good attendance. Preceding the meeting the members enjoyed a delicious buffet luncheon in the college dining room. This was greatly enjoyed.

The meeting was called to order at 2 p.m. with Mrs. W. Freda, vice-president of the provincial chapter of Alberta, presiding. Following the memorial prayer the memorial lessons of each chapter received the colors in a very impressive manner. Mrs. A. M. West presided at the lights.

The chapter was formed in 1927 with twelve charter members and Mrs. Newlove was the Regent. The chapter was named Frog Lake No. 1 commemorating the Frog Lake Massacre of 1884. In those years funds were raised by making ice cream for sale, holding 500 parties and dances. Contributions were made to many needy causes. The annual canvass for the CNIB was made and this is still carried on.

Other chapter reports were made as follows:

Lloydminster — The Sask.-Alta. Chapter raises money by rummage sales, selling tickets on various items such as turkeys, hams and Xmas cakes. A booth is operated at the local fair. The School for Retarded Children is aided; a musical scholarship is donated. I.O.D.E. bursaries presented and greetings and flowers sented to new citizens.

Willingdon — Willingdon I.O.D.E. raises funds by holding bake sales, selling Xmas cakes and Ukrainian Easter eggs.

Major Fane, Vegreville — The Major Fane I.O.D.E. Chapter of Vegreville projects were fashion shows, apple tag days and bridge teas. Services included scholarships, public library, and a public library building on a centennial project.

Ada I. Wright Chapter, Vegreville — This chapter sent thirty boxes of books overseas; gave a birthday cake to the School for Retarded Children, placed calendars in 4 schools and had a Father's Day tea. Judged with the Red Cross, Girl Guides for our appeals and are helping pay for an artificial leg plant.

Frog Lake Chapter, Vermilion — Frog Lake Chapter raised finances by holding a ball and talent money, handicraft exhibit at the local fair, presentation of Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip to St. Jaymond's Separate School and to later attend also held a tag day for the CNIB.

PROVINCIAL PRESIDENT GIVES ADDRESS

Mrs. Wilson, provincial president, gave a very interesting and inspiring address. She congratulated Vermilion on having such a beautiful place for the meeting. She closed on the Father's Day Tea and urged that many more be held in Zones on interesting projects.

Canadian Legion Auxiliary At Mannville Reports

MANNVILLE — Fifteen members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion met in the local Legion Hall for the June meeting, the last for the term. Madame Cynthia Bee presided. The meeting was opened in the usual manner, with singing and two of the ritual. A report was accepted as read. Committee reports were heard. Plans made to enter a float in the Dominion Day parade. Further resolutions to be discussed at the Auxiliary Convention in Lethbridge were received by the members. Madame Mae Rose is to attend as a delegate from this auxiliary.

Madame F Kreiter was presented with a set of dishes and brooch covered by a miniature Legion Auxiliary badge on behalf of the silver fingree as a memento of the Mannville Auxiliary. She will be leaving for Vermilion later on in the summer to make her home in Victoria.

The meeting was adjourned, euchre served and a social hour was enjoyed during lunch time.

The first trans-Atlantic flight in May 1919 was made by Commander Albert Read of the U.S. Navy, who continued to Portugal with a stopover at the Azores Islands. Other early trans-Atlantic flights were made by Britishers.

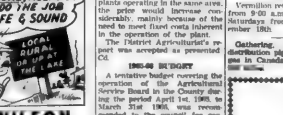
You do . . . as one of a half-million Albertans linked with the AGT system who demand, and get the finest service at rates among the lowest in the nation. You do . . . as a citizen of Alberta, because AGT's record-breaking expansion program is giving a boost to Alberta's economy. But specifically . . . what are some of the benefits you receive as a telephone subscriber?

DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING

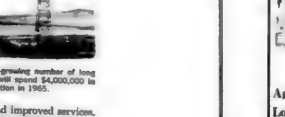
By the end of 1965 AGT will have provided Direct Distance Dialing to 60 Alberta communities.

INSTALLATION OF UNDERGROUND CABLES



During 1965 your telephone company will complete 8,000 miles of cable underground — out of the elements and out of trouble.

MORE DEPENDABLE, FASTER TELEPHONE SERVICE



This year a further 39 exchanges will be converted to dial operation to speed service and improve efficiency.

ADDITIONAL MICROWAVE SERVICE

To handle the ever-growing number of long distance calls AGT will spend $4,000,000 in micro-wave construction in 1965.

Since 1945 AGT has invested over $300 million in new and improved services. These construction dollars pouring into Alberta's economy mean more telephone jobs and more jobs for supporting industries. They contribute to the prosperity of Alberta and of every community AGT serves. Because of this continuing policy of expansion and improvement, the value of your telephone service has never been greater.

County Service Board Pass Budget Over $20,800.00

TREE COMMITTEE REPORT

The findings of the tree committee were turned over to the A.S.B. as recommended by the Advisory Council, Tuesday, April 6th."

Mr Douglas apologized for his service being not entirely satisfactory during the past month and explained this as being due to the lack of assistance. Mr. Bevins having received a new position.

Mr. Douglas expressed satisfaction at the role the Advisory Council had been able to play in securing the services of a Home Economist at Vermilion. Indications are now that such an appointment could be expected.

He stated that the establishment of a Seed Cleaning Plant in Kitscoty was being promoted by the organizations in the District, although it is the understanding that the plants already established in this would appear to be destined to be a marginal operation. He pointed out that seed was being cleaned at the present time at the Paradise Valley plant for less than 5 cents per bushel and it could be expected that, with more plants operating in the same area, the price would increase considerably, mainly because of the need to meet fixed costs inherent in the operation of the plant.

The District Agriculturist's report was accepted as presented Cd.

Major Construction Program Now Moving Into High Gear

Storm Sewer, Hard Top, Sidewalks, Curbs Included In Plan

The major construction program planned for the Town of Vermilion has really swung into high gear and despite the unsettled weather excellent progress has been made. Storm sewer has been installed well into the third block, while 49th avenue from Tenaru to McWilliams and Long is resplendent with new cement sidewalk and curb.

Laying of the storm heat line took place about the 1st and 2nd of March of this installation was in the lanes of the business section. Most of these pipes are already underground.

Then, of course came the town-wide installation of gas lines. This was followed by the laying of water and sewer lines. This latter project hit a wet year and people began to wonder if it was all worth it. However remembrances are soon over come by the very convenience of the facilities, and once the project is completed all the inconveniences are soon forgotten.

The town has gone through hard-topping and road oiling programs and has taken such projects in its stride.

GOOD PROGRESS

The Standard has been very much impressed with the progress and workmanship of the crews engaged in Vermilion's latest large construction. When completed, this will result in a great improvement in the town streets and sidewalks and in the drainage.

Standard Commences 57th Year Of Publication

Readers who follow the volume number on the upper left hand corner of the front page of the Standard will note with interest that this is No. 1 issue of Volume 57. This simply means that the Standard is commencing its 57th year of publication.

Actually the figures are not quite correct as the first issue of the Standard was printed and circulated on May 19, 1909. Over the years using the 52 issues per year to the volume and missing the odd issue for holidays, the number of the volume has crept along until it does not indicate the exact date of the anniversary.

Looking over the first issue brings forth many interesting facts. For instance in operation at that time were but very few of the businesses as we know them today. On the front page appear advertisements for Craig Brothers and Stephens Brothers, two firms, which similar to the Standard, are still owned and operated by the family which founded them. The only other firm in the same category is that of Long's Drug Store.

Other names appearing in the advertising columns which were interwoven with the early development of Vermilion were Joe McKone farm implements; Isaiah Winters, harness maker; Harry Styles, Albert Pilske; Norman Murray; J. Hird; Woodward & Morgan; Rose-borough & Co.; and Seed & Yungblutt.

From 1909 to the fall of 1916 the Standard was in a rented building located just west of where the town hall now stands. This building was sold for store purposes and the present block was constructed by the late S.R.P. Cooper, founder and long time editor of the Standard.

LEARN TO SWIM NOW!

Have your children taught to swim as soon as they can understand instructions. It is surprising how early a child can learn this safety skill and how soon they can become water babies. Many people who love canoeing and boating are unable to swim and, in case of accident, would not be able to save themselves. In some ultra careful resort lodges nonswimmers are not allowed to take out a canoe even though the craft is supplied with life jackets. The average person can learn to swim in a few lessons — why not have your whole family taught to swim. In Vermilion the opportunity to learn to swim exists right on your doorstep. Swimming lessons are given by competent teachers and start next week. Register today.

FREE FORAGE

Alberta farmers are urged to take advantage of the abundance of free forage along provincial highways this year.

O. G. Bratvold, supervisor of the provincial Crop Improvement Service, points out that most roadsides in Alberta have been seeded to cultivated forages. In addition to getting free hay or silage, farmers who harvest this feed will be improving the appearance of Alberta's highways.

Although farmers living adjacent to the highways have first claim on this feed, after June 15th the opportunity to harvest it is open to anybody who gets a permit from the resident district engineer. There is no charge for this permit.

USE DICAMBA WITH CARE!

Dicamba (Banvel-D) mainly controlling certain weeds which are resistant to other herbicides, must be used with care. Under good growing conditions barley is more susceptible than are wheat or oats. Treatment of barley would, therefore, have to be done earlier at lighter rates. It is recommended that barley be treated at 1½ ounces per acre before the crop is past the 3-leaf stage. Under lush growing conditions such as we have now the rate should be dropped to 1 ounce per acre or perhaps not applied at all according to Mr. H.A. Friesen of the Lacombe Experimental Farm. Recommended rates of application for wheat and oats are 2 ounces per acre before the crop is past the four-leaf stage.

Straw Dicamba does not kill some weeds which are susceptible to 2,4-D, it might be desirable to use the two in a mixture. Dicamba will mix with amines but not esters. It is probably simpler and safer to buy the commercially prepared mixture of Dicamba and 2,4-D amine or Dicamba and MCPA amine.

Dicamba is one of the new and better products of modern science, but it demands much care in application than we have been used to in the past with 2,4-D etc. Timing and rate of application are quite critical.

MISCELLANEOUS

The certification of the Brucellosis Control Area of County of Minburn No. 27 expires on Jan. 1, 1966. Two screening programs, namely the Brucellosis Ring Test on milk and cream and the Market Cow Test have been carried on for the last two years to detect any further infection in the area. In order to recertify the county as a Brucellosis Control Area for a further three years it is necessary to retest all previously infected herds in the county. The retesting of these herds will commence next February and will be completed by Jan. 1, 1967. In the previously infected herds all cattle will be tested with the exception of steers, calves under 8 months, dairy heifers and vaccinated cattle under 36 months of age.

By using the combination of retesting the previously infected herds and the two screening programs mentioned above, the Canadian Department of Agriculture, Health of Animals Branch, will continue to keep the County of Minburn No. 27 a brucellosis certified area. Cattle owners desiring further information on the Brucellosis Control Program are asked to get in contact with Dr. H. E. Morris, Health of Animals Branch, P.O. Building, Vermilion.

GREEN MANURE CROPS

Green manure crops are immature cereal or legume crops worked into the land to add organic matter, improve the physical condition of the soil and often increase the supply of available plant nutrients.

In this area most people are familiar with the practice of plowing down the stubble after removal of a forage crop, especially sweet clover. If the stubble is plowed down immediately after haying some benefit may be derived in the form of improved soil conditions but very little nutrient increase is realized. If, however, a fairly good regrowth occurs after haying and this is subsequently turned down, considerable increases of available nutrients will result. Whether it is practical to wait for some regrowth will depend on moisture conditions. If moisture conditions are good it may be wise to harvest forage early and allow some regrowth before plowing down. On the other hand, in dry years allowing regrowth may use up enough moisture to offset any nutrient addition and it would be wiser to plow the stubble down immediately after harvesting the forage. It must be remembered that green manuring cereal crops will not add appreciable nitrogen, but green manuring legumes will, provided the seed has been inoculated and inoculated sweet clover may add up to 80 to 100 pounds of nitrogen per acre. A high analysis phosphate fertilizer will usually give excellent returns on land that has been green manured with a legume.

ALFALFA WEEVIL

There is still no herbicide which can selectively remove couchgrass from a mixture of lawn grasses. W. Lobay, Supervisor of Soils and Weed Control, says the only way to deal with a couchgrass infested lawn is to lift it up and start again. This treatment would probably involve cultivating the sod and then applying TCA and retilling after about three weeks. The new lawn could then be seeded three months after the chemical treatment. To be sure that the lawn will not become re-infested, it is better to wait a year before reseeding rather than to reseed a lawn which is still partly infested.

Good News For Asthmatics

At the World Asthma Conference in England, The Financial Post reports, specialists claim there is a characteristic disease pattern for asthma sufferers. A study showed that after five years 45 per cent of the patients were severely disabled. In general, the disease reaches a peak in about eight years after onset and is followed by a steady remission. The pattern is the same in both males and females and in patients who get the disease early or late in life.

CANADA'S NEW LABOUR CODE/Hon. Allan MacEachen, Minister of Labour, answers some questions!

"Our new Canada Labour Code has been called a 'first,' Mr. MacEachen. Would you agree?"

"Yes, and it is one of the most all-embracing. Canada has a right to be proud of it. It sets higher standards than have been set for any other country I know. Other countries are taking note of the way Canadian Parliament is ensuring that more workers share in this country's growth."

"Briefly, who does this new Code apply to?"

"It applies to industries which fall under Federal jurisdiction—and may well prove to be a guide for other industries. The Government itself, which is a large employer in its own right, will take the lead by applying the Code's standards to its own federal employees."

"Let's get down to specifics. What, exactly, does it promise to those employees who are affected by it?".

"As we said, it sets minimum standards—and I stress that these are minimum, because, of course, a lot of workers already enjoy higher standards than the Code sets.

First, it sets a standard 8 hour day and a 40 hour week, with overtime limited to 8 hours a week, and paid for at time and a half.

Second, it sets the minimum wage rate for all men and women over 17 years of age at $1.25 an hour.

Next, it provides for two weeks annual vacation with pay, after one year's service; or 4% of wages as vacation pay for those with from 30 days to a year's service.

Finally, it stipulates that each employee shall get eight statutory holidays with pay a year—or get a full day off in lieu of the holiday."

"You said the new Code applies to industries under Federal jurisdiction. Would you name them?"

"The Code covers interprovincial or international rail and highway transport, primary fishing where the fishermen work for wages, air transport, radio and TV, shipping, banks, uranium mining, grain elevators, flour and feed mills and warehousing, seed cleaning mills, interprovincial or international pipelines and ferries, interprovincial or international telegraph and telephones, most Crown corporations and one or two other smaller industries."

If you are not sure whether you are covered by the Canada Labour (Standards) Code, write to Department of Labour, Ottawa.

Teachers On Move In Vermilion River County

(From A.T.A. News Bulletin — Vermilion Local)

June 15th has come and gone and Mr. Shortt is gone. There was no last minute rush for resignations. Most of you have been seen to have made their decisions earlier.

Mr. Bishop of Marwayne, who spent three years in our local, has secured a position at the Shuttler town staff

Mrs. Ann McCleary, on the J. R. Robson High School staff at Vermilion, has listened to the "Call of the Musk-ox" and will be taking a position with the Yellowknife government school at Frobisher Bay.

Miss Margaret Jack will be leaving Islay to take a Grade 7 position in the Hillcrest-Dale School at Vermilion. We understand they are shopping for a new home.

Miss Carol Weeks of the J. R. Robson staff is leaving Vermilion to take a position on the Lloydminster H.S. staff. Apparently we are beginning to repay the debt to Saskatchewan for many fine teachers in the past — we hear that Carol has other reasons for leaving Vermilion River County.

Mrs. French of Vermilion Intermediate has accepted a teaching position in Edmonton.

Mrs. Ross is transferring from the Intermediate School in Vermilion to St. Stephen's Separate School staff.

Miss Pederson, who soon will become Mrs. Dennis Kay, will be taking a position on the Vermilion Elementary staff

Mrs. Jessie Scrome will move from the Elementary staff in Vermilion to become vice-principal at the Intermediate School.

Mrs Hemmingway of Islay will be exchanging positions with Mrs. Mawriell of Vermilion Elementary.

Mrs. Isobel Quist is leaving Tullibs Lake and will teach at Marwayne next year.

Mrs. Winnie Matheson who taught for many years at Dewberry and Louise Lake, is returning to the Country staff at Dewberry.

Mrs. Ziegen and Mrs. Deakow of the Streamstown staff are leaving Streamstown.

Mrs. Mary Burns of Kitscoty will join the County staff at Blackford

Mrs. Joan Vivian of Dewberry will take a position on staff at that centre and Mrs. Lillian Ewen of Dewberry will also join the Elementary staff there.

Mrs. Joyce Wakefield of Coronation will be taking a Grade 1 room at Vermilion in September

Mrs. James Martin of New York will join the Junior High School staff at J. R. Robson;

Pioneers Celebrate Golden Wedding

LANDONVILLE — On Sunday afternoon May 16th, over one hundred relatives and friends gathered at the Landonville Community Hall to extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dorey of Summerland, B.C., the occasion of their Golden Wedding Day. They were married in Vermilion on Sunday, May 16, 1915.

Due to the hard work of the Alberta delegates to the convention they were able to swing the 1966 dominion convention to the city of Edmonton. The 1967 convention, Canada's centennial year, will be held in Hamilton, Ontario.

Master of ceremonies for the afternoon was a nephew, Lee Lovell from Dutzler. He called upon the bride and groom of fifty years to be beautifully dressed, seated three-tier wedding cake, which was later served to the guests by various members of the family.

Mr. Ernest Stanley and Mr. Dennis Wright spoke in honor of the occasion and reminisced of amusing incidents and regret-ences shared in days gone by. Mr Dorey very fittingly replied and expressed his thanks to all for being present and commended and encouraged the young people taking over and continuing to make this district a good place in which to live.

Greetings were received from Premier E. C. Manning and Lt.-Governor J. Percy Page.

Granddaughter Miss Sharon Dorey was in charge of the guest book. A sumptuous lunch was served to the assembled guests after which the happy occasion was brought to a close with prayer expressed and the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

COTTAGE CHEESE SCOOPS

Canadians are now consuming three times as much cottage cheese as they did in 1950. This information comes to us from the Canadian Dairy Foods Bureau. Peter round this group promotes the use of dairy products. June is the month set aside for Dairy Month, so let's have a look at our dairy product, cottage cheese.

Nutritious cheese is made from pasteurized skim milk, two types are available — dry and creamed. As the name implies, creamed cottage cheese has almost added cream, a fat content of about 4 per cent. There are 65 calories in a quarter cup of dry cottage cheese there are 33.

Unlike most cheese, cottage cheese doesn't improve with age. Serve it fresh and plan to use it within 2 or 3 days of purchase. Always store it in the refrigerator, not the freezer as freezing cottage cheese makes it tough and watery.

Commercial salad dressings taste creamy good when you mix cottage cheese before purchasing with your favorite salad mixture. And while we're on the subject of salads, try adding cottage cheese to your favorite potato salad recipe.

ALBERTA SECURITIES COMMISSION

... protection for Alberta's investors

Canada's economic development has led to a marked increase in financial offerings of stocks, bonds, shares and debentures — particularly in Alberta where there has been a substantial increase in fund issues. Protection of investors in Alberta is provided by the Attorney General's Department through the Alberta Securities Commission.

All firms offering shares must first file a prospectus with the Commission, and a copy of the prospectus must be delivered to every buyer before completion of the purchase. The Commission ensures the prospectus makes full, plain and true disclosure with regard to the company, its officers, financial status and the nature of the security offered.

Another function of the Securities Commission is to guard against fraud, connected with the sale and distribution of shares. Such activities have been known to include high pressure selling shares and debentures. Every broker, investment dealer, broker-dealer, security issuer and their sales representatives must be approved and registered with the Alberta Securities Commission before legally engaging in business.

The Commission has, and exercises, wide investigation powers and is continually conducting audits and investigations instigated both by the public, its national and international Police Organizations. The Commission works in close cooperation with similar commissions in other provinces of Canada and the Securities Exchange Commission in the United States.

The Alberta Securities Commission also administers The Investment Contracts Act, The Mortgage Brokers Act, The Companies Act where applicable, The Trust Companies Act, The Prearranged Funeral Services Act and The Deposits Regulation Act.

Alberta is a good province in which to invest money—The Alberta Securities Commission helps keep it that way.

POOR WEATHER FOR FLY-IN

The Fly-in Breakfast sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce was carried out despite the unsettled wather prevailing. Nice one minute, raining the next, it is hard to decide on what course to take. However 20 planes landed during the course of the morning, and pilots and passengers were whisked away to the Provincial Park where a beautiful and delicious breakfast was served. Here we see Clarence Duke and Gordon Allen welcoming pilot Maurice Campbell and Jim Barton from Edmonton on their arrival at the airport. Gordon is chairman of the airport committee and Clarence a member.

Chamber Commerce Now In Recess

Health Unit Notes

JEALOUSY
WHAT TO DO ABOUT IT?
(Part 1)

Jealousy is called the green-eyed monster for a very good reason. It's a powerful emotion in adults. In a young child, it can be so intensely bitter as to warp his whole personality. Jealousy should be avoided or minimized where ever it can. A newcomer in the family is one of the commonest causes of jealousy in children.

If the child knows well ahead of time that a new baby is coming, he can gradually get used to the idea. An only child under six years will find it especially hard to share his mother's love. He can't realize yet that it's possible for his parents to love two or more children all at once. He thinks of love as being something that is limited in quantity like a bag of candy. If a second or third child gets some, there is less for him.

The preparation and bustle for the new baby's coming can leave a child feeling very lonely and out of things. Most parents nowadays appreciate the importance of making a special effort to reassure the "old baby" that they still love him. But it often takes some planning to convince him. Help him to see that it is his baby too, and in this way develop his acceptance of the new situation.

If there is to be reshuffling of the household arrangements to accommodate the new arrival, do it well ahead of time. Present any changes involving the older child as being something of a reward for him because he is growing up, whether it's going to nursery school or giving up his crib or his room. The person who is to care for him while the mother is in hospital should come a bit ahead of time and be a friendly person.

The excitement of the arrival home from the hospital is a difficult moment for the older child. Everyone is preoccupied getting mother, baby, luggage in and everything settled. It is so much better if the child can be taken away from the house on some jaunt that is fun for him. Then, after calm is restored his mother is relaxed, he can arrive home and run straight to his mother's arms. Better not to stimulate any interest in the baby. Wait until he asks. Don't make him feel he has to love it and share with it.

Even though late, we welcome our student minister Rupert Ray to Clandonald and hope he enjoys his stay here with us.

Thanks go to Annie Olsen, Ethel Nelson, Sophie Prentice and Mary Thompson for cleaning the church. Also thanks go to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson for making coffee for the ladies and to Thelma Carlton for the sand wiches. Seating Thelma in church that day made us feel good as she has helped for many years with the church cleaning.

A very enjoyable potluck dinner was enjoyed by all present on June 6th and again many thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Thompson for opening their home to all of us. Mr. and Mrs. Waldie and family from Vilna joined us and we enjoyed the visit with them very much.

Our student minister Rupert Ray presented Bob Wasilenko with a Bible from the U.C.W. Bob has taught Sunday school in Clandonald for the past two years. A thank you card was received from Mr. and Mrs. Dudley (nee Helen Lovell) for the wedding present received from the U.C.W.

It was nice to know that our student minister of 1960 was ordained last spring, Mrs. Jill Bertram (nee Ann Evans).

Rupert Ray led us in a Bible study taken from "God and His Purpose", chap. 5. At the closing of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Cooper and Mrs Schoonmaker.

Dominion Day —

A Day Worthy of Flag Waving

Another holiday! All too often Canadians forget that July 1st is Canada's birthday — a day to observe that historic event of July 1st, 1867, when Confederation became a fact with the passing of the British North America Act by the Parliament of Britain. Canadians should be aware that July 1st is the anniversary of the founding of true democracy.

Dominion Day is an occasion worthy of flag waving, and business men and organizations are reminded to fly their flags in observance of Canada's 98th birthday. People all over the world look with respect, and oft times envy upon living conditions on this North American continent. We are fortunate to live in Canada, as here is not the frugal, often barren, and danger fraught existence it is in many other countries. We take for granted an easy way of living and many other things that are beyond the day dreams of people elsewhere.

Canada's birthday is therefore an occasion for flag waving, so let the flags float proudly atop every one of our buildings on July 1st. "Dominion Day"

Support Your Agricultural Society

Agricultural Societies are the grass-root or backbone of our rural communities. Many of them have been active for over 50 years and continue to make an enormous contribution toward the development of a permanent and prosperous prairie agriculture. Although summer and fall fairs are their main activity, most of the Agricultural Societies in Western Canada carry out a wide variety of other activities and projects. These include the sponsorship of crop and garden competitions, field days, livestock shows and sales, farm boys' and girls' camps, and 4-H Clubs. The work of our Agricultural Societies could be made more effective if more farmers and rura... people would give them a helping hand. Today, Agricultural Societies have a very important part to play in ARDA and other rural development projects. They need the support of everyone in the community.

Be Water Wise

I'm sure that each of us has some pet hate about our work.

I have one. I hate to write obituaries!

This year I hope that I will not have the unpleasant task of writing an obituary about you or a member of your family.

You will make me happy by observing the rules of Red Cross water safety this summer. You'll have a happier vacation and you'll live to have another one next year.

A holiday near the water can be wonderful for you and yours. But a summer tragedy is never forgotten.

Farming Hazardous

Farming has many hazards and accidents are a common threat. A period during July (21st to 27th) is dedicated to the farmer and to those who spend their vacations on farms. The campaign is to remind children and adults that the mechanical equipment and the farm animals are all part of the farm hazard, which cause many deaths and many serious injuries.

Occasionally a picture appears in the press showing some precocious child driving a tractor or other large piece of farm equipment — a youngster not nearly old enough to have a license to drive a car.

Human carelessness, neglect of safety precautions and regulations can contribute to death or injury on the farm.

If you were born in 1897 or earlier, and if you can meet certain residence requirements, you will be entitled to your Old Age Security pension at age 69, by new legislation.

Application forms can be obtained from any post office and it is advisable to send for them as soon as possible.

Marriage and Responsibilities

Marriage usually brings the responsibilities of parenthood, but some of us don't prepare ourselves to become parents as thoroughly as we prepare for a trip to Saskatchewan. Many helpful suggestions will be found in a free pamphlet entitled "Preparing for Parenthood", which you have by writing to the Canadian Mental Health Association, 618 Revillon Building, Edmonton

FORAGE HARVESTING

This year due to the late spring, there will not be much of a fishing spell between seeding and haying season. Forage crops are also more advanced than cereal crops by comparison. Forage harvesting time is therefore near at hand, in fact has begun in some cases. Time is by cutting is very important if the maximum possible nutrient values in hay are to be obtained. The right time to cut a hay crop varies with the crop but in de... MINIMUM is the stage of growth. Alfalfa should be cut when about in the 10 ... in overfill should be cut before the time of heading and of full bloom. At these stages the best combination of high protein content and yield are obtained. This is more important than a higher tonnage of lower quality.

SILAGE

If forage is to be put up as silage a few points should be kept in mind to obtain the best quality silage possible. The crop should be harvested when the nutrient content is highest. When put into the silo the moisture content should be about 65 to 70 per cent. If free liquid can have to be squeezed by hand from the chopped material, the moisture content will be about right. Getting the proper moisture content this way may necessitate wilting in the swath for a couple of hours before chopping. A certain amount of carbohydrate content is necessary for proper fermentation to take place in the silo. Adding about 150 pounds of chopped barley per ton of silage will supply carbohydrate and also increase the nutritive value of the silage. Packing is also important to exclude as much air as possible from the chopped material. It is impossible to pack the silage too much — only too little.

"SLIMEY ALLOW"

Gradually we are drifting away from the practice of leaving land fallow one out of two or three years. This practice is called black and grey soil zones. With good fertilizer practices and chemical weed control stubble land yields compare favorably with summer-fallow yields. When land is in summerfallow it is important to work the land early. Almost 30 per cent of the moisture stored in summerfallow is in the soil in spring before cultivation begins. If a heavy weed growth is allowed to develop, much of the moisture will be lost. Early tillage also prevents surface drifting and leaves the soil in good condition to take in water. On the lighter soils the maintenance of a trash cover is essential to prevent soil drifting.

HORSE POWER

Ten years ago a 30-35 h.p. gasoline tractor was a good size. There were a few 40-45 h.p. models around, but in the fall of 1957 less than 12% of the tractors sold in Saskatchewan were 45 h.p. or over. Now 70% of all tractors sold in that province are over 60 to 70 h.p. Half are over 70 h.p. and some go up to 100 h.p. Such advances have made it possible for one man with a 10'10" harvester to farm more comfortably handle a farm of 1200 cultivated acres. Likewise in seeding, technical know how and use of chemicals and fertilizers coupled with mechanization, have increased the productivity of each farm worker more than three-fold since 1930. Each farmer in Canada today grows food for 32 people. In the 1930s his production fed only ten persons.

SOME SHELTERBELT

PFRA tree nurseries have distributed 120 million tree seedlings for western farm planting, enough to make a tree belt 40 rows wide from Canada's east to west coast. In 1965 alone the PFRA nurseries at Indian Head and Swanson Hills produced 11 million tree seedlings, enough for 2,200 miles of shelterbelt.

Vermilion Wins Soccer Opener at Wainwright

The soccer season opened in the district last Wednesday when the local club went to Wainwright to play an exhibition game. Vermilion went with just eleven players as three of the regulars were unable to go due to sickness. However, they made a good account of themselves, coming out on the long end of 3 to 2 count. Three new faces were on the team, namely Bill Porter, Doug Wilson and John Conway. These boys will certainly add strength up front. This was definitely proven when Bill Porter, playing his first game of organized soccer, scored two goals, his first on a pass from Jens Hansen, which put him in the clear and Porter made no mistake from close in. Wainwright's goals were scored by Bo Hansen of Vermilion, who unfortunately kicked it into his own net when trying to clear, and Anlin who scored from a long shot which Don Maggs, in the Vermilion goal, misjudged.

Vermilion's third goal came as the result of a penalty kick when Bob Bellos gave the Wainwright goalkeeper no chance on a shot to the top left corner of the net.

It was a clean, hard fought game, well played, considering that most of the players are just breaking into the games.

The first league game at Vermilion will be on Sunday, July 4th with Lloydminster as the opposition. Watch for the league schedule which will appear in the Standard shortly and arrange to be on hand to give the locals your support.

An exhibition game on June 27th Lake RCAF ended up in a 1-all tie.

Foods are kept at correct temperatures – butter spreads easily; vegetables stay crisp and fresh; milk, cream, cheese and meats are kept just right. The freezer half of the combination stores food in zero-cold temperature.

You can buy in bulk at bargain prices: meat, out-of-season vegetables and fruit, ice cream and frozen juices. Food is stored in perfect condition until needed. A refrigerator-freezer is like two appliances in one. Ask your electric appliance dealer to show you just how wonderful refrigerator-freezers can be.

CAN YOU FREEZE FOODS?

The Poultry Products Institute has had numerous inquiries about freezing eggs? Some consumers wanted to know if the eggs could be frozen right in the shell. This is not satisfactory — first, the shells tend to crack and secondly, frozen egg yolk becomes gummy when not mixed with sugar or salt. One of these must be added for successful freezing of whole eggs and egg yolks. Egg whites may be frozen separately without adding either sugar or salt.

To Prepare Eggs For Freezing

Break eggs out of shell. For eggs to be used in main course dishes such as omelets, add 1/2 tsp. salt per cup of whole eggs. For use in baking desserts, add one half a tablespoon of sugar per cup of whole eggs. Mix thoroughly with a fork, package and freeze.

Egg Yolks

Break all egg yolks. For egg yolks to be used in mayonnaise, add half a teaspoon of salt to each quarter cup of yolks. For use in baking and desserts, add one teaspoon sugar per quarter cup of egg yolks. Mix thoroughly with a fork, package and freeze.

Egg Whites

No mixing is required, package and freeze.

NOTE: Use frozen food containers such as wax or plastic cartons or glass jars. Containers must be taken with the latter to prevent breakage during storage. Eggs must be frozen in small quantities, freezing 2, 3 or 4 egg yolks, whites or whole eggs in small containers, e.g., eggs and whites may be frozen in custard cups then removed from the cups and the frozen blocks then stored in moisture vaporproof freezer bags. Frozen individually this way they are already measured for many recipes.

Renovation and Reorganization at Islay Municipal Hospital Now Underway

In order to serve the medical and hospital needs of the people of the Islay Municipal Hospital district, the Board of Directors has underway complete reorganization of their hospital.

In May as already announced a new doctor was appointed to the medical staff. Appointment of qualified anaesthetists and dentists will be made shortly.

The administrative and nursing duties are being completely reorganized and negotiations are taking place regarding the various new appointments.

A number of structural alterations to the hospital have been made. The operating room has now been partitioned off to include a separate central sterile room. The main theatre which is located on the second floor, is now entirely re-equipped with modern instruments, modern lamps, explosion-proof suction equipment, a modern anaesthetic machine with Fluothane attachment and an Electro-Surgical Unit. The case room next to the operating room also has new instruments and a Trilene gas machine. Accommodation on the second floor now includes maternity ward, newborn nursery, men's surgical and women's surgical as well as bath room, service room and a doctor's changing room for surgery. The nurses' station in the hospital is located here and the central daily drug supply is now kept in locked cupboards at the nurses' station.

The main floor has been altered to provide an Emergency Room. This room will contain the X-ray examining couch, the equipment and supplies for applying casts and specialty dressings trays for various emergencies. A separate anaesthetic machine is also being installed for minor surgery and application of casts. A separate room has also been provided for a hospital laboratory where routine diagnostic tests will be performed. The patient accommodation on this floor includes a pediatric ward, nurses' medical and women's medical wards. Waiting room, kitchen and dining room for staff together with office facilities are on the main floor

Service and storage areas are in the basement and include laundry, root cellar dark room, maintenance department and a store room for drugs surgical supplies and linens. Most of the hospital linen is sent out to Cap Ital Laundry in Edmonton. All instrumentation will be by the Fire Commissioner and the Electrical Inspector for the operating and case rooms have been completed.

Working on the renovation program are Ward McDonald of Vermilion, WIM of Milford, Mosby and Superior Electric of Lloydminster.

Medical records on all patients at the hospital are presently completed and filed on a chart system i.e. each patient has only one folder and each admission either for in-patient or out-patient services is kept in that file. The hospital has joined the Commission on Professional and Hospital Activities. Ann Arbor, Michigan. This is a medical audit program which provides a monthly system of access to the information in the hospital's clinical records. The Professional Activity Study works with objects of the individuals records and using an electronic computer PAS offers a professional service accounting system and sticker for the hospital's own clinical statistics, research studies on clinical data from many hospitals of like size, work simplification for the medical record department and a reference on individual patients. From PAS the hospital receives its routine discharge statistics and its disease, operation and physician indexes, all produced rapidly and accurately by the commission's computer.

The doctor's house which is being built by Nelson Lumber Company of Lloydminster is located across the street from the hospital. This house will be split level and the lower floor which will have a separate entrance will contain office waiting room and examining room Until it is completed, the doctor's office is located in the staff residence and temporary accommodation is provided for the staff on a three bedroom house which is also behind the hospital which was specially designed for this purpose

The Board are quite sure that within a short time the hospital will be able to apply for accreditation and are a great deal further towards this goal

Open house will be held on Sunday in August. Details will be announced later

Happy Centre W.I. Wins A.W.I. Prize

To win the prize in a province wide competition was the happy experience of the Happy Centre branch of the Alberta Women's Institutes. The prize was for the best scrapbook to be exhibited at the Annual Meeting of the A.W.I. in Edmonton on June 1st to the 3rd.

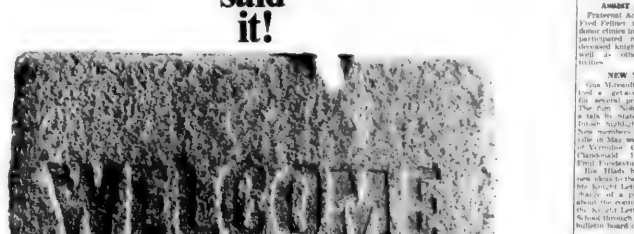
In 1934, in the heart of the depression, Happy Centre branch came into being. This made 31 years of activity that had been recorded in the scrapbook.

Heading the committee were Mrs. R. Scott, Mrs. A. Hubbard and Mrs. L. S. Cutler, all charter members. Assisting were Mrs. R. Young, Mrs. J. Cosford and Mrs. (— Finlay)

Thirty years of accumulation is a lot of material and many days were spent in sorting out usable items. The work was hard and tedious but highly rewarding

Newspaper clippings reveal the efforts of the members. While each item is not as important in itself the entire file reveals the character, the ambition and the love of work that has always characterized the Happy Centre WI

The prize for the Scrapbook is a steel filing cabinet which should greatly facilitate the recording of next thirty years of history



Welcome indeed, we never felt so much at home. You've made Labatt's welcome in Alberta. You say it every time you say "Labatt's". And you've said it so often that our brand new brewery is as busy as can be. You said "welcome". We'd like to say "thanks". We've found a lot to like about Alberta— and you've obviously found a lot to like about Labatt's.

Ten Rules for a Safe, Sane Summer near and in the Water

Until it has been certified in proper tests, water should be boiled or have one of the purifiers added, before being used for drinking. Your druggist will advise on the several purifiers available.

Don't allow young children to play on the beach unless they are wearing approved lifejackets and have an adult or older responsible child to keep an eye on them.

Don't take a running dash into the water when you return to the cottage hot and overtired. Lie in the shade to cool off for a while and then take your dip.

Don't throw broken bottles or other glass into the lake — it might wash up to the shore or to the bottom of a favorite diving spot. Put glass or china fragments into tins and bury the whole thing.

Children should not be allowed to play in the water with inflated inner tubes, since they may have small punctures or may leak while the children are depending upon them. A government-approved lifejacket is the safest thing for a child to wear while playing in the water or in a boat, even if the boat is tied up on shore.

Don't go in for a swim too soon after a meal. Two hours should elapse before you swim or dive.

Skin diving and scuba diving are exciting and interesting sports that increase in popularity every year. But they are for the physically fit and the properly trained participant. Qualified instructors should be in charge of your training — don't just try out this sport on your own.

Don't dive into strange waters — Make sure of the depth first.

Always wear government approved lifejackets when boating.

YOU CAN CONQUER OLD AGE
There are a few people who live more than 100 years and many more could achieve this goal if they followed these good rules for healthier living. For, advancing age exposes everyone to certain dangers, many of which can be comfortably lived with.

SENIOR CITIZENS NEED MEDICAL HELP
They are more subject to rheumatism, arthritis, heart trouble, bronchial colds and falls or accidents. Men may develop a prostrate ailment. Frequent urgency to empty the bladder is a warning to both sexes. Gradual breaking down of tissues can cause hardening of the arteries and liver.

CONSULT A PHYSICIAN QUICKLY
At the first sign of aging troubles a physician should be asked for help. We now have many new, important drugs which can give some quick relief to most aches and pains. Sustaining medicines help stop sickness from worsening.

DENTAL TROUBLES CAN CAUSE TROUBLE
Sensitive or poorly fitting dentures prevent proper food mastication, leading to digestive disturbances and constipation. Senior citizens should visit their dentists regularly for attention.

TRY TO "THINK YOUNG"
Have some friends who are younger. Have a hobby, especially if you are retired. Do the amount of exercise your physician advises.

DO NOT FEAR OLD AGE
Modern research has proved that you can live longer than you think possible. With the help of your physician, dentist and the wonderful geriatric medicines, vitamins and tonics now available you can have a healthier and happier future.

Help For Starving Children

During the past six months the members of the Junior Auxiliary of St. Saviour's Church, have been studying ways in which the people of different nations can help each other. The little girls who make up the Junior Auxiliary membership decided that one way to help would be by giving pennies to U.N.I.C.E.F. to buy milk for starving children. The girls collected enough money to buy 300 glasses of milk. At the Sunday morning service at St. Saviour's Jocelyn Isley on behalf of the Junior Auxiliary, presented the Rev. B. A. Hart with the contribution. Jocelyn is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Isley and is dressed in her J.A. uniform. Mrs. Wm. Boulton is the leader of the Junior Auxiliary. —A Standard News Photo

Old Battleground Marked Near Frenchman Butte

Eighty years ago, from a brush-covered hill in the Western prairies, a young man watched the last major skirmish between Canadian troops and Indians.

Last Tuesday, June 29th, he unveiled a plaque erected at the battle scene near Frenchman Butte, Sask., by the Department of National Resources.

Solomon Pritchard, now 105 was a prisoner of a band of Cree Indians which battled a mixed force of troops and North West Mounted Police during the 1885 uprising.

Other witnesses children at the time of the skirmish represented the Indians at Tuesday's ceremony at which National Resources Minister Arthur Laing announced the opening of French Man Butte National Historic Site

The 10 - acre site, recently acquired by the Department, still shows traces of the many rifle-pits dug by the Indians on the crest of a low hill.

School children from French man Butte presented a "Historama" depicting the skirmish, the last major engagement of the 1885 Cree uprising against the Canadian government.

Indians from the nearby Onion Lake Reserve performed a war dance.

Mr. Pritchard who now lives at Cando, Sask., was employed at Onion Lake when a Cree warrior, whom he knew well, killed one settler. Also employed were his father and members of his family, two white women and several other Metis families.

From Frog Lake the prisoners were marched to Frenchman Butte There, on May 28, the Indians under Big Bear were confronted by some 200 troops and police led by Major-General T. B. Strange

General Strange tried unsuccessfully to dislodge the larger Indian force strategically entrenched on the hill. But the Indians retreated northward after a strange wildness to mass their forces from Battleford. Strange gave up the pursuit 12 days later and the Bear finally surrendered voluntarily.

Increase In Assistance To Alberta Students

$1,500,000 AID IN 1964-1965

A substantial increase in the amount of awards and loans to Alberta students is anticipated this year, following a change in The Students' Assistance Act which governs the Queen Elizabeth Education Scholarship Fund. It is administered by the Students' Assistance Board, which also handles the administration of loans under the Canada Student Loans Act.

During the fiscal year ending March 31st this year, expenditures under the two plans will total approximately $3,900,000 compared with $1,941,900 previous year.

A total of 11,500 awards and loans were made to students in the 1964-65 fiscal year. The 5,950 provincial awards accounted for $1,910,000 and 1,700 provincial loans totalled $170,000. Another 4,500 loans totalling $2,100,000 were approved through the Canada Student Loans Plan.

INCREASED

Under the new regulations assistance has been expanded in several areas. Province of Alberta Matriculation Scholarships and Province of Alberta Undergraduate Scholarships were previously limited to 300 in each category. The ceiling has now been removed and sufficient funds provided to cover every student in both groups with an average of 72 or better. These scholarships are valued at $100 each and may be increased up to $1,200 if financial need exists. Grants are awarded on the basis of the previous year's average and financial need.

Structure of the grant plan has also been changed to enable students with an average of 60 to 69 to receive grants up to $300. Those with averages over 70 may now obtain grants up to $400.

University students may also be certified as eligible for loans up to $1,000 per year under the Canada Student Loans Plan, either separately or in conjunction with a provincial grant or scholarship.

INCREASES

Increases have also been made for students enrolled in the faculty of graduate studies. Previous to three provincial fellowships have been offered at $3,600 each. Now six fellowships will be offered. Scholarships to students in the faculty of graduate studies have been increased to 20 from 10. Value of the scholarships has been increased from $2,200 or $2,300 to $2,500 or $2,600 each. Fellowships and scholarships are awarded primarily on academic achievement.

Vocational students will also reap benefits under the changes.

TECH AND VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS

Students taking technical training at one of the provincial institutes of technology, students at agricultural and vocational colleges and student nurses may receive loans up to $1,000 in any one year under the Canada Student Loans Plan. Those not eligible for these loans may obtain a similar loan through the provincial plan. Provincial grants to these students have been increased from $200 to $400 for those standing in the top quarter of the class and from $200 to $300 for those in the second highest quarter of the class. Student nurse grants of $180 are available in addition to loans.

Prizes to vocational students showing high achievement in courses have been increased from $50 to $75 each. Similarly the number of prizes to agricultural students has been increased from 21 to 34.

BURSARIES

Bursaries are available to students of the Banff School of Fine Arts. These have a maximum value of $250 each and are designed to assist students in summer sessions. Total funds available for these awards have been increased from $3,500 to $4,500.

A new section in the provincial plan provides loans up to $400 a year to indentured apprentices and tradesmen. These are available to those attending full time day classes in technical or vocational institutes under the auspices of the provincial Apprenticeship Board.

NEWS from KITSCOTY

(Held over from last week)

Mr and Mrs. Gordon McLeod and family of Calgary were recent visitors here with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bootman and the boys. Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. Bootman are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bootman of Ft. Saskatchewan visited here last week-end with Mickey's father Mr Tim Bootman and their mother who is ill in the Lloydminster Hospital. The many friends of Mrs. Bootman wish her a speedy and complete recovery.

We regret to report a pioneer resident of the Thomasville district in the person of Mrs. Walter Hall passed away last week in the Lloydminster Hospital after a short illness. Sincere sympathy is extended to her husband, sister and brothers and other members of the family in their bereavement.

Mr and Mrs. Robert N. Hiltz motored to Mayerthorpe last week to visit their father and family and to bring Mac's mother Mrs. R. B. Hiltz back to reside in the Pioneer Lodge.

Mr. H. Stokes was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Black for ten days before moving to the Pioneer Lodge to reside. There are about nine former residents here now and the Pioneer Lodge at present so it will be "old home week" for them when they chat together.

Mrs. O. Bliss, accompanied by Mrs. C. Silsbey of Calgary, are here at present visiting relatives.

Mrs. Newman Browne, who was a recent patient in the Vermilion Hospital, spent several days at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. S. Pidcock, before returning to her farm home.

Congratulations and all best wishes to their future happiness are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Simpson of the Islay district. The bride is the former Eleanor Parkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Parkin of Kitscoty. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson were married in St. John's Anglican Church on June 19th. Rev. Trevor Wright officiated. The reception was held in the Tracy Memorial Hall and a dance was held in the Islay Hall.

Prior to her marriage Eleene was honored by a shower with approximately sixty ladies attending. The many and useful gifts were presented to her by Miss Marilyn Nelson on behalf of those present. Eleene graciously thanked the ladies for their gifts and for all the good wishes extended to her that evening.

Congratulations to Mrs. Fl Batty on the birth of her first great-grandchild, a son, born to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kohlruss of Edmonton, June 18th.

Mrs. A. Lindell, Mrs. Elaine Howlett and Mr Ron Lindell of Edmonton were visitors here on Sunday with Mrs. R. S. Pidcock and Mr. Charles Browne. Later in the evening they visited Mr. H. Stokes in the Pioneer Lodge and with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller and family at Lloydminster.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of the late Richard Sholditze of Edmonton. Richie was born here and lived in the village as a boy. The funeral service was held in Lloydminster on Monday, June 14 with interment in Kitscoty Cemetery.

NOTICE

A Special Committee on Administrative Boards and Tribunals has been established by the Lieutenant Governor in Council to study, and receive representations and recommendations, on the following matters:

1. A thorough survey and consideration of the Alberta legislation conferring jurisdiction or power on administrative boards and tribunals and the functions and powers exercised by them.
2. Whether such boards and tribunals infringe on the rights of individual citizens and if so, in what way and to what extent.
3. Whether there should be a greater provision for appeals to the courts from the decisions of such boards and tribunals.
4. Whether such boards and tribunals have a practical value in adjudicating matters without involving individual citizens in costly and time consuming court procedures and whether the public interest is thereby served and if so, in what way and to what extent.
5. Whether there is need for a tribunal to which aggrieved individuals could have resort for the purpose of having decisions or actions by regulatory boards and tribunals and departments and agencies of the Government, investigated and reviewed, and if there is such a need, what form of tribunal would be best suited for that purpose and what powers should it be given.

The Committee invites all persons, Companies and Associations who are interested in the above matters or any of them to file with its undersigned Secretary in writing not later than September 18th, 1965, their representations, recommendations and submissions. Following that date the Committee will announce the dates and places of public meetings at which the submissions will be heard and discussed.

Secretary of the Committee,

Principles of Union Produced By Churches

TORONTO - After years of talk and little apparent action, Anglican and United Churches have produced a document which forecasts "one organizational structure" for the two communions.

The document entitled: "The Principles of Union Between The Anglican Church of Canada and The United Church of Canada," is the work of two Committees of Union of the parent organizations, and will be presented to the General Synod of The Anglican Church which meets in Vancouver in August of this year, and the General Council of the United Church which will meet in Walter Hall, Oct., in September, 1965.

The report begins by announcing that the two Committees have reached "full and unanimous agreement" on the principles that should govern union. It points out that if the two churches are agreed in principle there is nothing to prevent them from coming together in fact. The report concludes with a recommendation that "the two churches enter into a solemn and formal commitment to proceed immediately to prepare ourselves and detailed plans for organizing final union."

Spokesmen for the churches here hailed the report as a major break through in the long struggle to bring the two communions together. They spoke with pride and gratification about the thoroughness of the report and the precise phraseology used in spelling out the principles upon which such a plan must be built.

Sheep Shearing At The V.A.V.C.

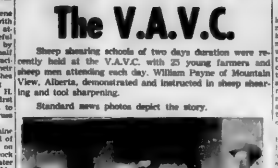
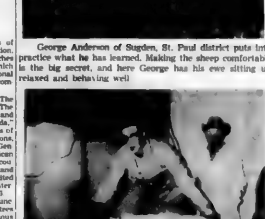
Sheep shearing schools of two days duration were recently held at the V.A.V.C. with 25 young farmers and sheep men attending each day. William Payne of Mountain View, Alberta, demonstrated and instructed in sheep shearing and tool sharpening.

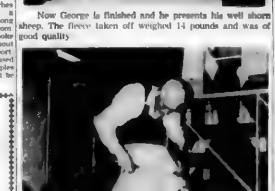
Standard news photos depict the story.



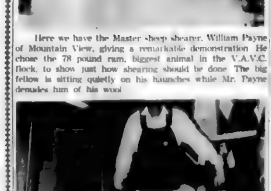
George Anderson of Sugden, St. Paul district puts into practice what he has learned. Making the sheep comfortable is the big secret, and here George has his ewe sitting up relaxed and behaving well



Now George is finished and he presents his well shorn sheep. The fleece taken off weighed 14 pounds and was of good quality



Here we have the Master sheep shearer, William Payne of Mountain View, giving a remarkable demonstration. He chose the 79 pound ram, biggest animal in the V.A.V.C. flock, to show just how shearing should be done. The big fellow is sitting quietly on his haunches while Mr. Payne denudes him of his wool



Just three minutes later the ram is completely shorn, a fine smooth job of which any shearer, and ram also, could well be proud

(Part II)

In combatting jealousy, this is where the father can step in to most effectively if — and this is important — he has built a mutually satisfactory relationship with the child before the arrival of the new baby has arrived. He can do it if he compensates in things such as taking Junior along when he checks in the furnace or waters the cow, in evenings and holidays they can play a few games, in which Junior thinks fun or do a little rough & tumbling.

Letting big brother help with baby can do much to reassure him and make his feel important. He can help bring in diapers or get the baby's bottle from the fridge. An older child, whether boy or girl can get a lot of satisfaction out of "helping" deal with enough responsibility to make him feel important without a case of baby.

If all possible mother should try to give each child a special time of the day when she is free from baby duties. While this may be difficult it might take be needed to be made by each child. Some children need to have a story read to them at bed time.

Not all children respond alike. Some children, especially those who are aware of the nature of feelings of jealousy, sometimes resort to other methods of getting attention. Regression is one of these methods. Here the child finds he cannot get the attention he has a real fear experience of sharing will attempt to regain his wealth.

But where the other child feels he is losing out he can't help feeling unhappy and jealous. His behaviour may be out of the ordinary and he may act a lot like a baby for it may come out periodically. He may suck his thumb, stutter, not eat, or not sleep. He may be just plain mean and ornery. Sometimes he seems to make up the house. He may resort to baby talk at the same time but this is a sign of affection for it is safe to be spoiled. Moping or being obsessed with the baby are two of the most damaging types of jealousy and may require professional advice.

It's natural for parents to be disturbed at displays of jealousy but to handle the child's behaviour in a stern manner confirms his worst fears — he isn't loved or wanted any more. Instead of censorship or rebukes, try to gather the culprit up in an affectionate hug, tell him you understand how he wishes there were no baby to take your time. Tell him, too, that you need him now more than ever. You are helping him to bring his feelings into the open. He won't feel so guilty and unhappy. His wonderful parents understand and still love him.

Parents — Read the Health Unit Notes

The column appearing under the heading of "Health Unit Notes" always contains a wealth of information, and should be read by every reader of the Standard. However being rather susceptible when it comes to the care and happiness of children, the notes this week are especially appealing and every parent should study the information contained therein, and then analyse his or her own attitude towards the children Children should not be made to suffer unduly mentally, due to the thoughtlessness of parent or parents. Being a father or mother is a big undertaking which takes a lot of thought and understanding, so that the enlightening thoughts under "Health Unit Notes" should be particularly helpful

Supervision Saves Lives

According to the 1964 drowning statistics compiled by the Canadian Red Cross, more than 170 Canadian children, including 16 Albertans, under 12 years of age drowned because parents and guardians failed to supervise them when they were near the water

Most of these children were completely unaware of the dangers that might cause them to drown — a loose rock, a patch of slippery mud, thin ice, or just plain youthful curiosity These dangers are apparent to adults but not to young children.

For years, the Red Cross has been advising us to supervise our children whenever they go near the water. Yet, the toll of child drownings continues. It's appalling that so many parents are negligent in their responsibility to their children's safety. It's shocking that so many young, innocent lives become victims of this negligence.

It takes only a few seconds for a child to drown. That's why the Red Cross recommends constant supervision, never to let a child out of sight when he's near the water.

Keep Your Head — Save Your Fingers and Toes

Injuries from power mowers are becoming a major problem in Canada, according to Gay McLaren, general manager of the National Safety League of Canada. Because few of these are fatal and most go unreported, no reliable statistics are available, but spot surveys have shown that hundreds of severe injuries to hands and feet occur every year because mower owners ignore simple safety rules.

Mr. McLaren suggested: before mowing, check the grass for objects that would become a dangerous missile if hurled by the blades. Warn bystanders away so flying twigs and stones will not harm them. Wear heavy shoes to protect toes. Keep in step with the mower's progress so complete control may be maintained. Cut hilly areas and banks from side to side, not up and down. Shut off the motor before making any adjustment. Never allow children to operate a power mower.

"Keep it helpful, not harmful." Mr. McLaren said.

Treatment Will Not Cure Dental Disease

"The prevention and control of dental disease is one of the major challenges of the 20th century," said Dr. Allen Salter in a recent interview Dr Salter, Director of Dental Health Services for Alberta explained that change must be made from diagnosis and treatment of the individual to diagnosis and treatment of the community.

"It is more self-evident than ever before that the approach to this national health problem must be through means of education to motivate the public to accept appropriate and practive basic proven methods of dental health Proven and recommended means of prevention not as yet generally accepted or employed by the public These facts suggest that people must first be aware of and actively concerned with dental health before they will seek treatment or use proven methods of prevention and control."

Recognizing this education need, dental officers and auxiliaries employed by 13 of the 23 Health Units in Alberta are attempting to motivate people in their districts to appreciate the value of good oral health and to take responsible action for treatment and prevention

"The responsibility for educating individuals and community groups belongs to both private and public health dentists Unless people can be motivated to brush correctly, eat properly and make maximum use of fluorides, treatment will not solve their dental problems for long."

GREEN ACRES

By H. MORLEY DOUGLAS
District Agriculturist

Last week we talked about timely summerfallow and haying operations. We felt a little foolish later when it rained for most of the week following, but then realized that there is a week on the weather between the writing of the article and your reading it in the paper As a result what we said last week applies very well today when you read it and we write this for next week. Continuing"

BUTTERFLY PARASITES

Probably most farmers are too busy now to even think, but we would like to pass along a few ideas from Dr D A. Rennie, Head of the Soils Dept. University of Saskatchewan. He asks "Why not expand within fewerlines" In an effort to improve the lot of small, late in some farm units credit has been made available which among other things, has had some effect on the increase of land prices Dr Rennie feels that farm land prices today make expansion in this direction somewhat hazardous.

Dr Rennie's suggested alternative to expanding the farm size as a means of obtaining an economic unit is to intensify production within the available fewerlines. He points out that available research data shows that production can be raised, if and all agricultural products can be greatly increased. In fact, of course opponents of this route and there are obstacles in the individual owner's way. For example we hear surfeiters and have policies which tend to restrict production Most small units lack necessary capital to finance intensification.

Dr Rennie points out that current production levels are not large enough to guarantee sufficient supplies of wheat to meet expected export and internal consumption He also feels that diversion of a part of the credit now earmarked for unit size expansion to finance expansion within fewerlines would go a long way to overcoming the obstacle of lack of capital

Dr Rennie believes that intensifying rather than extensifying our farming program must be encouraged, not discouraged, as it is at the present time. He contends that low income farm units, if given a measure of the right kind of help which will enable them to help themselves, would have an excellent chance of survival as income yielding enterprises

A NEW LIVESTOCK PEST

In the Lethbridge Research Station, Mr Carter advises that there is a new pest added to the list of human and agricultural pests. This new pest of cattle is the face fly. It was reported this year in Manitoba and appears to be migrating westwards. The adult flies appear very similar to housefilies. They do not bite but feed on exudates from the animal's body. The flies cluster on the muzzle, around the margin of the eyes or open wounds. They are thought to transmit infectious abortion, pink eye and mammalian eye worm.

The behavior and life cycle of the insect makes control with common insecticides impractical

The Lethbridge Research Station is keeping a close watch on the spread of these flies and would appreciate receiving reports of their occurrence and, if possible, specimens

WATCH FOR APHIDS

Cold backward springs often precipitate aphid outbreaks because the developing larvae have reproduction and the crops stay tender and succulent long enough to provide a plentiful food supply.

If there are about 100 of these green, soft-bodied insects on one plant the infestation is serious enough to warrant spraying with Malathion. Such an infestation could seriously reduce crop yields. Late seeded crops should be watched rather closely in order to be on top of them as soon as the number of aphids become

GRASSHOPPER LARVAE

Lately we have had several people into the office complain of the large numbers of grasshopper larvae. These worms which appear to be some type of cutworm, kill large patches in the lawns. Large numbers of birds feeding on lawns may be a clue to their presence Treatment with insecticides or endrin should solve the problem.

FIRST TWINS BITTEN

Our congratulations are extended to the Northern Alberta Dairy Pool, Mansville for receiving a first prize for butterfat in the Brandon Exhibition.

Achieving a score of 98 out of a possible 100 is a very commendable feat.

Letters to the Editor

The Barracks
Fleshburn, Alberta.

Dear Editor

Remembering the hearty co-operation we of "C" Company of the 131st Battalion had from Vermilion's newspaper "The Standard" in those four months of 1916 before the company was formed, I feel bold enough to ask that you accept a few words of appreciation of the efforts made by a well known citizen of your town, Mr. E. H. Buckingham, to bring old comrades together once more. Especially for the magnificent gesture of securing a replica of the Colors of the 151st which were destroyed when the Old Methodist Church Edmonton where they have a double memorial. First as a reminder to a magnificent group of young men who, at their own expense, enlisted of their own free will, secondly to the memory of Lt. Harold Edwards, Rector of St. Augustine's Church who appointed himself as Padre of "C" Company 151st and served without monetary remuneration or official recognition in that capacity both at home and when the company went overseas.

While we had looked for a future reunion most will look forward to more as a future date but we realize that the very unusual divergence of many days makes travelling a real hazard and hep many away.

A week of nice hot weather since the heavy rain has seen everything growing by leaps and bounds.

The last day of school was a happy one for the children The usual school picnic was held with a smaller attendance than usual Some families went to Saskatoon to the "Pioneer Days" show. Mr and Mrs. Sweet left for Mexico on a bus tour from Calgary where, along with 39 other workers from Alberta they will tour on their summer school course

It was nice seeing Mr and Mrs. Herman Eyben from Clover dale. B.C while they were visiting friends and relatives in and around Vermilion. Also nice to talk with Mrs. Laura Green of Abbotsford, B.C. and formerly of Tofield.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howard and Mr and Mrs. Frank Gibson returned on Wednesday after a week's holiday to the west coast visiting relatives. The latter attended the wedding of their nephew Wayne Pare, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Rosier Pare, formerly of Bonnyville.

Mr and Mrs. W. J. Garnett were delayed from starting on their trip to England by air when Mrs. Garnett decided to spend a few days in hospital for a check up. They plan to leave July 15th.

DEATH OF MRS. BELTON

The district was deeply shocked on Friday when it learned of the passing of Mrs. Dick Hilton (the former Doris Fadden). # Remembering... Vermilion's First Fair

The first fair held in Vermilion was in a tent on the prairie, where now so many residences stand, a bit east of Volkswagen service station. A rather cool, chilly day in mid-October. Have ever enthusiasm was anything but dull.

What a full day for the selection fee of 25c, children under fifteen, 15c Or annual subscription or membership for $1, consisting of two admission tickets to the exhibition.

I remember most of the officers and directors, some of the contributors to the prizes and some of the exhibits.

Harbiners being judges, I remember the first prize baby in the baby contest She now is a fine matron and grandmother. I remember the winner of the Dr Ryan prize for the best essay written in school. There was no grandstand display, no fireworks, no midway — not even an ordinary swing.

Rather a serious and practical matter this first fair, but a great deal of satisfaction and fun too. One of the exciting events was catching the greased pig Then one bare-footed runner, the tag of war married vs. single men, bringing forth vocal encouragement that could be heard for blocks. There was the footrace for girls under twelve I would like to see three leaders sprint it all today Of course the pony and horse races followed by exciting minutes for horses, the riders and "followers". Did the odd bit of change pass hands? Well? Not forgetting a bit of stampede thrown in, to round off the program, of two or three bucking contests and a cowboy barrel race competition And the best lady rider of which there were not a few in those days, other horses or riders for the moment two names come to my mind Mrs. Cass, Henry (nee Nellie Harmston - Powell) and Mrs. H. O. Wood.

This was the age of the horse and buggy and it all brings back happy leisurely memories alike. However, the groundwork for bigger and better fairs was well and truly laid and now in 1965, I hope to have a ride on the merry-go-round, a hot dog and a bingo prize.

151st Battalion C.E.F. Organizes "Old Comrades Assoc'n"

The Queen's own colours shown on the left now hangs proudly in St. Saviour's Anglican Church. Seen in the pulpit is the Rev. Major Howard Jackson, acting Western Command Chaplain, who was guest preacher at the special service.

An organization to be known as the "Old Comrades of the 151st Battalion, C.E.F. Association" was formed on Saturday afternoon last at a meeting held in the club rooms of the Royal Canadian Legion of Vermilion Field Marshal Alexander branch.

The 151st Battalion was recruited early in 1916 with men from the Vermilion, Vegreville Wainwright and Camrose areas with some from Edmonton and proceeded overseas in 1916 under the command of Lt. Col. J. W. Arnott with 925 men of all ranks.

Comrade E. H Buckingham of the Vermilion branch, who had done all the preliminary work in organizing the reunion took the chair shortly after 3 o'clock and was extended to the visitors by past president, Mr. Bill Sweetman of the branch Outlining the objects of the meeting Comrade Alberta the senior officer of the battalion now living in Vermilion contacted 28 of the original members and of these 25 have had advised of their intention to attend the meeting. There was no doubt due to long distances and heavy travel but these intended to come However it was considered it very fortunate that Lt. Col. Hughes-Jones, who resides in

Mr. A. F. Bagshaw, principal of St. Jerome's School and Mr Wm. A. Sakowsky, principal of the Iwewent school are two of fifty-nine school principals meeting at Concordia College in Edmonton. The conference commenced on July 5th and will continue for two weeks.

This course is being conducted as part of the University of Alberta Teacher's Assoc., the Council of School Administrators, the Alberta School Inspectors Assoc., the Alberta Dept. of Education, and the Faculty of Education, University of Alberta.

Marvin Chupka, employed in Edmonton, played baseball with St. Paul at their last tournament July 1st. Mr. and Mrs. F. Chupka motored up to see Marvin do some pitching.

Many from here attended and enjoyed remembering old acquaintances at the Old Timers' Picnic held at Lac La Nonne on Sunday fishing and swimming is taken north of the river.

The Lamerville Cemetery now looks nice and clean, thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Ted Versallion and formerly of Lamerville. He has undertaken the job of keeping the grass mowed.

Mr. and Mrs. Nielsen were the guests of honor at a party given at the hall Friday night. A Sale stand crowd came to wish them farewell and good luck. What is Clandonald's loss will be Grand Centre's gain. The party took the form of a dance to the ever ready music of Hazelwood Willie Chinchuk and Ed Lovell of Lindbergh.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Leslie enjoyed a week's holiday in Edmonton and Jasper. Mrs. latter's mother Mrs. Lee accompanied them home from the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Schneider and three children of Alder Flats visited the Burns and Schneider homes recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schoenmaker and family of Hannah visited the former's parents at Ruzylvia recently.

After spending nearly three months on the Peace River country north, Henry Dyjer is home with his family for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Ike Huxley and children are spending their holidays with Mrs. Huxley's folks near Battleford.

We are pleased to see Steve Metnyk has a new road grader. Matt Kish is also operating one on the road construction, where the municipal outfit is working at the "Convent" corner, just south of town.

The Ruzylvia sports held June 30th was well attended. Though clouds hanging low it was a dry rain fell.

It appears vandalism has been going on when one looks at the windows in the old Columbia hall. Either rocks or air rifles have made holes in these high windows. The big boys of town with air rifles should know better.

Congratulations and best wishes to Phyllis Ford and Alec MacPhee who were married in Vermilion on June 26/65.

Mrs. Vince Stanley of Worsley has been visiting her sister Mrs Frank Bachuk.

The Homemaker

By ELIZABETH A. DUNN

What is the new Permanent Press process that we have been hearing so much about lately? Does it really do what it says—eliminate ironing?

There are two basic types of Permanent Press fabrics. Both types give a durable crease or a shape-set, no-iron manufactured garment. In the first type, the fabric is sewn into garments, the completed garments are cured in a temperature of 300 to 340 degrees F for 4 to 8 minutes. In the second type, the fabric is set in its flat shape. It is re-set in the new garment shape by high temperature and pressures.

The Permanent Press process has some disadvantages. It is not possible to make alterations in permanent press garments. There is no known method by which you can remove a Permanent Press crease from cotton or from a fabric containing cotton. Present day dry cleaning does not develop sufficient heat temperature to remove a Permanent Press crease.

Permanent Press cotton fabrics suffer a loss of strength in curing. They may weaken and tear or rot at the edges. For this reason cotton is often blended with synthetics.

In construction of Permanent Press garments, the garments are over sized to accommodate shrinkage in curing. If further shrinkage should occur home makers may complain of inaccurate fit which cannot be corrected.

Some dark-colored fabrics may appear grayed or lighter in shade after dry cleaning and wet cleaning treatments. This color change due to abrasion may be noticed along crease, pleat and hem lines.

Even with some drawbacks, Permanent Press is very big at present development in the textile industry. It is expected that by next fall eighty per cent of all men's and women's pants will be Permanent Press.

Locally a homemaker may purchase men's and boy's pants. In ladies' wear straight skirts and slacks are available. Watch lay-men's and women's Permanent Press shirts. Infants' and children's clothing and planned garments of all types.

Permanent Press garments will be a tremendous boon to homemakers who will not have to do tedious hours of ironing. It's amazing to see the pants washed, dried and really require no ironing. As the garments show very little wrinkling during washing the wearer looks more attractive in casual clothing.

Vermilion Fair parade will be held Thursday, July 30th.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my father
WILLIAM CLARK
who passed away July 14, 1958.
Loving and giving his whole life through,
Years of striving, with pleasure few;
A cherished smile, a heart of gold,
The dearest father the world could hold;
Happy memories, lone and true.
From the daughter who thought the world of you
Sadly missed and dearly loved by Del, Lou and Lloyd.

IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAM CLARK
who passed away July 14, 1958.
"O happy hours we once enjoyed.
How sweet their memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill."
—Ever remembered by wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband, father and grandfather
IVAR H. LARSEN
who passed away July 12, 1957
"Sad and lonely years have passed
Since our great sorrow fell
The shock that we received that day
No one can ever tell.
It's a lonely life without you, dear,
And sad has been the day,
For life now is not the same
Since you were called away.
It was a sudden ending, too sad
den to forget,
For those who loved you dearly,
Are the ones who do not forget."
—Ever remembered by his loving wife Olive, and family Gladys, Gordon, Cora and Mildred.

ARDA PROJECTS ARE APPROVED FOR ALBERTA

OTTAWA — Approval of the continuation of two soil capability research projects in Alberta, under ARDA, has recently been announced jointly by the federal and provincial governments.

One program is to determine suitability of soil for agricultural purposes, at a cost of $97,000. The other is an inventory of soil capability for forest production, costing $28,000.

Both projects are being carried out in settled areas of Alberta and the federal government is paying the full cost in each case.

Water Safety Tip

Hundreds of Canadians are seriously maimed every year by injuring themselves when diving into shallow waters. Red Cross says to be wise — dive and look before you leap.

Christian Scientists gathered from all parts of the world for their Annual Meeting in Boston on June 7, as the church rendered its plans for an extensive development program on surrounding property. Shown here are the church auditorium, Publishing House, and administration building which comprises the movement's world headquarters, known as The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist. The sight-seen was taken from the top of the 32-story office tower in the adjacent Prudential Center, which was opened to the public for the first time this spring.

Health Unit Notes

JEALOUSY — WHAT CAN BE DONE ABOUT IT?

Real or fancied favoritism can greatly upset the family life as the children grow older. In many cases, parents unconsciously provide grounds for the slighted child's feelings. Mother and father often make unfavorable comparisons. "John was always so careful with his clothes, but just look at you". "Mary never was so mischievous", etc. A father may be quite impatient with a small delicate son and be quite obviously full of approval for his husky daughter because he admires sturdiness.

It is understandable too, for a child to be jealous of admiration or affection shown by his parents for a child outside the family. It shows how dependent and close is the relationship between a child and his parents. For this reason, parents are wise to refrain from giving too much attention to little outsiders in their own children's presence. In fact, basis for jealousy is by no means limited to the family group nor to any age group but may be extended to grandparents and other relatives, teachers and playmates. Each may be idol to the child and thus become somebody special to be "protected" from the rival. One of the most common examples among adolescent children is seen in early grade school. One of almost constant Threat to this feeling of possession can arouse intense jealousy. Adequate preparation and the provision of genuine extra approval or affection during the crisis help to lessen the jealousy and enable the child to control this damaging emotion.

If parents are alert and try to avoid seeming slights, giving all the children plenty of approval and affection, family life will be much more comfortable all around. In any normal household, however, there will be some quarrelling between the children. As long as one can stand up for himself, it's better for the parent to stay out. Such spats are one way to learn how to get along together. If, in order to prevent actual injury, the parent has to interfere, it is more effective to distract attention than to lecture. Remain friendly while firmly suggesting compromise. Young children are not equipped with any special or instinctive love for brothers and sisters but this grows as they enjoy a happy secure life together.

Farm Safety Week July 25 to 31

Farm Safety Week, promoted nationally in the United States, will be observed in most of Canada from July 25 to 31, 1965. The National Safety League of Canada is supporting all organizations participating in this most important campaign.

"Safe and Alive in '65" is the theme for this year's Farm Safety Week. It is also a cue for action. Once again, it is time to wage a personal war on accidents. The League urges all farm residents to correct dangerous work and living conditions, as well as dangerous habits and attitudes before they take their toll of injury and death. Make this week the beginning of a successful campaign to keep the family "Safe and Alive in '65".

Free Enterprise Most Effective

The importance of preserving a climate in which free enterprise can operate effectively has been pointed up by a source far removed from Canada. A statement put out in France by the Federation of French Industries says that for several years France has not given the moving forces of economic life — initiative, responsibility and freedom — their essential place and has not known how to limit the growing demands of the State. The Federation says the really dynamic countries today are those in which individual initiative and enterprise have the largest place, and where the economic system is most favourable to the formation of savings and their investment in production. These statements harmonize well with the policies of the Chamber of Commerce and Boards of Trade in this country as found in the policy statements of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce — the National Federation of all these Boards and Chambers. The Chamber of Commerce movement in Canada has been a prime promoter of the Private Enterprise way of life as being the best for all Canadians.

The Hungry Get Hungrier

It is probably a common belief that "economic aid" to the hungry countries, if it has not yet turned them into affluent societies, has at least made them a little less hungry; then they were, says an editorial in the Financial Post. Unfortunately this appears to be not so. A report from the U.S. Department of Agriculture says that by 1980, or earlier, Asia, Africa and Latin America will be threatened with famine. In Asia available food per person has fallen by 4% since 1961. In Latin America the drop has been 6% since 1958. In Africa, less crowded, food is keeping pace with population but there are signs of future shortage.

BOATING SAFETY TIPS

June 6 to 12 is Red Cross Water Safety Week in Canada. According to Red Cross statistics for 1964, over 25 per cent of all drownings in Canada resulted from boating mishaps. To help curb this needless loss of life, here are a few boating safety tips for power boat owners.

1. Know and operate your craft well.
2. Know and obey the rules of the road.
3. Equip your boat with government approved safety equipment; life jacket for each person, two oars and oarlocks or two paddles, bailer or manual water pump, red distress flares, tool kit, flare gun and kit, fire extinguisher, anchor on 50 feet of line.
4. Carry and use the correct lights at night.
5. Keep passengers in your boat down to a safe number.
6. Use the correct motor for the size of your boat.
7. Never smoke while refueling.
8. Check and heed weather reports before going out into open waters.
9. Practice courtesy afloat.
10. If upset, call for help and hang on to the boat until help arrives unless the boat is drifting into danger or the water is extremely cold.

There's more information on boating in the booklet "Safety Afloat". It may be obtained, free of charge, by writing to the Marine Regulations Branch, Department of Transport, Ottawa. A complete safe boating course is available through the National Safety League, Ottawa.

Think . . . don't sink this summer ! Be water wise !

GREEN ACRES

NITROGEN SHORTAGE

Yellow patches, browning leaves, stunted growth, are indications of nitrogen shortage.

Bill Lobay, Field Crops Super visor, Alberta Department of Agriculture, says a nitrogen deficiency will reduce yields and surely as a moisture deficiency. If there is a shortage of nitrogen the older leaves die and the plant uses the nitrogen from these to produce new growth. The plant may live, but with the reduced foliage the yield of grain or forage is reduced. Soil tests taken throughout Northeastern Alberta in the fall of 1964 and spring of 1965 indicated that this could be a nitrogen deficient year.

Nitrogen is an elusive plant nutrient. Heavy rains can carry it away. Warm moist weather promotes microbe activity and increase the available supply. Cool, moist weather favors the growth of legumes which would suggest that certain soils are short of nitrogen this summer.

HEMP NETTLE

Not many years ago Hemp Nettle was known only on the weed list. Now they were only a dozen farms in the county that had patches of it. The situation is changing. I was on four farms last week and the weed complaint was Hemp Nettle.

Hemp Nettle is a member of the Nettle family. It is a tall, coarse annual with a deep taproot. Leaves are opposite, deeply cut and coarsely toothed. Flowers are small, greenish and borne in clusters in the axils of the upper leaves. Seeds are produced in large numbers and germinate in the spring.

Hemp Nettle is not a serious problem in cultivated fields. Cultivation and seeding operations destroy the young plants. Hemp Nettle is a problem in fallow fields, pastures and waste areas. Here it is not disturbed and can grow to maturity.

Hemp Nettle is not easily controlled by chemicals. Fallowing is the most effective method of control. Cultivate the young plants before they develop a deep taproot. Cultivation should be repeated as often as necessary to prevent the plants from growing.

Hemp Nettle control is practical. It is normally confined to special patches, but spray is early

4-H AT THE FAIR

Beef Show — The Vermilion Agricultural Society features 4-H in 1965. The beef show gets underway at 9 a.m. Thursday, July 29. There will be over 150 cattle on display and offered for sale. This fat stock is the year's work of 4-H members from Vermilion, Marwayne, Preston, Kitscoty and Chauvin. 130 are male, represent a lot of beef. It is certainly hoped that businessmen, farmers and householders in town will use 4H to buy. Arrangements are now completed so that anyone may buy and have the beef processed at a minimum of cost and trouble. Several Vermilion stores are taking orders for homegrown 4-H beef and will be only too pleased to supply a homeowner with a quarter. Ask your butcher today!

4-H JAMBOREE

During the afternoon of Thursday, July 29 there are 4-H competitions in Demonstrations, Displays, Judging, etc., open to 4-H members anywhere. Information about the 4-H Jamboree may be had by calling the DA office in Vermilion.

4-H DAIRY

Saturday afternoon, Aug. 1st is the 4-H Dairy Show. Plans are progressing. Account a big show.

CREAM GRADES

A four cent premium is now paid for special grade cream over first grade cream. Mr. Roy Brown, Alberta Department of Agriculture Dairy Inspector, says that cream shippers can now earn 4 cents a pound more by shipping only special grade cream. Rejected cream will be colored with a vegetable dye and returned to the producer. These regulations become into effect July 5th and are intended to bonus the producers of high quality cream.

Many Centennial Tree-Planting Programs Planned By Alberta School Children

By H. MORLEY DOUGLAS
District Agriculturist

Alberta school children in Grades, 6, 8 and 10 will spearhead a Centennial tree-planting program in 1965 and 1967 which will result in thousands of trees being planted in every area of the province. This program will help to beautify Alberta and at the same time establish live centennial projects or monuments which will extend well into the future.

The trees, which will be provided by the Department of Agriculture, will include Northwest and other poplar species, Manchurian or American Elm, Green Ash, Manitoba Maple, White or Colorado Spruce, Laurel and other willow, caragana or other species for habitat areas. In addition, the Centennial Rosy Bloom crabapple tree will be available for each school, to commemorate the occasion in a planting ceremony.

The Departments of Agriculture, Education and Lands and Forests are jointly promoting and assuming responsibility for this project with district agricultural representatives, school superintendents and forestry personnel assisting in developing the project, providing technical information on land preparation, planting and care of the trees.

School boards or school committees in both rural and urban school divisions will be responsible for initiating the project. However, local organizations interested in planting trees under this program may do so provided this is acceptable to, and sponsored by the school division. Applications must be submitted by school boards or school committees to the office of the District Agriculturist, and the completed forms must be signed by all organizations participating in the project and by the principal of each.

Trees may be planted on public lands including picnic parks and campsites, school grounds, provincial, city, town or other public parks, bird habitat areas or other multiple use areas, for purposes of recreation, conservation and beautification.

Since trees will only grow if properly planted and cared for, applications will be approved provided the planting site is well prepared and if there is assurance that the trees will be given the necessary care and attention in future years.

Participating organizations will be required to prepare the land for planting and provide for continued cultivation of the planted area until the trees are fully established. This means that a tractor or other necessary equipment must be available for the purpose.

All correspondence relating to the Centennial Tree Planting Program should be directed to the Supervisor of Horticulture, P. G. McCalla, Department of Agriculture, Legislative Bldg., Edmonton.

Dear Editor

Perhaps I am wrong in commenting on your editorial in your issue from few I enjoyed visiting your park and viewing the lawn by farming area around here

I feel I must comment on one appalling sight I saw as I am a native person among young people's groups in our town. On Saturday night I visited where I had a view of the door and there I saw young children playing outside till 12 at night. One young girl was 12 years old. Is there no curfew in your town? Or where was your welfare officer? Surely our youth at today are aimed more easy by their mothers and fathers then to be left till all hours at night by do pub. Is this a fit place for a twelve year-old to be out until the people leaving this place? I understand her mother worked and she seldom saw her. Could this mother not spend a few hours with the girl helping her with her lessons to encouraging instead of leaving her to do as she saw fit? Mothers, take time to know your children, they are a joy and pleasure. Don't leave it to welfare to straighten the wrongs you have created. To you publishers may I say, try a piece with your family, it may prove very rewarding. Children cannot be left alone all day and not get into mischief. It is not fair for them to leave them to go wrong for they do not and proper by others. I feel I must commend for it left me sick to think such a fair town could allow its young citizens no supervision after certain hours.

Yours for more child supervision.

Mrs. Emily Mathers.

4-H At The Vermilion Fair

The 1965 edition of Vermilion Fair will feature the largest 4-H beef show and sale in history Morley Douglas, District Agriculturist at Vermilion, says the 130 animals will require a lot of buyers. He strongly urges people to consider buying an animal for the deep freeze.

Several stores in Vermilion are currently taking orders for quarters of 4-H beef. If orders are placed with these merchants they will be able to give the 4-H sale many support Morley added that for individuals who like to buy their own, arrangements have been completed to slaughter, hang, cut and quick freeze the beef at minimum cost.

He suggests also that people should be at the fair by 9 a.m. Thursday to see the inter-club show. The sale is slated for 1 p.m.

Tourist Association Organized In This Area

An encouraging aspect of development of the tourist industry at the community level in Alberta is the interest which professional people are taking in the movement.

This was particularly evident in Northern Alberta where organization of Zone 6 of the Alberta Tourist Association has just been completed. This area is under guidance of the Lakeland Tourist Association which covers the communities along No. 16 Highway to Vermilion and Lloydminster and northward to the boundary of the N.W.T.

President of the Lakeland Tourist Association is Dr. B. Brouwers of Bonnyville. First Vice President is Mr. Paul Drebet and the Second Vice President is Dr. Wm. Cadrow of Lac La Biche.

A similar understanding of value of the industry to the community as a whole was seen when the Alberta Tourist Association participated in holding of a "Project Hospitality" at Medicine Hat. Invitations were sent by Alberta Tourist Association to business and professional men to attend a luncheon in connection with the seminar and 100 business men responded to learn more of the importance of the tourist industry to their business.

This aspect of development by Alberta Tourist Association is important because previously most communities felt the tour bit was of benefit to only those whose business was to actually serve himself.

Increase In Cream Prices

Alberta's Dairy Commissioner D. H. McCallum has announced that recent amendments to the Dairy Products Act have changed some of the cream grade standards and the price differentials between grades.

The minimum price differential between special and first grade cream has been increased from 2 to 3¢. Grade cream will no longer be purchased by butter factories. Exceptions to this will be permitted as selected cream, collected and delivered by the producer at his own expense.

According to Mr. McCallum these changes affect every producer of all Alberta cream grades, as only the best quality cream brings premium prices and best quality cream when milk is produced under quality conditions.

Saskatchewan and Manitoba have already adopted these premiums with the result that their cream quality has shown a definite improvement.

Saltaux W. I. News

MANNVILLE: The Saltaux W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Ted Bilsk on June 9th with nine members and four visitors present. The meeting was opened by the repeating of the club motto and a prayer followed by a thought for the day.

The highlight of the meeting was a most interesting and informative tour of the school for retarded children in Edmonton after the business meeting. The members of the school at first seemed to be bashful but soon warmed to the visitors. Mrs. L. S. Smith

MANNVILLE: Several members of the U.C.W. here met in the Christian Education room of the church for the last meeting of the season.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Hamilton of Wainwright, President of the U.C.W. for St. Paul's Presbytery.

The devotional part of was conducted by Mrs. F.C. Peterson who chose as her theme "Prayer."

Mrs. Peterson spoke of George Washington Carver who believed Christianity to be like a three pronged fork one prong is love which holds the stars in their course, the second is humility describing the humble selflessness of the spirit. The third being expectation born of faith to find souls good if everything. Persons who possess this three pronged fork unlock secrets of the universe. They find the

"Age Of The Buffalo" Wins Western Award

"Age Of The Buffalo", a National Film Board production, has won the Wrangler Trophy as the outstanding western documentary film of 1964. The film tells of the almost complete extinction of the buffalo and of the decimation of the American Indian who relied on the animal for his very existence. The Wrangler Trophy, to be presented June 25 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, is sponsored by the National Cowboy Hall of Fame and the Western Heritage Center. In its fifth season, the Western Heritage Award represents "the year's best efforts in preserving the proper image of the American West and the people who were responsible for developing it."

North-Eastern Alberta's Family Holiday — The Vermilion Fair

The biggest event of the year for this area, the three day Vermilion B Class Fair, gets away to a start July 29th and should be attended by everyone within a radius of at least 50 miles. The event is taken months of planning and is well worthy of the attendance of everyone within a wide territory. It rates the support of all because it is decidedly educational in an entertaining way. The best of livestock can be seen and studied; the displays in the main buildings always present something new and are of excellent standards; the commercial displays bring to the attention of all the latest in machinery, in trucks, cars, and enlightens the prospective purchaser as to features he should expect and look for; the school work and the 4-H Club exhibits are intriguing and very much worth inspecting.

In addition the grandstand attractions are of a very high calibre of entertainment; their presentations reach amazing standards of perfection and excellence. The acts and performers are brought in from many parts of this and several other continents for the benefit of entertainment of the people attending the Vermilion Fair.

Make the Vermilion Fair a real summer outing for the whole family. The gate prices are lower than anywhere else in the province. The Vermilion Agricultural Society who plan and sponsor the three day fair, is well worthy of the ardent support of everyone.

The planning has been completed, the attractions are engaged, everything for your entertainment has been arranged — all that is needed for an outstanding successful event is the attendance of YOU and YOUR family at the Fair.

Slow in Deciding Centennial Projects

To July 13th only 14 Alberta projects had received approval under the Federal-Provincial Centennial grants program. The chairman of the Alberta Committee, the Hon. Ambrose Holowach, is concerned about the small number of Alberta communities who have made definite decisions and have thus qualified for approval under the program.

Alberta communities are bound to experience more difficulty arriving at suitable projects than any other province. This is due to the recent recreational program carried out by this province, under which communities received grants of $10.00 per capita to carry our similar projects in connection with all desirable types of recreation. Under the recreational program, the first of its kind known in Canada, many facilities were built in Alberta towns so that centennial projects are a little more difficult to decide upon.

In making application for a Centennial Grant the municipalities must outline in detail their proposed project, and estimated cost. If the total cost of the project is to be in excess of the suggested grant, they must also reveal the manner in which they expect to raise the balance of funds required.

The deadline for submission of applications is December 31, 1965, and Centennial projects must have a reasonable chance of completion by 1967 to be approved. Enquiries regarding provincial grants should be addressed to R. D. McLean, Director of Centennial Programs, Legislative Building, Edmonton.

Vital Role of Business in Community

A new approach and a new emphasis will feature the 38th annual meeting of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, to be held in Toronto, September 27, 28 and 29. Under the conference theme — "Business and the Community," delegates will examine the vital role of business in the local community, the national community and the international community. Those in attendance will get a clear understanding of today's new set of economic and social problems and issues from top leaders in business, government, labour and academic circles. They will also get an understanding of today's legislative proposals that have a direct impact on the lives of individual Canadians. Representatives from Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce in over 600 communities across Canada will be in attendance.

BACK IN 1906 — DAYS OF THE FIRST VERMILION FAIR

This scene probably took place in 1905 when the first influx of settlers reached Vermilion. The card was sent from Vermilion in 1907 over to Mr. Frank Laws in England. Mr. Laws later settled in the Clandonald area.

This picture is from a postcard which was mailed from Vermilion in 1907, showing that in the days of the first agricultural fairs the town already boasted some fine buildings. Both these two edifices still stand today although changed mightily in appearance. The Alberta hotel is now the Vermilion Block. Across from it is the Brimacombe Block, built by Brimacombe Bros. This is the present Alberta Government public building. At the time of the picture the Brimacombe building housed the Kibblewhite drug store, the post office and land office. Upstairs was the only public hall in town at that time. The postcards are keepsakes of Eddie Stockwell.

BUILD A SILO

A silo isn't necessarily expensive. The most satisfactory type of silo is a trench dug through a hill. The cost could run as high as $250. Cost varies considerably, depending upon the amount of earth to be moved.

An important consideration is the location. Dig the silo on a well drained site convenient to the feed yards. Convenience to the feeding area is so important, that farmers have abandoned poorly bonded trench silos and replaced them with expensive bunkers. The size required may be calculated by assuming that each animal will eat about one cubic foot of silage per day. A cubic foot of silage is the equivalent of 15 pounds of dry hay.

Under local conditions silage is more palatable if at least one foot of the face is used each day. A herd of forty cows would require about one foot of silage from the face of a pile of silage eight feet wide and five feet deep.

YOUR GUARANTEE

Fertilizer manufacturers are checked closely by Plant Products Division, Edmonton. July 2nd the International Fertilizers Ltd. of Quebec City were fined for selling fertilizer that did not meet the label guarantee. This is the method by which the Canada Department of Agriculture maintains a guaranteed level of nutrients in commercial feed or fertilizers.

WATER AND SEWER

Low priced water and sewerage contracts are being offered this summer by smooth talking salesmen. The salesman puts the contract signed and the crew hit town up and down the work. I would urge people to read the small print on the contract before signing. Be certain he water lines are deep enough and the materials used are of good quality. If anything goes wrong with the job remember, you will be dealing with a company many miles away. Check the service. It is possible that you may need a local man to do the maintenance. There are no sewage and water contractors working in the province who are officially recommended by the Extension Service or the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

New Weed Picked Up; First Found In County

A three foot specimen of Scentless Mayweed was found on old Highway 16 between Vermilion and Kitscoty.

Ralph Wilson, Field Supervisor of the County of Ver million River, picked up the specimen Saturday, July 17.

Ralph says it is the first time he has found the weed in the County.

He points out that Scentless Mayweed is a very serious weed. It is difficult to control by culti vation and quite resistant to com mon chemicals. Scentless May weed possesses dormancy which makes it very difficult to eradi cate once established.

Bill Lobay, Supervisor of Weed Control, Alberta Department of Agriculture, reports large areas of the Peace River region are in fested with Scentless Mayweed and it is spreading.

Lobay says Scentless Mayweed was introduced from Europe as a garden flower. It resembles Shasta daisy but the flower is much smaller. In sod acentless Mayweed will grow about a foot high, but in a garden it may grow three feet high.

Bill Lobay says that Scentless Mayweed is an annual or winter annual with its branched hairy stems. It is a real seed pro ducer and becomes a definite problem in areas where estab lished.

Prov. Highway Construction Lags Badly

Hon. Gordon Taylor Minister of Highways, has announced that the highway construction program was lagging badly because of rain and the inclement weather.

"More than 700 shifts have already been lost because of rain," Mr. Taylor said. At the same time last year only 200 shifts had been lost.

"Work on the Freeway from Leduc to north of Highway 33 has been seriously delayed. A record June rainfall has kept this area practically unworkable for base course application," the Minister said. He gave the following statistics.

70.68 miles of grading has been completed this year. This is 23 per cent of the grading program.

53.27 miles of base course has been laid which is 19% of the program.

17.96 miles of plant mix has been laid which is 22% of the program.

2.17 miles of seal coat has been laid which is 22% of the program.

"The situation looks very grim right now but the program can still be completed providing we get a reasonable amount of sunshine and good weather during the balance of the season," the Minister said.

Tribute Paid E. C. Miller, Former Vermilion School Superintendent

Free Forage Is The Result Of Seeded Roadsides

There's a bonus forage crop waiting for Alberta farmers this year, a result of roadside cultivation by the Alberta Department of Highways, working in co-operation with the Department of Agriculture.

Many roadsides have been seeded to cultivated forages, and the farmer who harvests them will not only receive an abundance of free hay or silage, but will help to improve the appearance of Alberta's highways.

Although farmers living adjacent to the highways have first claim on this feed, the opportunity to harvest it is open to anybody who obtains a permit from the resident engineer

LETHBRIDGE — About 250 teachers, principals and superintendents of local and district schools paid tribute Thursday to E. C. Miller, retired superintendent of Lethbridge county schools at a testimonial dinner sponsored by the county of Lethbridge school committee and the county teachers association.

One of the highest honors bestowed upon Mr. Miller was the naming of the annual scholarship, awarded to pupils taught by members of the Alberta Teachers' Association Local No. 21 entering the Lethbridge Junior College, as "The E. C. Miller Award."

Tributes and gifts were presented to Mr. Miller from the teachers, the county and the ATA local.

Mrs. Dorothy Goode made a presentation to him from the children of the retarded children or this local. She and Mr. Miller had been one of the stand-bys throughout the organization of the Lethbridge and District Association for Retarded Children and had made visits to the school as well as attended the many troubled meetings.

One of the most touching gifts to Mr. Miller was a scroll presented by C. H. Allen, past president of ATA local No. 21. Inscribed with all the awards he played upon him by the teachers, such as "the guardian of interest in students, advocate of better education, most diligent, most resourceful, ..." and many more and signed by each of the teachers present at the affair.

It was also inscribed with their affection, esteem, appreciation, admiration and gratitude

HIGHEST TRIBUTE

Most of the speakers, including Leonard Haney, chairman of the school committee, said the highest tribute the Millers received was the great number of people attending the dinner.

Mr. Miller reminisced with those present about his teaching days in the 1920's.

He thanked the teachers of the county for their co-operation during his 15 years in Lethbridge as superintendent.

Mrs. R. M. Glover presented Mrs. Miller with a tribute of flowers for all her efforts in the community with her husband.

About one-third of the evening was spent in song. The teachers interspersed the speeches with a rousing song and three Lethbridge Butte High School girls sang four songs.

"Ted" Miller served as superintendent of schools in the Vermilion Division from 1941 to 1952. He moved from Vermilion to Lethbridge.

4-H Delegation To Manitoba

A specially chosen group of 20 senior 4-H members have been awarded an all-expense paid trip from Alberta to Manitoba.

C. L. Usher provincial supervisor of 4-H Clubs, says the purpose of the trip, made possible by money from the Centennial Commission, is to further recognize outstanding 4-H achievement and to give senior members a broader understanding of Canada as a nation.

During their stay in Manitoba, Alberta 4-H members see at first hand Manitoba's 4-H program in action as well as farming and general living aspects of that province. They will be staying in the home of Manitoba 4-H members.

Mr. Usher says the trip is scheduled for July 31st to 3rd and that the delegates will travel by train with a chaperone from British Columbia.

13 Centennial Projects Approved

It has been announced by the Honourable Ambrose Holowach, Provincial Secretary for the Province of Alberta and Chairman of the Alberta Centennial Committee, and by the Honorable Maurice Lamontagne, Secretary of State for Canada responsible for Centennial affairs, that the following projects have received both provincial and federal approval of their applications for Centennial grants

The Town of Black Diamond, for building and beautifying a Town Park;

The Village of Acme, which will build a swimming pool;

The Town of Barrhead and the County of Barrhead, for installation of an artificial ice plant and equipment;

The Village of Cochrane, which will erect a Centennial Park and playground;

The city of Wetaskiwin, for the installation of Schubserich Carrion Chimes in their Civic Building, and

The Village of Amisk, for the erection of a recreation building

This brings to 13 the number of Alberta projects to receive approval under the Federal-provincial grants program.

In making applications for a Centennial Grant, the municipalities must outline in detail their proposed project, and estimated cost. If the total cost of the project is to be in excess of the expected grant, they must also reveal the manner in which they expect to raise the balance of funds required

The deadline for submission is December 31st, completion by 15 per cent to be approved. Enquiries regarding provincial grants should be addressed to H. H. McLean, Director of Centennial Programs, Legislative Building, Edmonton.

ELKS PLAN $12,000.00 SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Delegates from the Elks Lodge here will continue aiding the scope of their national Elks Purple Cross Fund. Local representatives of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of Canada will consider establishing a $12,000 scholarship fund at their 32nd annual convention in Lethbridge this month.

The proposed fund will provide twelve yearly scholarships of $1,000 each. The scholarships will be granted to deserving students in each province of the Union, and NWT. The award will be made to a young student in each province on the basis of 1 scholastic standing, 2 financial need.

July Bride-elect Is Honored at Islay

On Wednesday evening July 14th Miss Gladys Nimy was honored at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Walter Lyons, assisted by Mrs. H. McCaughan and Mrs. I. Van Loan. Hostesses were Mrs. L. Chaffer and Miss Grace Schaffer.

Gladys who had been told a white wedding cake theme for her came done to help and walked into a room to some fifty friends waiting to wish her God's richest blessings in her new venture in life.

Two contests "Her Trousseau" and "Wayne's Proposal" were very enjoyable and Mrs. Slemmons and Mrs. Tymchyk won the first while Mrs. Torrance won the second. Miss B. Anderson read a humorous bit of information for the bride.

Mrs. McCaughan and Grace then brought forth a well filled box of gifts for the bride. Mrs. McCaughan on behalf of all present made the presentation wishing Gladys every success and much happiness. Mrs. McCaughan was Gladys's first teacher when she started school in Islay.

Mrs. Roland Buchannan assisted her sister in opening the gifts and Grace recorded them all before they made the rounds to be admired by everyone. The gifts were a varied assortment of very useful items.

Gladys very sincerely thanked everyone for their thoughtful acts and was most appreciative of having been given such a nice party. She said she hoped anyone who should be in the Brosseau, Islay area where she will be making her home would call to visit.

A lovely lunch was served by the hostesses bringing a most pleasant evening to a close.

Miss Nimy, a former Kitscoty lassy girl has been employed at Warburg and came back to Islay to be married. She and Wayne whose home is in Ottawa Ontario have returned to the north where they will make their home. Best wishes go along with Mr. and Mrs. Hoard for many years of happy married life.

From 1958 to 1964 public spending in Canada on elementary and secondary education rose from $956 million to $2,049 million.

Provincial Projects Approved For Grants

It has been announced by the Honourable Ambrose Holowatzky, Provincial Secretary for the Province of Alberta and Chairman of the Alberta Centennial Committee and by the Honourable Maurice Lamontagne Secretary of State and minister responsible for Centennial Affairs, that the following projects have received both provincial and federal approval of their applications for Centennial grants.

The Town of Bon Accord for building and seeding a Town Park.

The Village of Acme, which will build a swimming pool.

The Town of Barrhead and the County of Barrhead, for installation of an artificial ice plant and equipment.

The Village of Cochrane, which will erect a Centennial Park and playground.

The City of Wetaskiwin for the installation of Schulmerich Chimes in their Civic Building and

The Village of Amisk, for the erection of a recreation building.

This brings to 13 the number of Alberta projects in receive approval under the Federal-Provincial Grants program.

In making application for a Centennial Grant, the municipalities must outline in detail their proposed projects, and estimated cost. If the total cost of the project is to be in excess of the requested grant, they must also reveal the manner in which they expect to raise the balance of funds required.

The deadline for submission of applications is December 31, 1965 and Centennial projects must have a reasonable chance of completion by 1967 to be approved. Enquiries regarding provincial centennial grants, should be addressed to R. D. McLean, Director of Centennial Programs, Legislative Building, Edmonton.

ASTUTE TIMING!

Canadian Editorial — Camrose Canadian

The timing and advance publicity given Ottawa's latest proposal, a medicare scheme, indicates that Lester Pearson is gaining an excellent sense of political timing and strategy. If, indeed he did not have it when he went into office.

It seems remarkably well calculated to draw the best and pressure away from the incredibly damaging implications of the Dorion report, with all its side ramifications, so that none of the citizens can watch what's going on all the time, any more than one can watch all three rings in a three-ring circus.

The stand of Mr. Manning that help should be provided only for those who need it is wisely taken, since there is no need and no wisdom in Ottawa undertaking to handle a great deal of administrative detail and red tape for people who do not need nor want to rely on the state. Mr. Manning also objects to elimination of private enterprise in the field, and points out there are other areas of expansion which should be given priority in attention and legislation.

Unhappily, Mr. Manning seems an anachronism in this day and age, preaching the doctrine of self-reliance, and as little interference in the life of the individual by the government as possible. The bandwagon he's riding doesn't seem to attract very many passengers, but anyone who thinks he's on the wrong bandwagon should read Gibbons' story about Rome.

Making Life Less Dangerous

Most people, when accidents befall, make noises that there ought to be a law. Edgar J. Towns, of Fairfield, N.J. is obviously made of sterner stuff, relates the Financial Post. When his three-year-old son almost killed himself by swallowing pills from a bottle in his mother's purse, Towns set to work to perfect a childproof safety cap for bottles. Last month he shared a handsome first prize for such a safety device offered by the Ontario Pharmacists' Association. This was a two-way play, comments the Financial Post. Towns worked on his idea hoping to prevent such accidents from ever happening again in his own or other families. The pharmacists realistically recognized drug containers as a common source of mishaps. Both parties did something practical about it. This is the kind of success story which more of us should emulate.

Amateur Driver Highway Peril

What is an amateur driver? asked the Canadian Highway Safety Council, then gave the answer.

"A driver shows he is an amateur in many ways. Some of them are: screeching tires on curves or starts; failing to signal; turning; lane-hopping, particularly without signaling; driving at speeds considerably more than the posted limit; starting to leave a parking space without looking back; driving so slowly that other traffic is delayed; driving with one hand on the wheel; tail-gating; breaking a traffic regulation merely to achieve a feeling of dominance."

The amateur who drives professionally respects traffic laws, particularly those regarding speed, the Council said. Not only is a professional driver considerate of other drivers, but he makes certain he is protecting himself. Far exceeding he turns on his car's lights as soon as natural light begins to dim, for he wants others to be sure to see him as he moves through traffic. He takes full advantage of all safety features of his vehicle such as: seat belts, turn signals, rearview mirrors, hood and tail lights because he realizes they prevent him. DDC added.

GREEN ACRES

By H. HENLEY DOUGLAS
District Agriculturist

THEY SAY!

One cut of bromes and alfalfa hay taken June 30th on Clarence Brown's Tulilby Lake fertilizer plots yielded over four tons of hay per acre. Brown's fertilizer plots were put out by the Vermilion River A.R.D. and D.A. office. The over four tons yield came from different plots of bromes and alfalfa receiving 150 lbs. of 27-14-0. On the 27-14-0 and 150 lbs. of Nitro pills per acre. The plot looks as if it will yield another and cut about Aug. 15. Responsible that is popular farm opinion, but these trials are carefully measured, cut, dried and weighed on a fine scale.

The first hay cut yield was increased more than 1½ tons by the fertilizer. 130 lbs. of 34-0 (Nitro) represents an added investment of about $9 per acre. Even if this 1½ tons fertilizer yielded almost a ton per acre and sold for only $15 per ton, more than a ton per acre would pay for the fertilized plot yields 2 tons per acre. Under this condition, the fertilizer would have produced at least $7.50 of additional hay. Has is cheap when a cost less than $2.00 per ton. This was an exceptional hay season. The County of Vermilion River forage fertilizer trials started in 1961 have paid handsome dividends every year except 1964. The odds are in the farmer's favor when fertilizing good to fair stands of bromes and alfalfa.

HAPPENED OUTLOOK

The rapeseed acreage of western Canada is double 1964. The Dominion Bureau of Statistics puts the 1965 acreage at 1.1 million acres. The Bureau also reports European crop prospects are good and that evident world supplies of rapeseed will be considerably higher in 1965. This appears to be a serious but there is no need to panic. The world demand for vegetable oils increases nearly each year. One kind of vegetable oil can be substituted for another. There is a shortage of vegetable oils in India and an embargo has been placed on any export. Because a export of vegetable oil is a much larger factor in world markets than Canada's entire production. The fact that Canada has been a good supplier of rapeseed on hand for 1965 will in itself stimulate markets. A store on main street doesn't have many customers if they haven't stock to sell. There should be a lot of buyers shopping in Canada this fall.

SUMMERFALLOW

It costs more to summerfallow high-priced land. Over the past few years I have found farmers in the Counties of Vermilion River and Minburn spending $5 to $6 per acre operating costs to summerfallow. The tax rate on fair to good land is about $1 per acre. Everyone expects to receive or pay interest on money. If no interest is paid, the investment is transferred to a place where it will earn money. It is no trick to get 6% interest from a mortgage on land. It is safe to assume 6% interest, $1 taxes and $5 per acre are annual summerfallow costs. If the land value is $20 an acre, the summerfallow operation costs $7.20 per acre. If the land value is $100 an acre, the summerfallow operation costs $11 per acre.

Why do farmers continue to summerfallow land of their land even when it cost them $100 an acre? Either they are so well off that it really doesn't matter or they haven't considered other possibilities. Adjustment to interest charges is a slow but sure procedure.

SOIL TESTING

It only costs $5 to have a sample of soil tested at the laboratory in Edmonton. It costs perhaps $25 an acre to plant and break land. A soil test before breaking and developing would be a worthwhile investment. I saw seventy acres of land the other day broken in 1964 which will be at best a problem soil or marginally useless in a real test taken in 1963 or 1964 would have indicated that it was of low content and saved the farmer money.

FROZEN PREMIUMS

For garden fresh vegetables year round, your garden and freezer are there to serve you.

The stage and maturity of your vegetables are all important when it their prime for the table. Fresh, young and tender vegetables provide best results.

Speed in handling vegetables after they are picked is important. It is best to gather vegetables in the early morning before they have absorbed too much heat. Pick only what you can prepare and freeze in one day. If there is a delay before freezing, store packages in the refrigerator or keep as cold as possible.

BLANCH ALL VEGETABLES

Ever so often we hear this statement "You don't have to blanch vegetables for freezing." Just pop them into container and toss them into the fre...er." This is a wrong assumption. Blanching is a form of partial cooking at high heat. It is an enzymic action which if allowed to continue will supply change in color, flavor and texture of the product. Blanching may also destroy bacteria and safely wash away any spray left on the vegetables.

Blanching time varies with the type of vegetable, size of the pieces and degree of maturity. Be exact in your timing and remember timing commences after the water has returned to a full rolling boil. Chill quickly by immersing in large quantities of cold water. Drain very well. Remove vegetables from water promptly, and drain and package immediately.

For blanching times and other freezing procedures, ask your district Home Economist for the bulletin "Preserve by Freezing".

Land piping has been manufactured for more than 1000 years and land plastering has been followed since before the 6th century. No toys or furniture should be finished with lead based paint since youngsters may eat or lick the articles and be poisoned by the lead.

At the end of 1964 Canadians had more than twelve billion dollars savings deposited in chartered banks and these savings bring interest to their owners.

See that flies are flying that day in honor of the famous discovery of the century.

An Old Time Afternoon

On Sunday, July 25th, Mr. and Mrs. George Harrison of Battleview district entertained a happy gathering of old friends and neighbors. It truly was a very enjoyable and fully [illegible] those attending were Mrs. A. Neale and her sister, Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. M. Strasahan, Mr. and Mrs. Elza Arthur, Mr. J. C. Peet, Donald Harrison all from Wainwright; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wallington of Vermilion and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Fraser of Battleview.

Muriel and George make this an annual get-together. Missed from the gathering this year were Mrs. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hoke who were unable to attend owing to other plans. Pictures were taken on the beautiful lawn during the afternoon and a very large amount of visiting was done!

It was a lovely warm afternoon and at 5:30 everyone sat down to a bountiful supper with Mrs. Neale adding the blessing. The host and hostess, George and Muriel spare no work or effort to make this an afternoon long to be remembered by the old friends gathered together.

Following the supper a Ford entertained by playing the piano and singing with Mrs. Arthur helping. So sang the favorite hymns and songs which were greatly enjoyed by all.

Words practically fail to express how those present enjoy these get-togethers and how [illegible] thanks are extended from everyone present to Muriel and George Harrison for all their work and kindness.

It is hoped that the song sung especially for Don made him feel better. It is also hoped that Byron receives his old age pension allowance on time as he has much planned. It is hoped too that all will be together again in the near future.

All present wish to once again thank Muriel and George so once again thank you from everyone. (Contributed)

Be Wise! Follow These Six Safety Suggestions

1. Keep all equipment in good repair — know and use the safety rules in operating any machinery on the farm and highways.

2. Treat animals with caution - always speak to an animal as it is being approached. A frightened animal can be deadly.

3. Eliminate all fire hazards around your home and be aware of fire dangers at all times. Do not smoke in barns!

4. Many accidents can be eliminated by keeping your farm clean and neat. Keep buildings in sound condition too.

5. Be careful around all water holes, wells and lakes. Learn how to swim and never go out in or on water by yourself.

6. Tractors can be deadly — both for young and old. Treat your tractor with respect, and be careful at all times.

MAKE SURE YOUR FAMILY KNOWS THESE SAFETY SUGGESTIONS, TOO!

Tractors Can Be Dangerous

Tractors are involved in more farm accidents than any other farm equipment according to the National Safety League of Canada. Tractors upset on level ground much more frequently than years farmers imagine and can do just as much damage as upsets on slopes. Speed too fast for conditions is the chief factor in most cases. In fact, tractors have been known to tip on level ground at only 8 miles per hour, half the top speed of most tractors in use today. Hitch hitching and hidden obstacles also rank high on the list of causes. Always hitch the load to the drawbar and never to the axle or brackets. Slow down when operating on hill work or grass. A hidden muskrat stump can throw both the operator and the tractor right out of commission. Keep these dangers in mind when you proceed to send a boy out to do a man's job

Farm Accidents National Concern

If the present accident experience continues, each hour of the next twelve months will see approximately 14 of Canada's farm population involved in an accident; three to four will receive injuries and each day will account for six to seven fatalities. Of these accidents 80% will result from carelessness or neglect — they should never have happened.

The National Safety League of Canada and the Canadian Highway Safety Council join with all organizations contributing to the promotion of Farm Safety Week July 25 to 31.

Farm safety is a family affair with each member doing his or her part to finish the day [illegible] accident causes.

Dangerous habits and attitudes already formed should be corrected now. Now, as well as safe acts will surely lead to an accident-country bodily injury or death. Practice safety every day of the year by setting a good example. Stay safe and alive to '65".

Tips For Safe Harvest Hauling

The National Safety League of Canada and the Canadian Highway Safety Council offer these tips for safe harvest hauling:

First, before pulling [illegible] a public road, check traffic from both directions and make sure it is safe to do so.

Second, avoid holding up a line of traffic by pulling off to the side.

Third, use the same slow-moving vehicle emblem on the rear of all equipment travelling less than 25 miles per hour. This orange triangular warning device identifies slow-moving vehicles, thereby giving extra protection against a rear-end collision. [illegible] can be obtained from local 4-H clubs

Travel by Car, Scow and Plane on Holiday in North

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Fry and children, Mrs. Laura Leahy and Louis Geigle returned home last Thursday from a two weeks' vacation spent in the Northwest Territories at Fort Simpson. They motored with two cars to Peace River, Manning, High Level, Enterprise, N.W.T. and Fort Providence, N.W.T. Here they met Lee Leahy who had come up the Mackenzie River in a 32 foot scow to meet them.

They took a day going to see Lady Evelyn Falls on Kakisa River also seeing the Alexander Falls and Louise Falls on Hay River. They found these very beautiful.

In Hay River they went to see the large boats loading at docks for Wrigley, Norman Wells and Inuvik, N.W.T.

Leaving Fort Providence on Saturday afternoon by scow with 12 passengers aboard it took 22 hours to travel the miles down the Mackenzie River to Fort Simpson. They travelled all night and there was practically no darkness at all. A stop was made at Axe Point, an old American air base also at Jean Marie, an Indian settlement of 12 natives and one white person, who is doctor and teacher there.

On Sunday at 4:30 a.m. the travelers arrived at their destination. While at Fort Simpson Leo Leahy and his wife, Louis Geigle and Dale Fry chartered a small plane and flew to Clay Lake and Little Doctor Lake to fish and found the fishing very good indeed.

While in Fort Simpson they attended the opening of the new federal building and post office. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Bush, who who taught school at Buffalo Coulee for a number of years and who have been at Fort Simpson for the past two years teaching. Very modern homes are in evidence, a nice R.C.M.P. barracks, a power house, heating system and water. There is an experimental farm, large Hudson Bay store. Indians who were flooded out two years ago now have new homes. There is also a large Roman Catholic Hospital, Anglican Hostel and large hospital. Their only drawback is transportation which is by air or by river. Winter time there is a winter road from Fort Providence.

The party of holiday travellers left Fort Simpson on Monday by ferry and barge and arrived at Fort Providence on Wednesday morning. This took longer but was much enjoyed as scenery was beautiful.

Disembarking at Providence they motored down the Mackenzie highway and stopped at Fraser River where they visited Walter Antonuik who at one ...

...time was part owner of the Vermilion Hotel. Vermilion was reached on Thursday. All enjoyed a truly wonderful holiday.

The north country is very beautiful. Over 3000 miles was travelled by car, by barge and by plane on the trip.

Of course our bank likes to say Yes.

You see, we need the money.

Some of the revenue we earn comes from loans we make to people. So it's to our advantage to give every request for money much more thought. A little more understanding, too.

It could be money in The Bank, so to speak.

Another consideration: If we approve your loan you'll probably feel more inclined to do all your banking with us. Then we can really show you how truly helpful our complete banking services can be!

So do us both this one big favour.

Tells of Centennial Projects and Programming

Guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Vermilion Rotary Club was Mr. G. D. "Bud" Sallour, Centennial Officer for the Province of Alberta.

Mr. Sallour built on the reasons for the celebration of Canada's centennial, summarizing as follows:

(1) To make us aware of our heritage and the contribution by our pioneers.

(2) To bring to us an awareness of our future. This marks the end of one era and the beginning of a new one.

(3) To show our pride in being Canadians.

(4) For fun — to have part in all the festivities associated with Canada's Centennial.

Mr. Sallour emphasized that how we achieve these points is up to the individual and to the community. Governments at the federal, provincial and municipal level are supplying funds and doing much planning.

The guest speaker was introduced by Reg Mitchell and thanked by Dr. Ben King.

The Newspaper — Show Window Of The District

As has been repeated to the point of monotony, the weekly newspaper is, in a sense, the show window of the district, and the editor is constantly seeking for attractive material with which to dress his show window. He reacts to the news of any achievement or success on the part of any citizen as a father reacts to good news from a member of his family: it is something bright, colorful or valuable for the show window; it reflects credit on the whole Vermilion and district family. And there is everything whose eye might be attracted. Remember if there is some accomplishment to your credit, or the credit of your neighbor, let your editor know about it. It will brighten the show window.

To be a show window reflecting the town in true perspective the paper should be carrying advertising from every store every service which is doing business here. Every business and business man should help advertise the town from which he derives his living. In doing so he not only attracts more people but he helps give the town a more impressive show window.

TOMORROW . . .

Procrastination, as some of us know to our cost, is the thief of good intentions no less than of time, but rarely has the point been made so well as in the following verse the author of which, alas, is unknown.

He was going to be all that a mortal could be Tomorrow.
No one should be kinder or braver than he Tomorrow.
A friend who was troubled and weary, he knew, who'd be glad of a lift — and who needed it, too; on him he would call and see what he could do. Tomorrow.

Each morning he stacked up the letters he'd write Tomorrow. And thought of the folk he would fill with delight, Tomorrow. It was too bad, indeed, he was busy today, and hadn't a minute to stop on his way: "More time I will have to give others," he'd say. "Tomorrow."

The greatest of workers, this man would have been Tomorrow. The world would have known, had he ever seen Tomorrow. But the fact is he died, and he faded from view; and all that he left here when his lifetime was through, was a mountain of things he'd intended to do. Tomorrow.

$1.50 BASIC PRICE FOR 1965 WHEAT

GREEN ACRES

By H. WORLEY COYLER
District Agriculturist

ADVANTAGES OF SWATHING

Swath Current Experimental Farm studies have shown that swathing wheat can be started seven to 9 days in advance of the stage usually accepted for straight combining oats, 10 to 12 days barley 9 to 11 days fall rye 8 to 13 days. Thus early swathing adds extra days at the beginning of the harvest season when weather conditions are usually most favorable. By advancing the harvesting date swathing can not reduce losses that may be caused by shattering, wind rain and frost but it does reduce the green weed problem.

HORN FLY CONTROL

The use of recommended chemicals for horn fly control on cattle is very worthwhile at this time of year, says J. F. Prokopetz, Assistant Supervisor of Crop Protection and Pest Control with the Alberta Department of Agriculture. Mr Prokopetz points out that animals and beef losses from attle being bitten by horn flies are at their highest during the month of August. The flies congregate in large numbers on young animals shoulders around the neck and along the back and cause a substantial loss in gains if some time due to the cattle being forced to rub the flies off in the most unlikely places. Recommended chemicals which reduce these losses a with all efforts provided ap to the label.

MAKE FOR EARLY HARVEST

Mr. Proctor says some dairy farmers do not use insecticides on their herds because they are afraid of residue problems. Although this concern is well founded, the use of an approved chemical and application method is perfectly safe and definitely worth the investment. Information on recommended livestock insecticides is contained in the pamphlet "Dairy Pesticides and Feed Control of Livestock Insects" both of which can be obtained from D.A.s from the Extension Service of the Alberta Department of Agriculture Edmonton.

WASTER FARMERS

Two local families were mentioned to be judges for master farmers awards. Mr. Fred Wasterman of Marsville were nominated by their friends and neighbors. The Waltons will be judged by the district committee visited 4th. The Miss Wasters family of Vermilion were nominated by their friends and neighbors but were not accepted. The Wasyuks had just been farming on their own for twenty years. The Master Farm Family award is for a Canadian citizen and a minimum of 20 years farming in Alberta.

Crops Year Finished Saturday

The 1964-65 crop year ended Saturday.

The Canadian Wheat Board has said it will not extend the quota delivery deadline, and has announced its quota policy for the 1965-66 crop year.

Alberta and Saskatchewan farmers who have been unable to deliver their full quotas because of the grain handlers strike in Vancouver will now have to hold stocks over and include them in 1965-66 quota deliveries.

MAINLY IN SOUTH

Alberta's main problem with undelivered grain is in the southern part of the province, where farmers are getting ready to harvest a bumper crop.

The undelivered grain could cause difficulties because of a lack of storage space, and because farmers harvesting an extra large crop, they would likely be able to use all of their 1965-66 grain delivery quota for the new crop.

Now the holdover stocks will take some quota and payment on part of last year's crop will be delayed for another year.

This means the final payment on part of the 1964 crop will not come through until the winter of 1967.

Dr. Tom Demco of Vegreville repeated his victory of former years and won the championship flight at the annual open golf tournament held by the Vermilion Club. # Vermilion Drivers Win 8 of 10 Races at Lloyd.

RACING AT LLOYDMINSTER

Vermilion drivers once more gave a good account of themselves at the Lloyd race track last Sunday, winning eight of the ten races. The track was in good shape, except for a bad hole on the north end, and races were fast and well contested.

WHITLOCK WINS

Ralph Whitlock showed up with a new car and did very well, taking one first, one second, one third and a fourth in the feature race. Ed Radosh nabbed one first, one second and one third, while Steve Ludwig came through with one first and one second. Tom Khlebovitch took two firsts, including the $5 visitors race, and Hubert McKelvie got two thirds. Jack Hobbs and Ken Lawrence both drove well but only managed to come up with one second and one third respectively. Trevor Clark, who has been out of action the last couple of races with engine trouble brought his new Ford out and won one race before accidentally tangling with Earl Pollard on the backstretch, putting both cars out for some time. Earl managed to get his car going again in time to win the feature race with agreat display of speed and driving skill.

TAG BACK REAL SHOW

One of the highlights of the day was the Australian Tag race in which Hubert McKelvie, Ed Radosh and Steve Ludwig took on a real show. At times these three cars were coming down the straightaway three abreast. Con ten gratulations boys, on a good, clean, hard fought race.

DEMOLITION RACE

The demolition race took some time to get started as many of the cars entered seemed reluctant to start what would probably be their last run. It wasn't long before the track looked like a Sunday driver's nightmare, and Pat Scarf was the only driver left with a car, hanging his way around the track until his faithful Chevy became locked onto another car and expired in the pit area.

The injuries were all confined to the cars with all drivers coming through in fine shape. However it will probably be some time before enough chunkers, pardon me, cars, can be found to stage such a race again.

The family house to the cemetery in the afternoon to visit the grave of their father while Pat and Charlie took the chill days fishing trip and what a fish it proved to be! In fact it took a lot of persuading to get him to stop fishing and return to camp. He wanted to know why his dad didn't come to Vermilion in time so that he could fish.

Correspondent For The Standard Enjoys Motor Tour

Since writing the last Bowtell Bulletin Mrs. Sherwood and her daughter Beverly enjoyed a two weeks motor trip to Vancouver. The journey to the coast was via Rogers Pass and the return trip was made by the south route through Lethbridge. The first stop was made at the home of brother Ernest Mr. and Mrs. Fowler in Edson. A nephew and wife Mr and Mrs Fowler were visited at Kamloops.

The journey was continued to Langley Prairie to visit Mr and Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Dudley Harry and these took them to visit former residents of Vermilion Mr. and Mrs. R. Parker, now Revd. Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Hands at White Rock. Mrs. Hardy in the early 20s lived on the same corner owned by Frank Richardson whose sons attended the Lawson School in the 20s two of whom are Jack McCrory, well remembered. Some time was spent at his boys' farm at Matsqui.

A visit was made to Vancouver through the kindness and with the assistance of Mrs. M. Risdale.

Leaving Vancouver by the Fraser Valley route was made as far as Kelowna to see Mr and Mrs. Ted Kramer who farmed for many years in the Bowtell district on the farm now owned by John Hartford.

From there they went through the Okanagan Valley, across the Kootenays and over the new Sky Trail part of the eastern B.C. highway linking the East and West Kootenays. The smooth pavement and spectacular scenery made the trip over the Hope-Princeton pass an enjoyable experience. This road was started in 1956, took 8 years to build and cost 17 million dollars to complete.

The highway then took them down into the lovely valley at Creston to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Rongkan where they toured the pleasure of meeting Mrs. R. Rongkan and family. Roy himself was away to an art competition in Eastern Canada.

A night was spent at Trail, Nelson and the last lands of that area were toured. It was a most delightful journey of 2300 miles and the holiday was fully enjoyed however this did not detract from how good it felt to be back in Vermilion.

Candlelight Setting for Dibben-MacComish Wedding

A candlelight wedding in a decorated bridal arch was solemnized in the First Baptist Church, Lloydminster, on Saturday, July 3rd, when Margaret Elizabeth MacComish became the bride of Frederick Francis Dibben. The bride is the elder daughter of Mr and Mrs. K. D. MacComish of Lloydminster and the groom is the son of Mr and Mrs. F. G. Dibben of Vermilion.

Rev. H. L. Johnson pastor of the church, and Rev. J. Bell Christian and Missionary Alliance pastor of Vermilion, officiated. Mrs. H. L. Johnson was the organist.

The bride entered the church accompanied by her father, and the capacity crowd watched as she proceeded down the aisle to the strains of The Bridal March from Lohengrin. Her gown of nylon organza and Alencon lace over peau de faille featured a scalloped neckline. The fitted bodice and long, lily-point sleeves were of Alencon lace, dotted with tiny sequin trim, and the bouffant skirt, also of nylon organza, had small rosettes of the same lace as its only adornment. A double strand of pearls, a gift from the groom, was the bride's jewellery.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Sylvia Glenbewitt of Calgary, as matron of honor, and Mrs. Jo-sephine Morris of Greenstreet and Miss Jean Waddle of Medburg. They were attired in pale green net over taffeta with flower headpieces.

Candlelighters were Misses Sharon Dibben of Vermilion and Miss Martha MacComish, sister of the bride. The flowergirl was Miss Cheryl Glenbewitt. The groom's gifts were dresses of yellow net over taffeta. Master Murray Brooks of Calgary was the ringbearer.

Groomsmen were Messrs. Al-bert Dibben, Ruth Cooke and Hewitt Dibben, all of Vermilion. George MacComish and Mr. Jerry Kent of Marwayne were the ushers.

Soloists were Miss Phyllis Brooks of Lloydminster and Mr. Norman Cooper of Vermilion.

The reception was held in the church basement with the bride's table in a setting of streamers and bells and covered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Mr. Stan Geake of Vermilion was toastmaster and read congratulatory telegrams.

Rev. L. E. Jones of Owen Sound, Ont., a former pastor of the church, proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom and the bride both responded. Musical entertainment in the form of a piano duet was provided by Messrs. Clen and James Teasdale of Vermilion.

For a honeymoon the bride donned a two-piece ensemble of pale blue linen with white accessories. The bride and groom motored to Yellowstone National Park.

Mr. and Mrs Dibben will make their home in Vermilion where the groom is employed by the Vermilion seed cleaning plant. The bride, before her marriage, was a member of the staff of the Auxiliary Hospital in Lloydminster.

New Design For Expo Bridge

Expo Bridge — Set for completion this week is the bridge at the main site of Expo 67, Dr Sabete Habsas, on the left, to downtown Montreal. With the orthotropic design of the structure, the steel deck of the bridge is self-supporting. The two suspension towers in the lower picture will come down with the completion of construction. The mass transit system — Expo Express — will cross here, and passengers will have a clear view of Expo and the city.

Health Unit Notes

BUILDING SELF-CONFIDENCE IN YOUTH CHILD
(Part 1)

"You're out!", rules the umpire, as a ten-year-old tries to steal a base. Sweeping the other team's glee, and fearful of his team-mates criticism, the boy gets angry and blows up. He yells at the umpire and his opponent. Perhaps he cries and leaves himself open to further taunt and ridicule. Guilty, angry and ashamed, he feels miserable.

This ten-year-old reaction to "failure" is probably understandable. He desperately wants his team to win. He wants his teammates to like him, yet his action may cause them to lose, and himself to be blamed. Winning the game has become all important, a symbol of "success".

This kind of everyday competition among children is commonplace. It seems harmless enough, yet it can be dangerous — particularly when winning becomes the only measure for success. From their earliest years, children are the importance which adults place on winning or coming out on top. It is forgotten that for each winner there will be many losers — and losers are soon thought of as failures. Therefore, to please a parent, a teacher, or some adult, a child feels he has to be a winner. This is how fear of failure may begin. The pleasant and creative aspects of the activity are sacrificed in the struggle to win — to be a "success". The important inner satisfaction of accomplishment and doing one's best, are lost. It's this attitude to competition that stands in the way of healthy growth and development.

Children and adults develop the strength to face failures through learning from past defeats and through confidence built up from earlier successes. When little Jane learns to tie her shoes she glows with delight at father's praise. Or, when Johnnie gets a C or D in his report card, his very excuses tell us that he knows, without being told, that he should have done better. Anger or sarcasm will not help. He wants and needs encouragement so he can do his (not his parent's) best. Feeling his parent's confidence and trust gives him courage to face failures and mistakes. Of course, along with encouragement, he needs to be shown better ways and methods of avoiding future mistakes.

Labour Day Year's Top Road Killer

Car Casualties on major holidays the Labour Day weekend is with us the fourth in order of worth on the highways reported the Canadian Highway Safety Council. In fact, said CHSC, the statistics show that it is being pushed into the 1st. ground by the road victims in the general public's view of the holiday.

The average number of road fatalities on Labour Day weekend in Canada is 62. Other holidays have averages below that. They include 2" for New Year's (the least); 30 for Easter; 42 for Victoria Day; 45 for Dominion Day; 50 for Christmas and 52 for Thanksgiving.

Major causes CHSC claimed are the urge for dominance the urge for speed, reluctance to "give in" to the other driver, failure to make use of driving procedures and car features designed to help avoid mishaps, and lack of attention to the simple signs that warn of potential peril.

Government Doesn't Plan Centennial Directory

No Centennial booklet or directory supported by paid advertising has been authorized or endorsed by the Alberta Government. It was announced today by the Alberta Government Publicity Bureau.

The Bureau has received several enquiries from different places in Alberta concerning the solicitation of advertising for "the province's Centennial Directory". It was emphasized that there was no such directory being compiled or even contemplated by the Government.

The Bureau pointed out that the Centennial observances made it easy for persons willing to misrepresent themselves and their associations, to obtain funds and support for projects that are not what they purport to be. Sale of advertising and subscriptions is one of the more obvious.

It is strongly recommended that persons or firms approached for support of any "Alberta approved" publication enquire first of the Publicity Bureau before participating on the strength of presumed Government endorsation.

It's You! . . .

If you want to live in the kind of a Town,
That's the kind of a Town you'd like.
You needn't sit up your clothes into a grip
And start on a long, long hike
You'll find elsewhere what you've left behind,
For there's nothing really new.
It's a knack at yourself is how you knock your Town,
It ain't your Town, it's YOU.
Real Towns are made by men unafraid
Lest someone else gets ahead.
Where everyone works and nobody shirks,
You can raise a Town from the dead.
And while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbor can make his too,
Your town will be what you want it to be;
It ain't your Town It's YOU" (Earth)

United Church Holds Vacation School at Marwayne

MARWAYNE: This year saw the first Church Vacation School to be held by St. Andrew's United Church in Marwayne. Every morning from July 12th to 23rd an average of sixty three children flocked to the school to participate in sing songs, Bible study, handicraft and recreational classes. In all, 89 registered for classes, but as some were visitors in the area they were unable to attend as often every day.

It was gratifying to note that many from the Khedive charge and also from other churches in the Marwayne area were in attendance, and it is hoped that in future years even more of these youngsters will come.

The school was brought to a close on the evening of the 23rd with a picnic supper served in the church by the students and teachers. This included a variation display of handicraft done by each student and a worship service. Each child received a certificate of attendance and a number of deserving youngsters received awards.

At this service Ribbon were presented to Barbara Cox, Sharon Shaw, Sharon Johnson, Dorene Cooper and Wayne Cox for all whose lives assisted with the Vacation School for the past three years but are now leaving to further their education.

The staff consisted of the ministers in charge on the Church Board, assisted by volunteers from to use the school facilities and a Board member acted as host way to make this worthy and enjoyable project a complete success.

They were encouraged to spend more time with their parents and less with "gangs" and were advised that dating unless it was getting and wearing of ear-splitting clothing are dangers Christian youths should avoid.

A remarkable feature at the convention was the movement of hundreds of motivated youths in an orderly manner, wherein they undertook a life of ministerial service in their religious

DON'T DO IT!

Eye specialists warn that reading under the rays of a dazzling sun, like this little girl with her favorite comics, can do very hard on the eyes. But dark glasses are not sufficient protection. The Murine Company says that three words should be applied to cases like this: "Don't Do It!" If your child's eyes do get over-tired this Summer, however, they can be soothed with a few drops of eye lotion now available in Canada in a yellow plastic bottle that dispenses one drop at a time.

Health Unit Notes

ALCOHOL AND THE DRIVER — DOCTOR

(Part 1)

The laws of the land allow people to drink alcoholic beverages but the misuse of these beverages has created many problems, one of them being to contribute to the already high number of traffic accidents.

At the festive seasons which are usually celebrated with a round of office and cocktail parties, the familiar slogan "If You Drink, Don't Drive, If You Drive Don't Drink" is of special significance.

Would just one little drink — say one cocktail or one bottle of beer affect driving ability? Not if an hour elapses between the drink and the drive and the experts say this is because it takes the body one hour to oxidize, or eliminate an ounce of alcohol from the blood. But if from six to eight cocktails or bottles of beer are consumed in an hour the risk of an accident is almost ten times as great

That these amounts of alcohol in the blood render a driver unfit to control a motor vehicle is a well established fact, but a fact not generally known is the subtle insidious influence which alcohol has on the mental and physical reactions of the driver.

Do you know that alcohol is a drug, once used as an anaesthetic? That it has an intense blinding effect on the retina and on those physical motor responses which need to be instantaneous in critical traffic situations? Do you know that very small amounts of alcohol impair vision, reduce by one-half the ability to make a correct decision and build up a false feeling of confidence? Do you know that two cocktails (about 0.04% of alcohol in the blood) may reduce visual acuity as much as wearing dark glasses at night?

Drivers found "under the influence" is the result of irresponsible drinking. What is their contribution to the toll of road accidents? Unfortunately, accurate, up-to-date statistics on the number of traffic accidents due to driving while drunk or impaired are not readily available. This is partly attributable to the fact that the detection of such a charge often necessitates presentation of clinical data which cannot be obtained unless the driver voluntarily submits to chemical tests. Those impaired drivers are responsible for a considerable number of traffic accidents in addition to the toll by the "out drinking and driving in one of four violations responsible for nearly 70% of all traffic deaths.

So serious is the problem of drinking and driving considered by the largest group of Canadian insurance companies that it devotes one hundred per cent of its automobile advertising to the matter of alcohol and road traffic. Said an Ottawa magistrate recently: "In the U.S. 50% of all accidents involve the consumption of alcohol and I dare say that it is the same elsewhere."

It is known that Canada has 200,000 alcoholics and that their number is increasing by 5,000 a year. These statistics lend support to the opinion of the Ottawa magistrate that in Canada the percentage of accidents due to impaired driving may be over half that attributable to other causes.

An examination of facts, details and figures will profit humanity but little in its campaign against slaughter on the roads unless road users have scientific knowledge as how alcohol affects the human body. An educational campaign should begin with the children and teach people early. In the experience of one editor in this field, drivers have changed their drinking and driving habits after learning scientifically proven facts. In addition to scientific knowledge, users should be inculcated in every driver a sense of moral responsibility for harmful his or their, in Shakespeare's words, if drivers have "put an enemy into their mouths to steal away their brains", they will then stay off the roads.

The Criminal Code was amended in 1951, creating an offence of driving a motor vehicle while impaired. The penalties for this new offence are substantial fines, or jail terms for first offence and a mandatory jail term for the 2nd or subsequent offence.

CARE IN HARVESTING MALTING BARLEY

Mechanical damage to barley, during harvesting, frequently results in peeled kernels which are undesirable for malting purposes.

It will pay to take every precaution to see that barley intended for malting is harvested at the right stage, is properly swathed so as to permit complete drying and maturing, and is carefully threshed so as to avoid the peeling and breaking of kernels.

Pay For Labour Day Holiday

The Honourable R. Reierson, Alberta Minister of Labour, commenting on the observance of Labour Day, September 6, stressed that this day now receives additional recognition in the Province by virtue of the new orders of the Board of Industrial Relations respecting five general holidays, including Labour Day.

Besides the tradition of observance of Labour Day to commemorate the achievements of the Labour Movement for the benefit of society as a whole, under the provisions of the new orders of the Board an employee shall receive a day's pay when he is not required to work on Labour Day and if, due to the nature of his employment, he is required to work the employee must receive at least double pay for the day.

Due to the intermittent employment conditions in the construction industry the Board's order for this industry provides for a payment of two per cent (2%) of regular earnings to be paid at termination of employment or paid at the time the employee takes his annual vacation.

While many employers have by custom or agreement granted paid statutory holidays, this is the first time in the history of the province that benefits are provided by regulation respecting this day set aside to honor Labour.

Newfoundland First With Reflective License Plates

Automobile license plates that reflect light will appear in Newfoundland in 1966, reports the Canadian Highway Safety Council. Thus the province will become the first province in Canada to adopt light-reflecting plates. The Council stated that light-reflecting plates not only contribute to safety on the highway but assist law enforcement agencies by making license numbers more easily read at night.

The plates are clearly visible at night up to a distance of 1,500 feet and can be seen in fog, rain or other times of low visibility.

CHSC's 1965 conference at Winnipeg in May strongly recommended adoption of light-reflecting plates by all provinces. By 1966, the Council says, 35 states will be using the plates. The Council considers these a major step in road safety, quoting studies in areas where they are used as indicating reduction of night accidents by as much as 50 per cent.

Several other provinces are considering their use, but Newfoundland will be the first to introduce them in Canada.

Be Safe — Immunize

The Health League of Canada is sponsoring Canada's 23rd annual National Immunization Week September 19th to 25th. A barrage of literature outlining the benefits and necessity of immunization forms out during the week-long campaign.

A total of 4,763 Canadian youngsters were stricken with whooping cough last year, another 23 with diphtheria and 21 Canadians developed polio. Most of these cases could have been avoided through immunization.

In 1963, the last year for which death statistics are available, 73 children died of measles, often considered a mild, non-dangerous disease. Twenty-eight young people died of whooping cough in the same period and 16 persons of polio. These deaths were needless.

The Health League of Canada is calling on every Canadian parent to support National Immunization Week. Don't let your child become one of these heart-breaking statistics.

Frontier Rye is available on a first come, first serve basis at the Research Branch, Seed Of fice #15 Motherwell Bldg., Regina, Saskatchewan.

There were a number of requests for supplies of Frontier Rye last fall, but no supplies were available.

Frontier was developed by D. A. McEwan of the Swift Current Experimental Farm, Saskatchewan.

There are one thousand bushels of Frontier seed available — with a limit of thirty bushels per buyer. The price is $6.50 per bushel.

SCALES

When talking to Claude Brenan the other day he mentioned the Vermilion Agricultural Society may be interested in a set of good used scales.

These scales would be used for 4-H sales and the new and fat steer classes which will be featured at future exhibitions.

A.S.B. HIGHLIGHTS

Trees were discussed at length at the County of Vermilion River A.S.B meeting on Monday. A larger than usual number of trees were planted for roadside shelter in the spring and a lot of these trees arrived in bad shape. As a result there are miles long rows of trees many of which are dead.

It appears that the best thing to do is inspect and replant the whole row next spring.

The A.S.B. recommended to council that the 1966 roadside tree planting projects all trees should be ordered on the County truck could pick them up and take them out to the farm with the tree planter The board is confident that Ralph Wilson can do a better job than has been done in the past of keeping the trees in line.

A recommendation was also made to council for reimbursement of a sprayer to be used in keeping weeds out of roadside ditches. Using the new chemicals Simazine and Gramoxone, it will be used to eliminate the hoe and weeds at the same time.

A. S. B. Summer Meeting

The following is a summary of the minutes of the meeting of the Agricultural Service Board of the County of Vermilion River No. 24 held in the Legion Hall, Kitscoty, on August 25, 1965, with Chairman R. C. Golightly and Members P. Dobson, M. Douglas, J. Hale, J. D. Stone, Assistant District Agriculturist W. Cody, present.

The minutes of the meeting of April 8, 1965, were adopted as presented.

DISTRICT AGRICULTURIST'S REPORT

"Gentlemen:

I feel guilty that we have not met since a date in April. I feel that this is a sign that there may be too much dependence on one person for calling Service Board meetings. Perhaps we should make it a resolution that in the coming year we plan to hold at least four meetings and add as we see fit. If we don't do this, we find that the D.A. and Field Supervisor take too many responsibilities on their own shoulders. This summer the Field Supervisor had to make several decisions which should have been the Board's decision on whether or not to accept and cooperate with several companies on running chemical trials. He had to decide on his own as to what kind of a Fair exhibit the Service Board would put up. This may not be bad, in fact, it may be good, but it is the responsibility of the Board to direct the Field Supervisor.

WEED SPRAY

Since January, 1965, we have been putting out a constant supply of information to the general public on our weed spray competition. If anyone has any suggestions as to how this may be improved, I would be happy to go along with it. We have not had anyone submit essays to date.

TOADFLAX CHEMICAL TRIALS

The U.S. Borax Company is supplying us with enough of a chemical called Borolin to run a number of 30-square foot trials on Toadflax in September. There will be no cost involved so far as the Service Board is concerned.

REGIONAL ADB CONFERENCE

Before we leave this meeting today it seems opportune to say that we should set out a policy whereby farmers who are placing roadside shelterbelts or are going to use the tree planter should be advised that their trees will be picked up by the County Truck in the spring of 1966. We are certain that this will triple the efficiency of the tree planter and allow Mr Ralph Wilson to plan his program and have the trees at the farm when he arrives. It is now time that we began to discuss and think about the future of roadside tree planting. Mr. P. D. McVilla, Provincial Horticulturist who is in charge of tree planting sold to me the other day that he has no ARDA program in mind but he is certainly open for suggestions as to ways and means of making certain that the trees are better cultivated. He says that many people say that ARDA should be involved in a treeplanting program but to date we have not come up with any concrete suggestions Perhaps the best way for us to proceed with roadside shelterbelts in the County would be to offer services by which the trees will be sprayed with simazine and Paraquat to eliminate boeing. This is another item that the Board should discuss thoroughly the value of these roadside shelterbelts and decide whether they are valuable enough to spend public money in having them cared for and maintained. Eliminating the weeds from the roadside shelterbelts will not necessarily put trees on every road, but may be a step in this direction."

The District Agriculturist's report was accepted as presented.

TREE PLANTING

A motion was passed that it be recommended to the Council that a County truck be made available to pick up trees that are assembled for the spring of 1966 by County planting equipment to avoid delays presently being encountered in the present method of shipment which in turn would allow more efficient use of the equipment.

PORTABLE SCALES

It was moved that the purchase of portable weigh scales with the assistance of the Alberta Department of Agriculture for the performance testing of purebred and commercial cattle be tabled until there is sufficient demand for this service.

SEED CLEANING PLANT AT KITSCOTY

It was reported that there appears to be no further progress on the plans for the construction of a Seed Cleaning Plant in Kitscoty.

ARDA

The possibility of the establishment of a community pasture in the County was discussed and a committee of Mr Douglas and Mr. Wilson was appointed to investigate further

SPRAYER FOR SHELTERBELTS

The members of the Board discussed at length the possibility of the building of a sprayer suitable for spraying farm shelterbelts. It was felt that if the equipment was available for weed control in shelterbelts possibly more farmers would be encouraged to plant trees.

ADVISORY COUNCIL

A tentative date for the next meeting of the Agricultural Advisory Council was set for the latter part of September

The Canada Pension Plan and its benefits

Here is what the Canada Pension Plan will do for people like Thor Andersen, a farmer who works for himself and makes $4,000 a year.

The Andersens are both aged 45 and have no family. If Thor's earnings remain at $4,000 a year until he reaches age 65, he can look forward to a retirement pension of $83.33 a month from the Plan This, plus the $75 each Mr. and Mrs. Andersen will receive from Old Age Security, will give them a total of $233.33 a month equal to 70% of Thor's previous average earnings.

If Thor becomes disabled anytime after 1970, having contributed until his disability began, he will get a disability pension of $87.50 a month This will continue until he becomes 65 when he will receive his retirement and Old Age Security pensions

Should Thor die anytime after 1967, having contributed until his death, his wife will receive a widow's pension of $56.25 a month until she becomes 65. From then on she will get $125 a month $50 from the Plan and $75 from Old Age Security. At the time of Thor's death to a lump sum payment of $300.

All benefits under the Plan will maintain their value The actual benefits payable will probably be higher than those [illegible] since benefits will be adjusted to meet changes in living costs and in wage levels before the [illegible] paid and changes in [illegible] after they become [illegible]

What will the Plan cost [illegible]

If you like Thor [illegible] rent have self-employed [illegible] of $4,000 a year [illegible] and instalment [illegible] two months [illegible]

This advertisement is one of a series which relates some of the important features of the Canada Pension Plan to individual circumstances

Red Cross Emergency Blood Clinic Sept. 7th

There is a critical shortage of blood in the Edmonton Red Cross storage at the present time. Accident victims and emergency operations cannot be properly taken care of because blood supplies are not sufficient. Blood is ordered by all hospitals in northern Alberta directly from the blood bank at Edmonton set up by doctors over a wide area. The situation at present is a great worry to Red Cross officials who are responsible for blood supplies.

QUOTA SET AT 100

Vermilion and district has many citizens, all donors, on record. These donors are invited to take a date at the clinic. Special arrangements are made to enable young people to donate. Only those in good health are accepted. Those who have had hepatitis or jaundice are not eligible to donate blood. Those who have had a cold or flu should wait for a period of two weeks after recovery before donating blood. Blood of the same blood group may be given to any one person. The names of all those who would give blood are kept, and when any one person requires more than the usual amount of blood, the blood group of every donor is checked to see if they are suitable donors.

20 DONATION PLAQUES

Recently the Vermilion Red Cross received four plaques for donations from headquarters in Edmonton. These plaques are for giving at least twenty donations of blood. This is an example of Such a trophy was donated by Vermilion Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion for competition among those donors who have donated 10 times or more. The trophy was presented to the organization by Legion Auxiliary and is attached to the Legion Hall. Presentation was made by Mrs. Ed Lee, Legion President and the Provincial Judge Lindsay.

Vermilion has created a very interesting record and it is hoped that the people will continue to support the clinic. Vermilion has always responded to the call for blood donations and we are sure that it will continue to do so. Credit on this record must go to the many donors who have given so generously of their blood. Without their support there would be no blood bank.

Childhood Friends Meet By Chance After 50 Years

Edgar Porter from London, Ont., recently visited his mother, Mrs. Tom Smith who is now in her 91st year. Edgar made the trip west by train and on getting settled in his car in Vermilion found that he had a most charming travelling companion. This companion recalled old memories and somehow reminded him of someone he could not quite bring to mind. After some exchange of conversation Edgar found to his great surprise and pleasure that his companion was the little girl who used to play the piano in the first silent movie theatre in Vermilion. She also played in the orchestra at the opening dance in the Vermilion Agricultural College. She with her brother Harold, played for dances in Vermilion and all round the district in those early days.

Old timers by this time must remember Florence Bone, who has wonderful memories of the good old days in Vermilion and who wishes to be remembered to all her old school chums and friends. Florence is now Mrs. Frost and lives at 312 Reynolds Street, Oakville, Ontario

Millions on Highway This Week-end

The Canadian Highway Safety Council estimates that 4,000,000 automobiles will be on the roads of Canada over the Labour Day week-end. That is more than half the number of motor vehicles produced by Canadian manufacturers since 1904.

A Canadian Safety Council, has more than 300,000 miles of surfaced roads and streets. That means 12 cars to the mile. Only a dozen cars occupied each highway or street mile over the Labour Day week end", commented the community executive director of the Council, "it would almost be Utopia. Unfortunately, they tend to gang up."

Concentration of fast-moving traffic on main arteries and around major cities, he added, could be expected to produce giant jams and extremely hazardous conditions. He exhorted every driver to show unusually watchful signs of potential danger and be ready for split-second action to avoid them.

Field Supervisor Reports to Board

The following report was given by Field Supervisor Hayden Will on at the meeting of the Local Services Board held Aug 25:

"A great deal of water has made a great many gullies since our last meeting. Bumper crops now cover the land, but the dead scars remain.

Total Agricultural Service Board Field Supervisor has been busy with various activities during this time.

TREES

A record number of trees were planted this past spring. Due to an extremely dry season most of these trees have done well.

DEMONSTRATIONS

In view of the growing number of herbicides that are being made available today, we have spent much of our time preparing demonstrations of these various chemicals under actual field conditions and tabulating the results obtained. A hearty thank you goes out to all the farmers who have co-operated in demonstrating these materials and to the chemical companies who have supplied chemicals for this purpose.

May and Baker Chemical Company supplied herbicides Ehetrit M and Muetrit C for use on 32 acres on each of six district farms scattered throughout the area. The results of these demonstrations should prove of great value.

Allied Chemicals supplied Ioxynil for about 30 acres of new farm.

Chipman Chemicals supplied one quart of Granuzone for demonstrations on grasses and weeds in shelter belts. We have also bought two pails of Granuzone and in combination with Sour Herbex Agricultural Spray demonstrated its effectiveness in the control of weeds and grasses under shelterbelts and in annual gardens on many farms throughout the County.

We have also demonstrated the use of Benzac, Total Plus 7-D-A on Green Foxtail and have conducted one practical branch course demonstration using 24D and 2MT on barley brush.

To date I have checked most of the weeds in six of the weed districts and have supervised the spraying of herbicides on 200 miles of roads.

DISPLAYS AT FAIR

Mr. Harperand and myself cooperated with a display of weeds and live rats at both of the county fairs. We also took part in both Fair parades.

In all, this has been an extremely busy and interesting spring and summer. I believe our efforts have been worthwhile."

The Field Supervisor's report was adopted as presented.

Honor Pioneer Citizen On 80th Birthday

With an ox team a sack of flour, 25 pounds of salt pork, 20 pounds of beans, some coffee, his baking powder and other small needs, an axe, walking plow and grub hoe he started the task of making a farm. After two years there he decided to look for some place where the winters were not so large nor the snows so deep. He moved to the Clandonald district and with the help of his neighbors built a log house and started to farm. He was married to Miss Ingeborg Mickelson of Minnesota, U.S.A. in 1911. Mrs. Thorsteinson passed away in 1956.

Worthy of Commendation

Walking among the well-kept graves at the Soldier's Plot in the Vermilion cemetery on Decoration Day, the Editor became aware of the fact that there were many unmarked graves. These graves were just as carefully cared for as all others but the name of the soldier lying below was missing. Mentioning the fact that marking all the graves would be a most commendable undertaking, and a fine tribute to the departed war veterans, the Standard was most pleased to be informed that this had already been undertaken by the Legion and that markers had been ordered for the nineteen unmarked graves. A most commendable and praiseworthy move by the Field Marshal Alexander Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion.

Let's Have Traffic Lanes And Crosswalks Marked

Progress on the town paving has now reached the stage where the completed program can be visualized. A most satisfying picture can be visioned of clean pavement, with the white lines designating the traffic lanes, and the pedestrian crosswalks. The completed product will more than make up for the inconvenient moments experienced during the actual construction. Let us not stop until those white lines for traffic lanes and crosswalks are in evidence.

Increase for Skilled Job Opportunities

"Job opportunities for unskilled and unskilled workers are lower than ever while employment in jobs requiring education and training continues to increase," W. C. Stewart of Vermilion, prairie regional director of the National Employment Service stated today. With school doors now open he appealed to potential drop-out to reconsider and return to school to complete their secondary school education so as to increase their usefulness to employers.

Regardless of whether high school education or technical training is involved Mr. Stewart continued, would-be "drop-outs" that their chances not only of finding employment but of advancing in it today without completing their schooling are very poor.

"Records of the National Employment Service show that a majority of today's long term unemployed are the "drop-outs" of ten or fifteen years ago," he noted.

"Many good jobs are available across Canada today, for which no qualified workers can be found while opportunities for the unskilled and unskilled are steadily diminishing" the NES director added.

Mr. Stewart referred to a tendency today on the part of many employers to hire only graduates, and explained that "hiring from the bottom of the ladder that is to say for beginners on the staff are made from applicants who are likely prospects for advancement. Generally speaking, dropouts are considered poor risks."

Referring to "sweeping changes" taking place in the business and industrial world, the NES director noted that "a person with an adequate education is capable of rolling with the punches of our times. One's job may change considerably, demanding new knowledge or skill, while only the educated or trained person is capable of absorbing."

Summer doesn't seem to get started until it's finished. Frost is in the air and the leaves are falling. Mr. W. C. Gordon, Livestock Supervisor with the Alberta Department of Agriculture is making the last call for Royal Winter Fair nominations which close Sept. 15. Make your nominations close earlier in the summer and will soon have their preliminary inspection of-time with a last minute nomination should phone the Alberta Livestock Branch in Edmonton without delay.

FARM LABOR

Farm labor is a big problem. Every year fewer men are willing to work on farms without some supplement to their monthly wages. Overtime compensation and the employment of city conveniences. A number of farmers are using wage incentives to keep men on the job. Higher than average wages may pay for a job well done or any sort of a bonus is a wage incentive.

Dr. D. S. Director of Alberta's Farm Economics Branch, Edmonton, says wage incentives are good, but they must be based on sound judgment. Purnell warns the farmer to be specific offering specific rewards for a specific job done. The agreement must be written.

Wage incentives work best when paid at the time the specific requirements are fulfilled. Any delay in payment of a reward reduces the psychological advantage. Dr. Purnell says care should be exercised to assure that the wage plan does not interfere with good management and the practices so encouraged will be beneficial in the long run. What can be used to advantage is to use and replace card employment letter reminders.

GRAIN STORAGE

The grain storage market is flooded with everything from giant plastic bags to the most expensive steel structures. The latter figure seems to be about $225 which is the price of a 3000-bushel plywood bin in most Alberta communities. The plastic bag may be a one-year proposition, the plywood bin with reasonable care should last up to twenty years and the galvanized steel bin will probably be just as good for your grandchildren's grain storage for your own. There is always the strong possibility that grain storage

The tax rate is set at 36 mills. The assessment has been reduced and a patriotic tax levied. The rate is somewhat higher than that of 1916 owing in part to a decrease in the assessment of $100,000 and the addition of a 4 mill rate for the Patriotic Fund.

Before Insect Control

(By G. P. Manson)

When you are tempted to holler about high taxes relax and think about how much you are getting for your dollar contribution to research on insect control.

If you are not too young just remember the changes since the good old days.

When did you last wonder where the other half of the worm was in the apple you were eating?

Can you remember those fish fry trips before DDT or "Temik" or some other insect repellent was available?

Would you like to go back to having your potatoes "stitch" or "pellitory" wormeaten holes?

What about those grim grubs you're promised for the show? "Look Dad, no thrips!"

Have you been back to the farm lately? You can see Joe now without chasing the flies away first.

The hetters don't run races with the last flies any more, either.

And the wireworms haven't cleaned out a field of tobacco since the late 30's.

What about the corn borer? What happened to it? It's a rare occurrence now and at the farmer does his stuff.

If you're too young to remember, just take Dad's word for it, you've never had it so good.

Want your money back? And all those bugs with it?

School is in, and, children are on the streets and roads again. When driving think for yourself and for the kids- be careful.

Health Unit Notes

ALCOHOL AND THE IMPAIRED DRIVER

(Concluded)

Working in conjunction with voluntary safety organizations, police departments spend hundreds of dollars annually in advertising campaigns which urge drivers not to drive

The largest group of Canadian insurance companies has directed 100% of its advertising toward the drinking driver problem.

There is a large body of people, 70,000 in Ontario, for whom alcohol has become a problem. To meet their special needs, the Province of Ontario established the Alcoholism Research Foundation in 1949. This agency represents the first attempt by the government of any province in Canada to attack the problem by means of research and medical treatment. Since 1949 other Canadian provinces have organized similar foundations pattemed after the Ontario plan

In the last analysis alcoholism must be treated as an emotional disorder but many physical complications must also be properly treated. The family doctor can obtain help of this kind for his patient from the many special treatment centres set up by the Alcoholism Research Foundation in the province. Other sources of help include the out patients' clinics of general hospitals, mental health clinics and psychiatrists. Alcoholics Anonymous, which has been responsible for value in treatment, has active groups in all parts of the country.

Many patients have been successfully treated and have been helped to live quite happily with out alcohol. It must be stressed however that the use of the deterrent factors in treatment is the motivation of the alcoholic himself. Little or nothing can be done for him unless he is determined to help himself. With this determination he can overcome the habit. There is potential for professional people who understand his problem and are able to help him with it

The problem of drinking and driving is international in scope and therefore its solution cannot be left entirely to those organizations which are already doing such splendid work in the field of alcohol and road traffic

Every individual should realize that this is his problem too, and co-operate with others by organizing or supporting a community safety council, by refraining from drinking before he drives or by helping the drivers of commercial vehicles, and by helping in other ways to reduce the yield of human harvest which the impaired driver is reaping on our roads

The Homemaker

By: E. Marion Blake

FLEMLYENT PEEK

With school opening comes some thought about the school wardrobe. Already, you may have been shopping around for clothes for the school set. In looking through the local stores I've noticed a number of fashion-mod fashions. These have appealed both in ready made and yard goods.

A new finish, permanent press, became available earlier this year. In addition to adult wear it can be seen on boys' pants and shirts and girls' slims and skirts. There is potential for additional garments being treated with this finish.

What is permanent press? It is a resin finish applied to a garment. This will provide a wash and wear garment that does not lose its shape or pucker at the seams and requires no ironing. Permanent press garments are available under various brand names. Look for labels which are made with the Koratron Process

KORATRON PROCESS

In this process the fabric is treated with a resin compound. Generally the fabric is a blend of cotton or rayon and a man-made fibre. The fabric is then dried, cut and sewn into a garment. Following this, it is pressed into the desired shape. The garment is then cured in a baking oven which subjects it to temperatures of 320 to 420F. This baking sets the garment permanently into the shape it was given by sewing and pressing before it entered the oven

In the Koratron Process, it is the cotton or rayon in the fabric which is affected by the resin treatment. The man-made fibres are not affected by it. However, because man-made fibres soften at higher temperatures, they do respond to the heat. Essentially however, the man-made fibres are used to fortify the cotton or rayon which lose strength in the resin treatment.

There are numerous other processes being used in insuring permanent press garments. Look for labels when you're shopping. Certainly this is a revolutionary process and a real boon to homemakers. Think of the fewer garments requiring ironing.

WATCH the car behind and signal intention to stop or change direction.

Opinions Of Citizens Sought By Council

A questionnaire relating to financing the building of a swimming pool will go to all water users with the September bills.

The answers given will guide the Councillors in their decision as to whether to build, or not to build a swimming pool as a centennial project.

Please make sure therefore to return the questionnaire answered when paying your water bill.

A report of the committee on the costs and method of financing this project follows.

This is the report of the Centennial Committee appointed on October 22nd, 1964 in response to your circular letter of September 10th, 1964.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

At the initial meeting the following committee was appointed: Chairman, Dr. A. R. Anderson; Members: Mr. Tom Lyness; Mr. J. V. Kessler; Mr. A. E. Calliou; Mr. A. Mitsmul; Mr. C. McCarty; Dr. S. Glover; Mrs. A. McCleary; Mrs. Russ Baddoch; Mrs Anne Winters; Mrs. Agnes Killins.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

The following was the unanimously agreed terms of reference: To investigate and report to the Council, on design, location and financing of a Swimming Pool for the town's Centennial project.

We, the committee, recommend the following to the town council:

(a) Enclosed Pool. An enclosed pool costing approximately $87,000. for 12 months use, is deemed an economically sound investment than spending approximately $12,000 on an outdoor pool which would see operation for almost three or four months of each year in this climate. We are recommending a 25' x 42'6" pool; the reason being that this length is one half Olympic length and it will have five swimming lanes for competitive use. This would allow Vermilion to host meets here as they do in Vegreville, Wainwright and Lloydminster.

(b) Location: After much deliberation, the committee felt that the location should be the decision of a town planner. Two of the more promising sites we would like the planner to consider are: 1. Immediately to the south of the school. 2. In conjunction with the J. R. Robson High School.

(c) Finance: We recommend the town consider Coco Engineering of Edmonton who submitted the lowest bid of $87,000 for an enclosed pool of recommended size complete for your round use.

(d) Financing: The following sources of revenue were reviewed and rejected: Bingos, Car Raffles and direct appeals to Service Clubs, Lodges etc.

The committee is now closer to a true picture of the costs involved. The breakdown is as follows:

Population 3,449 (1963 census)
Federal @ $1.00 per capita $2,449.00
Provincial @ $1.00 per capita $2,449.00
Town @ $3.00 per capita $2,449.00
Swimming Pool Grant $7,000.00
Winter Works Grant (approx.) $12,000.00
Total $26,747.00

In addition assistance from the County of Vermilion River is a possibility.

Therefore, to realize the above amount the town has to contribute $4,000. A large portion of the remaining cost of the swimming pool could be raised by charging $1.00 per month per water user on the minimum water bill. This would have to go to a plebiscite of the water users of the Town.

The finance committee feels that this scheme is feasible and practical. Feasible in that with proper good publicity, water users will see that they can contribute their share to the project in a very easy manner and at the same time make a worthwhile contribution towards the celebration of Canada's 100th birthday. It is practical in that everyone can contribute a like amount and establish a project fund quite rapidly. Perhaps the following example will help: $20 per water user at $1.00 per month for one year would contribute $10,200.00.

If this scheme is adopted, the committee feels that in a very short time we could have a sizeable fund in excess of our present Centennial grant to be additional cost to the Town and in addition qualify for the Provincial Swimming Pool Grant of $7,000.00 with no "strings" attached — that is, no like contribution by the Town is necessary for this grant. Perhaps a conservative estimate would be maximum water bills of larger Towns adjacent to Vermilion may help in building a pool also in Vermilion.

Vegreville $4.35; Lloydminster $5.70; Wainwright $5.25, billed every two months; Provost $4.75 plus $1.00 for recreational projects.

As can be seen from this survey of adjacent towns, Vermilion would be no more than Vegreville; far less than Lloydminster; far less than St. Paul; less than Wainwright. And still add $10,200.00 each year to our swimming fund. It should also be pointed out that not only property owners would be contributing to the fund but also renters and/or transients who would be using water.

No figures are available for cost of operation of an enclosed pool in Vermilion century, indeed Fahrview gets their pool built before we do. There is every possibility that we could operate whether enclosed or open.

Considering the social relevance of this committee having been fulfilled, and the report finished, the committee as such has ceased to exist.

Respectfully submitted,

Centennial Committee re Swimming Pool Investigation
Dr. A. R. Anderson,
Chairman.

1965 Bull Sale Results

This year's average prices at Alberta's 35 contributor bull sales were down approximately $80 to $90 on all breeds compared to 1964.

W. C. Gordon, livestock supervisor with the Provincial Department of Agriculture, says the lower prices prevailed despite a severe weather conditions and poorly to the larger number of entries at many of the 1965 sales.

This year's average prices by breeds were $480 for Hereford, $397 for Aberdeen Angus and $363 for Shorthorns. The total gross returns on all sales were $ [illegible] for 6961 bulls compared to $3,490,000 for 5,490 bulls in 1964.

Wise Leadership Needed

The time of year is here when the citizens choose candidates for the offices of mayor and councillors for the town of Vermilion. Every ea is important in the life of a town, but the present time appears to be fraught with serious decisions. Included in these decisions is the need for a sizable extension to the water and sewer system so that the town may continue to grow; for a new and sensible public works building to replace the present monstrosity now being used for that purpose; while a decision on a suitable centennial project still hangs in the air with a deadline of Dec. 31st set. After that, grants will not be obtainable.

Thus every citizen in Vermilion must give serious thought to the representatives to be chosen. There is no standing still in the history of a community. A town must prosper and grow — marking time is but to lose ground in this highly competitive age. Nomination day is Wednesday, Sept. 22, and election day will follow on Wednesday, Oct. 13.

Medicare To Cost $400 Million

Canadians can expect to have their taxes increased if the Federal medicare scheme outlined in July by the Prime Minister is accepted by the provinces, states the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. It is estimated that under the proposed scheme the total costs to provincial and federal governments will be the order of $600 million, half of which will be paid by the federal government — and this does not include the costs of administration which the scheme dictates, must be by a state agency. To meet these heavy costs, the various governments will almost necessarily be forced to make tax raises and every taxpayer in Canada will feel it. In addition, there will be no opting out — every Canadian, regardless of need, must join the plan. Doctors could eventually become salaried civil servants, and one wonders what will happen to those young people now contemplating medicine as a profession — will they be content to accept this arrangement, or will they move away to places that are less restrictive?

The Chamber of Commerce movement believes that, a country like Canada, no citizen should lack the fundamental requisites of which good health is but one. There are those in Canada who are definitely and able to provide good health for themselves and their families and it is surely toward these groups that the government should direct their assistance — not to those who can, without difficulty, take care of themselves and who are doing so under existing, private medical care programs.

LEA PARK

Lea Park Auction is the place to meet old friends. I am sure every visitor had bought one steer there wouldn't have been enough to go around. Contributors seemed happy. I noted prices for carlots of good steers as high as $22.80 and good Hereford heifers at $16.30. These prices are not official but what I noted.

The prizes are always good at Lea Park feeder sale. It would be a shame if anything ever happened to this event as it sets feeder prices. Cattlemen were getting 21 cents at home a week before the sale and that's better than current market. If there was no feeder sale at Lea Park there wouldn't be a buyer in the yard.

The annual calf sale will be held in October. Watch for further information.

BUILDING A BARN

It does my heart good to drive through the country and see those new houses. Farm housing has certainly improved during the past few years and not before it should. A number of these new homes were built using advice available from Alberta's Extension Service. A full time interior design specialist is employed to advise on the color schemes, furnitures, conveniences of all kinds. Extension engineers will advise farmers about construction. Those new things such as pour-on floor coverings and rug in he kitchen may not be so fantastic if the facts are known. They aren't necessarily expensive and are certainly much more durable than their old counterparts.

Miss Marion Blades, District Home Economist, is on the D. A. office in Vermilion every Tuesday. Miss Blades is a qualified home economist.

HAYS

Marvin Harpestad says that from now on rats will be looking for winter quarters and trying to get into farmers' buildings and stacks to bait those chaps with dry warbles.

The other day Marvin and I talked for some time and his chief business is bait poisoning. I still not keeping bait out. Keeping fresh bait out at all times is always important. If the previous ever bad rain before it is absolutely necessary. Rats return and the best precaution is a fresh, clean supply of bait.

Vermilion Drivers Win at Lloydminster Races Again

Cool weather failed to keep the drivers and fans away from the Lloydminster Jalopy track last Sunday. Over twenty stock cars and jalopies were on hand and they provided the crowd with one of the fastest race meets so far this season.

POLLARD WINS GOLD CUP

Feature race of the day was the 35-lap Gold Cup Race. Andy Pollard was in car 31 turned in a fine performance, leading the pack for nearly half the race, but Earl Pollard worked his way from a rear starting position to capture first level in the event, just top Steve Ludwig, another Vermilion driver placed third, followed closely by Ed Radish and Trevor Fraser.

Vermilion drivers once more gave a very good account of themselves. Car 31 handled by Bill Hanna and Grant Arnstrong, took an old and two thirds. Andy Pollard was first and a second, with Earl Pollard and Steve Ludwig each got two firsts. Earl also and Steve came other races. Jack Hobbis picked up a second and a third and was doing well in feature race until he hit some debris on the track and flipped his car. Another rollover on the backstretch. Ed Radish came in second in the 1963, ending at 2 p.m. at the Vermilion Speedway

Have you seen the letters CAC and not understood what these letters stand for and what this organization does?

I am talking about the Consumers Association of Canada. It is the counterpart of the Consumers Union in the United States. The CAC puts out a report, Canadian Consumer, which is available on the newsstands and by subscription. This report comes out six times a year. The Consumer Reports Buying Guide is a little more concise and is quite a bit larger. It is published for a year.

If you are interested in learning more about the CAC or perhaps your ladies group would like to study it as a project, please feel free to contact me. I have written authentic organization and its publications are very interesting and informative.

Here is an article out of their last report that might be of interest to you. Trinitex Invisible Thread is the name of a very fine, single strand nylon thread which largely eliminates the problem of color matching. One piece garments may be sewn and washed and ironed seams garments she had made, after which the seams came apart and the hems just dropped out.

It is a semi-transparent thread and comes in two shades, an off-white for use with all light shades of fabric and an off-brown for all dark shades. . . . With a light and dark spool in your sewing basket, you are ready to sew any color and most almost any fabric.

A significant phrase, that "just about". The instructions do not say what fabrics Trinitex Thread should not be used on but do say "in turning, never use at least any higher than the rayon or synthetic setting on your iron.

The problem is that nylon begins to soften at a temperature of about 450 degrees F. and can be distorted at an even lower temperature by the pressure of an iron. It actually melts at about 495 degrees F., a typical sole-plate temperature for irons set at cotton.

New Railroad Will Open Vast Areas

Construction is scheduled to start this year on a railroad into a previously untapped resources area of the province. The Alberta Resources Railway Corporation, has been established to administer expenditures of up to $300,000,000 for the project. Under lease-purchase arrangements with Canadian National Railways the money will be paid back out of operating revenues with interest.

First phase of the railway will run from Solomon, west of Hinton on the CNR main line, 100 miles northwest to the Sheep Creek area

Resources in the area include timber, pulpwood, gypsum and a deposit of potentially coking coal estimated at more than three billion tons. The area lies between the sixth meridian and the Alberta British Columbia border and extends from the Jasper National Park boundary to the 55th parallel

Purpose of the government initiated railway is to attract new industry into this undeveloped area, thus assuring revenue development and creating employment.

When completed, the road will provide a link with rail lines into the fast developing resources areas in Northern Alberta and the Northwest Territories, offering shorter trans-portation routes to the rail grain, timber and mining industries in these areas

The Alberta Resources Railway Corporation is operated by a five-man board of directors. Chairman is Hon A. O. Aalborg, Provincial Treasurer. Minister of Industry and Development and Mines and Minerals. Hon A. R. Patrick is Vice-Chairman. J. W. Lobb, General Manager of Alberta Government Telephones; E. S. Huestis, Deputy Minister of Lands and Forests, and R. N. Harvey, an Edmonton business consultant, are the other board members.

Health Unit Notes

NATIONAL IMMUNIZATION WEEK, SEPT. 19 - 25

National Immunization Week, conducted by the Health League of Canada, in co-operation with Departments of Public Health, is an annual reminder that we must never slacken our efforts to inform Canadians about the value of the vital immunizing agents.

This week was initiated in 1943 by the Health League of Canada and the educational campaign is directed towards protection against diptheria, whooping cough, tetanus, poliomyelitis and smallpox.

The prevention of these diseases depends largely on the existence of specific preventives such as smallpox vaccine, diptheria toxoid or Salk vaccine, but on the universal and persistent education of the whole population of a country. For a single child to attempt to protect any of these diseases without co-operating with other cities would be ridiculous. The results of the very effective program of which National Immunization Week is a part are shown in the statistics which show dramatic reductions in, for example, such diseases as smallpox, diptheria and polio. One case of smallpox in 13 years. Diptheria only 20 cases and no deaths in 1959. Every diptheria hospital in Canada closed. Polio 4,955 cases with 311 deaths in 1952, while in 1963 there were 125 cases and 16 deaths.

The fact that there have been sporadic outbreaks of diptheria and polio during the last three years and that there were 16 deaths from polio and 7 deaths from diptheria in 1963, shows that the education campaign must be maintained.

If it is true that no man should live to himself alone it is equally true that in the field of communicable disease no community can live to itself alone, no province or state or city can live to itself alone. If communicable disease is neglected in one part of the country it is likely to spread to areas in which the campaign for prevention has been effective. All Canadians are invited to co-operate with their governments, the health authorities, the Health League of Canada and all the Canadian media of communication in this great annual campaign of prevention. Such a campaign would be useful in any country in the world.

THANKS KITSCOTY

As Northern District Organizer for the Alberta Football Association I would like to express my thanks to "Kitscoty" for all their work and effort so that the Intermediate "B" Girls Provincial Football Playoffs could be completed on such an unfavorable week-end.

When teams travel as far as two of the teams participating; it would have been very discouraging to go home without the satisfaction of knowing whether they could have won, or lost.

So "Hats off to Kitscoty" and my sincerest thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for the grand dinner on Saturday evening and the dance in the Legion Hall.

To the people of Kitscoty who willingly gave a helping hand when so in need of a diamond, so as play may be continued and a winner determined.

And at last, but by no means least, to the three travelling teams participating, for their great co-operation when all plans and arrangements had to be changed to complete the series.

So again thanks for a job well done.

Alliance Chapel Scene of Pretty Summer Wedding

JOHNSTON—MAYHEW

The Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in Vermilion was the scene of a very pretty summer wedding on July 31st when Helen Eunice Mayhew only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mayhew of Vermilion became the bride of Garry Wayne Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnston of Marwayne.

The Rev. J. Bell performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with garden flowers. Miss Margaret McLennan played the wedding music and was the soloist during the signing of the register. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. Bell.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a white floor length [illegible] of satin overlaid with nylon, the bodice was lace with lily point sleeves and the empire waistline was accented with a narrow band, meeting in a bow at the back, from which the lace train fell. She wore a pearl tiara with waist length veil and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her necklet was a pearl, gift of the groom.

The brides attendants were her sister in law, Mrs. Vivian Mayhew as matron of honor, dressed in yellow and Miss Jo Beth Johnston sister of the groom as bridesmaid dressed in blue. Their gowns were similar street length sheaths of lace with bouffant ruche overskirts and headpieces were white bands of lace. Each carried matching bouquets of carnations and wore gold cross necklets, gifts of the bride.

The groom's attendants were Ronald Kerl of Marwayne and Keith Mayhew brother of the bride. The ushers were Vernon George of Marwayne and Ronald Smith of Lindbergh, cousin of the bride.

A reception was held in the banquet room of the Bus Cafe. The bride's table had a lace cloth was centred with a three-tier wedding cake which was made by the groom's mother Mrs. Lloyd Johnston and Mrs. Norman Paull.

Mrs. J. Mayhew mother of the bride received the guests wearing a three piece yellow dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Do You Have Necessary Car Insurance Coverage

The Honourable Gordon E. Taylor, Minister of Highways, has issued a reminder to applicants for motor vehicle registration that the question "Do You Have The Necessary Insurance Coverage?" must be answered "Yes" or "No". Failure to answer this question will result in rejection of application.

Any person who makes an application for a motor vehicle registration declaring that he has insurance when in fact there is no insurance is liable to a penalty of $500.00, the minister said. Those who purchase a "green" certificate by making a contribution to the Claims Fund are reminded that there is absolutely no liability protection provided. The "green" certificate does not provide insurance coverage.

Police checks are again being intensified, and when stopped by patrols, drivers will be asked to produce:— (a) operators license, (b) vehicle registration certificate, and (c) "Pink" card, or in the alternative a "green" certificate.

Drivers should have these documents ready to produce when requested by the Peace Officer. This will avoid unnecessary delay or the possibility of having a summons issued for failing to produce any one of these documents.

National Immunization Week

This is Canada's 23rd National Immunization Week. This event, organized by the Health League of Canada, in addition to National Health Week, occupies a special niche in the programme of national health education because of the particular significance of methods for the control of communicable disease which may be prevented and immunizing agents which render the human body immune to their attack. Maladies in which immunization is applicable include diphtheria, poliomyelitis, tetanus, whooping cough, smallpox and to some degree tuberculosis. Recently a vaccine has been discovered to prevent measles and since measles is more prevalent than any of the other diseases mentioned it is hoped that it will soon become available for general use. Measles is a disease which is much more serious than people generally realize. In Canada although 85,000 cases are reported every year the actual number of cases is much greater. During an eleven-year period the average annual number of deaths from this disease varied between 83 and 177. During this same period there were no deaths from smallpox and last year only 25 cases of diphtheria in Canada. Both of these diseases were formerly veritable plagues. If an effective measles vaccine were used generally the same spectacular result might be expected.

CATTLE MARKET

There isn't much to be said for the weather lately. Maybe by the time this is in print the combines will be running. While discussing the weather the other day with Gordon Fitzgerald of Dewberry, he suggested that if he revealed correctly there never was much harvesting done in September any year. Gordon said harvest time for this country is in October. Here's hoping you're right, Gordon, and the publish explains the strong beef cattle business in this country.

Thursday, Sept. 16th at Wetaskiwin and Williams there seemed a little slow. There definitely wasn't much interest from local buyers. General opinion around the yards is that there is a short supply of beef and yearlings is depressing local demand.

I met Gene Ferris and son at the stockyards and they shared Gordon Fitzgerald's attitude to harvest. Gene is in the market for feeders and expects to feed them on this year's crop.

A little wind some bright days and if it is surprising how quickly those bins will fill up with grain.

GRAIN DRIERS

The weather has spurred renewed interest in grain driers. We haven't exactly been swamped for information but there are a number of requests each day. I have collected considerable information on driers and drying which is available for anyone who need. There are two hand-out

Islay U.C.W. Hears Mission Talk

Through Wed. the 15th was a showery day it did not dampen the courage of the 40 women from the surrounding area who came to the U.C.W. Missionary Rally to hear Miss Shaw who is home on her annual furlough from Lima, Peru. Miss Shaw is with the Wycliff Translators. There is a difficult task for there are many tribes of Indians in the jungle who have not far from each other yet know it not. All speak differently they have no written language is skimpy yet with all the women are very grateful nothing vulgar or rowdy. The folk were so happy to find that there is a God. They wondered much why the beautiful book why did the water flow this way and not that. was there a great force somewhere? And they were happy to learn that there is. They are clever people too the women especially in weaving and making ornaments.

For dishes they use ripened gourds, they scoop out the pulp after being cut in two and use as bowls. Large leaves are used as plates. Some ornaments were from monkey's teeth some from wings of bugs which are very beautifully colored.

Miss Shaw modelled a dress as worn by the women hand woven a bat made of reeds. Before she wore show and those ladies go without Miss Shaw had quite a number of curios all very interesting.

One thing that wasn't so nice was the marriage ceremony and that takes the form of a wild beating ceremony with a beater made from the hide of a wild animal rather a wicked piece.

Judging from the number of questions asked of Miss Shaw by the audience they were very interested Miss Shaw had no end of patience and answered freely.

Mrs. Linton was the hostess and Mrs. Rev. Richardson gave the devotional. Mrs. Axley sang "How Great Thou Art" A social half hour followed.

The Islay U.C.W. thank Miss Shaw and all who came Wednesday.

Kenny and Beth Gunn were Sunday visitors at the Clarke home.

Sherron Clarke is attending high school in Vermilion. She is staying at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Coutts.

Your writer and Sandra Gould journeyed into the town of Whitecourt. From there they went on to Ft. St. John. This was a very enjoyable trip as the country is beautiful and to drive up the Alaska Highway lined with evergreens was something to remember. Why travel so far afield when there is such beauty so close at hand if you take time to seek it out. A night was spent at a motel situated in a lovely spot, it was found to be operated by a nephew of Cliff McCormick.

Thursday morning, Sept 16th and everything was covered with a snow.' Almost looks like winter However we are still look for ward to Indian Summer.

The writer was off in the district for almost three hours, not very comfortable around the homes and garages with electric heating systems

Scout Executive Visits Vermilion

Mr. Charles Stafford, Assistant Director of Programme Services, Boy Scouts of Canada, National Council, was in Vermilion recently to address a gathering of interested scouters. Scouters from as far away as Two Hills and Chauvin, as well as those in the immediate area made up the 40 persons attending the meeting.

Accompanying Mr. Stafford were Denny May of Camrose, Provincial Scout executive for this area and Mr. Harry Dell, of Calgary, Provincial Scout executive who will be taking over this area in the middle of October.

Mr Stafford is on a series of provincial Scout workshops where district commissioners and members of the scout training team meet to discuss proposed changes in programming for the Boy Scouts. This meeting was held the preceding week-end at Camp Weeds near Sylvan Lake

THE REAL SECURITY

The meeting started with a film, entitled "The Real Security" in which the speaker emphasized that man must adapt to change or perish in stability. With the mood properly established, Mr Stafford went on to outline some of the proposed changes as they affect Wolf Cubs and Scouts. This is before the National Council a proposal to change the Cub program to an equal status 5-star scheme so that the boy can choose those endeavors which he prefers The program will eventually become boy centred as opposed to program centred

The Scout program is also under extensive review with the establishment of a research section known as the Venturers for boys between 14 to 17 The Scouts would then be those boys from 11 and 12 With this added spice a more workable program which will hold the interest of the boys may be established The Venturers would plan their own program along their interest grouping, and, with the approval and guidance of a Venturer Executive be prepared to earn their task to completion

Questions were raised by some of those attending and Mr Stafford was able to give rural scouters an insight into the thinking of National Scout executives on these matters

Coffee and doughnuts were served during a coffee time provided for their respec tive Local committees were heard indicated that the talk was very well received

Homemaker

By Myr. E. Marian Hudson

Garnishing and decorating the soup challenges any cook who desires to create something beautiful and appetizing. Inspiration may come from the color full array of greens, croutons, tiny sumplings, etc. Wherever a garnish is in charge of activities in a kitchen, half the drudgery and drudgery is eliminated by allowing her imagination and natural artistry to have full play in the careful arrangement of the simplest meal. The keynote to happiness within the four walls that make any home is plain, wholesome, well-cooked food attractively served. A spray of parsley or a bit of tender celery top furnishing the artistic touch, a few delicately golden-brown croutons floating on top of the soup, will go a long way toward raising delayed spirits, stimulating poor or laggard appetites, and creating an atmosphere of contentment and well being. It is surprising and oftentimes amazing to see how easily a clever cook can train her household into accepting the most ordinary foods when a little forethought is given to the serving.

Dress up your soups, serve them well delivered, garnished and accompaniments such as croutons, grated cheese, tiny dumplings, sliced hard-cooked egg, a round of toasted bread, rolled whipped cream perhaps dusted with paprika, bread sticks, Melba toast, toasted pin cone cheese puffs or olive slices — just to mention a few.

13 Alberta Students in Initial Veterinary Class

Agricultural Minister Harry E. Strom, has announced that 13 Alberta students have been accepted at the College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Saskatchewan. These are students who have successfully completed their two years pre-veterinary studies and who should graduate in 1970. They form part of the initial class at the Saskatchewan College With facilities and staff not yet completed enrollment has been limited to 33 students this year.

Mr. Strom said there has been concern that Alberta residents wishing to pursue a career in Veterinary Medicine would be handicapped with the veterinary college located outside the province. He said however that the Alberta Department of Agriculture has assured opportunities for admission equal to that afforded students in any western province through arrangements for shared instructional costs. Under shared instructional costs the Department will pay $2500 annually to the western college for each Alberta student enrolled. In return the province is assured of a student quota.

The department has provided assistance to veterinary students in the form of [illegible] grants of one hundred dollars per year. Mr Strom said these grants would be discretionary but students enrolled prior to 1962 will receive them for the remainder of their studies.

He added that veterinary authority qualify for grants, loans and bursaries under the Student Assistance Act Purlieu stimulate students attending university within the province.

Letter to Editor

Centennial Project

Dear Editor:

First I would like to thank and compliment the town council and centennial committee for giving all members of this community and district an opportunity of expressing their opinion regarding the Centennial Project as most people are directly or indirectly involved and have equal obligations to express these opinions on such a large scale.

The extra dollar on the water bill to me seems a fair way of raising some money regardless of what the project is. Still I am not in favor of an indoor swimming pool as a Centennial Project. It might be a good idea for Vermilion to have an indoor pool but only as a private enterprise where many persons could go together, sell shares and make it a business venture. It is my opinion that to real and acute needs of our times that a more practical Centennial project be undertaken that will also save lives. More advanced care and treatment can be given now in every field of medicine but some usually require complex and very expensive equipment or some means of identifying the ailment or effecting a cure. In view of this it is my opinion that with the co-operation of the Vermilion District Hospital Board and the local doctors that some necessary if not essential equipment or some necessary investment be considered. It would be a more charitable and practical and more profitable way of celebrating the Centennial than having a project that they would provide greater benefits for families in the community in which they live.

Mrs. Margaret Herzog.

From 1901 to 1964 the amount of life insurance in force per head of population in Canada increased from $61 to $3,383.

The Canada Pension Plan and its benefits

Huguette and her husband, who is earning $4,200 a year, hope that Huguette will work for a few years before family needs require her attention full time.

Assuming that Huguette does just this, her contributions to the Plan will benefit her in several ways. For example, if she works only for another five years, at age 65 she will receive a small retirement pension of $8.30 a month in addition to her $75 a month Old Age Security.

Through her husband's contributions to the Plan, should he die when they have three young children, Huguette would receive a widow's pension of $57.81 a month plus $25 a month for each child—a total of $132.81 a month. She would also receive a lump sum payment of $500.

At age 65, based upon both her own and her husband's contributions she would receive a pension of $57.81 a month plus $75 a month Old Age Security—a total of $132.81.

If she decided to supplement her income at any time by returning to work, she could still receive the widow's and orphan's benefits could substantially increase her retirement pension, and could also ensure her entitlement to a disability pension if she became disabled.

All benefits under the Plan will maintain their value. The actual benefits payable will probably be higher than those given here since benefits will be adjusted to meet changes in living costs and in wage levels before they are paid and changes in living costs after they become payable.

What will the Plan cost you?

If you are employed and, like Huguette, have earnings of $2 916 spread evenly over the year, you will pay at the rate of $16 a week. Your employer will pay the same amount.

This advertisement is one of a series which relates some of the important benefits of the Canada Pension Plan to individual circumstances.

Issued by authority of the Minister of National Health and Welfare, Canada.
The Honourable Judy LaMarsh.

Vermilion W.I. Reconvenes

The regular meeting of the W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Geo Reinbolt after two months recess. 33 members were in attendance and three visitors. Mrs. A Cameron, Mrs. A. Logan and Mrs. J. Tucker.

With the president, Mrs. T. Davis in the chair, the meeting opened in the usual way, followed by the minutes, treasurer's report was not available. During the two months' recess ten sympathy and ten get-well cards were sent and one bouquet of flowers to a sick member.

Discussion took place with regard to changing the meeting day if it would be easier for the treasurer to attend. It was finally settled for the second Saturday of each month at the same time. This will be tried until the end of the year.

Because of the uncertainty of the meeting days next year it will not be possible to put them on the Rotary calendar.

Mrs. Bell reported on the wheelchairs and crutches, one wheelchair has been returned badly damaged and several crutches have had to have new tips. Mrs. Davis will enquire about the repairing of the wheelchair. As there was no topic the minutes of the first meetings in 1915 were read, some of the ladies recalled the names of these early members of the W.I.

Following the Mitpah a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Reinbolt assisted by Mrs. Tucker and a social visit enjoyed. Mrs. Logan won the mystery box.

If you'd like to buy a new (or used) car, it makes a great deal of sense to do it through the bank. The car dealer will be glad to help you arrange financing. He can arrange it through Personal Loan for you, if you qualify. But you can usually arrange it more economically at the bank. Here's the principle and where the difference is at Toronto-Dominion.

HOLIDAY OVERSEAS

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Otto flew to London in mid-July They visited with their relatives and friends as they toured London [illegible] the highlights was a "School Fete" in an "Old Boys' School" in South London. The popular Councillor was honored with a presentation as he was retiring after giving many years of excellent service.

The tour continued through England, Scotland and Wales, and proved varied and interesting. History came alive as castles, cathedrals and cairns were visited. Later they joined their daughter and son-in-law in Holland. A tour of the Netherlands was most rewarding. They visited Arnhem, Utrecht and Amsterdam. Ann Frank's home and the large Rembrandt art collection were of special interest.

VISITS OLD HOME

On their return to the British Isles, Irwin retraced the foot steps of his childhood as he and Mabel wandered through well remembered streets and lanes of Hastings in southern England. He saw his old home but he [illegible] there's place of employment and schools and churches he had attended. They walked on the beaches and piers of this famous seaside resort.

Although the holiday was a most enjoyable one, they were glad upon arrival back in Edmonton to breathe in good clean Alberta air and to enjoy the peace and quiet of their own beautiful country side. No place like home!

SENIOR MATRICULATION

Mrs. Margaret Machin received word during the summer that she had completed her senior matriculation. By way of celebrating, she and her two children, Robert and Marilyn, spent a week with her sister in Lloydminster.

NO IDLE MOMENTS HERE

Mrs. Sylvia Mizell spent her holidays catching up on work around the house. What with gardening, housecleaning and cooking she had very few idle moments.

TOUR CONTINENT

For Mr and Mrs. Arthur Peacock a glorious seven week holiday began with an Air Canada jet flight from Edmonton on July 13th. Although they saw little of the land or ocean below them it was a wonderfully smooth flight, landing in London about 12:30 p.m.

During the time at their disposal they took three Global Tours, visited England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland and seven other countries on the Continent. They had marvelous weather with only one day of heavy rain in Edinburgh.

The romantic cobbled ride in Venice, the ride on the Jungfrau in Switzerland the Eiffel Tower in Paris, the Royal Tattoo Show in Perth Scotland, historic Canada John Bunyan, the cremation of Winston in Athens in Stratford, the Sound of Music and the Lucerne Ballet in White Swan in London, were some of the highlights they enjoyed.

They marvelled at the appreciation the British had for their parks and little wonder it is made beautiful with flowers and shrubs.

EXCHANGE OF IDEAS

Lillian and Arthur found London Boters particularly helpful with directions and information and most people seemed pleased to welcome visitors. The Peacocks enjoyed the exchange of ideas with the many nationalities included in their bus tours, but were also strongly reminded that each tourist is a goodwill ambassador for his own nation and that it is particularly important to give a good impression of Canadians.

The scenery everywhere was beautiful, the stately spread log trees of England were marvelous. The Lake District of England, the lochs of Scotland and the lakes of Killarney were each beautiful in their own way, but no more so than the exquisite lakes of the Alberta Rockies.

The flight home took them further north than is usual and they enjoyed the view of northern Canada.

The holiday gave them a comprehensive picture of the countries visited wetting the appetite for more. It also made them appreciate home. Familiar faces, and the handclasps of good friends.

Renewed Interest Gratifying

The fact that ten community minded citizens have the desire to contest the civic elections on October 13th is gratifying indeed. The electors now have a fine slate from which to make their choices for Mayor and Councillors.

When a citizen makes the decision to run for a seat on council, hospital or school board, he doesn't do so without considerable thought and deliberation. He knows that he is taking an important step, making a move in which he has to devote a considerable amount of his time, thought and energy to providing efficient, economical, and at the same time, progressive administration to the affairs of the town, the hospital and the schools.

Fire Prevention Week – October 3-9

Canada has a shockingly high death rate through fire. In 1964, the total number of deaths from this cause amounted to six hundred and fifty seven. Two hundred and thirty-five children under the age of ten died by fire. The value of property destroyed by fire runs into millions of dollars. When you realize how very easily a house may be set on fire, it is surprising that in the average home there are fire hazards in almost every room, from attic to basement, in the basement, there may be electrical equipment including household utilities, woodworking materials, inflammable materials often carelessly stored near a heating unit. If there is a recreation room in the same area, smokers constitute a hazard with their smouldering cigarette butts that are not safely extinguished. Anywhere in the house, the do-it-himself amateur who insists upon installing or repairing wiring or raising the amperage of the fuses, may be a menace who should realize that it is safer and cheaper to let a qualified electrician do these jobs.

Where there are young children, matches and lighters should be kept out of reach. Inflammable substances such as coal oil, gasoline or any other liquid fuel should also be stored in safe place. Any of the aerosol cans belong out of reach of youngsters. Since children may have been told that there is danger of the can exploding in heat or if broken, this may be a "dare" for an experiment, so dispose of empties safely.

CUT CROP SYSTEM

Scientists call a new crop system monoculture World statistics indicate that three of the world's major crops, rice, cotton and wheat are largely produced under a one crop culture

Modern vegetable production which in Alberta includes potatoes, carrots, turnips, corn, parsnips, etc are showing signs. The only thing holding up the one crop system is disease and to a lesser extent, weeds. Monoculture will become possible when man can control the entire set of conditions surrounding the crop. Such a system of farming may eventually be forced upon us by the ever increasing human population.

MIXED FARMING

Farming more, not quite, but almost forty thousand white mice are working for the livestock industry at Lacombe Experimental Farm. Mice are revealing what will happen if a small herd is closed and inbred for steady improvement. The advantage of mice over hogs is time. Two years is long enough for thirty generations. This particular work will tell swine breeders how small a herd can be closed and how fast improvement may be expected.

FILLING GULLIES

Heavy rains and more breaking have exposed berms in the Counties of Vermilion River and Minburn to soil erosion Gullies are

Crib Players Dream

MANNVILLE — There was jubilation among the cribbage players of the Chailey district when Mr Wm. R. Cornish attained a perfect cribb hand, 29 points, recently Mr Cornish has been playing crib for 65 years and this is his first perfect hand. So needless to say he was quite pleased with this much sought but seldom attained perfect count making fertile fields impossible to work.

There is no magic machine or chemical that will control this erosion just grass. Grass where the water runs the fastest. The kind of grass really isn't important as long as the fibrous roots hold the soil.

Both Counties of Vermilion and Minburn have gully erosion policies. Any farmer wishing assistance should contact Morley Douglas, D.A., Vermilion or the field supervisor Assistance will be provided on a first come, first served basis.

PERFORMANCE TESTING

Eighteen bred cattle herd performance testing is expanding. Seven herds in the Vermilion Lloydminster area will test in the coming year. They are: Messer Campbell, Chandon-old; Ladywich Farm, Lloydminster; M. S. McGeachy, Dewberry; Napar Stock Farm, Islay; Oscar Petersen, Marwayne; Springbrae Angus Ranch, Lloydminster and Vermilion.

Unfortunately for the cattle breeders there are herds and more not taking advantage of testing This is particularly true when livestock research findings are checked.

The Fort Robinson, Nebraska, Beef Cattle Test Station operated by the University of Nebraska has found weaning and yearling weight to be the best selection methods for herd improvement. There are fifteen hundred tests in only three research projects at Fort Robinson.

Experimental Farms at Lacombe and Brandon worked on eight hundred cows, have found strong evidence that separate weaning weight and yearling weight as the tools of most rapid cattle improvement.

Alberta Performance Testing employs weaning weight, yearling weight and type as tools for selection. Selection for type is done by upholding the selected cattle

Next criticism of performance testing is usually aimed at the advantages of one feeder over another Alberta testing doesn't compare breeds, breeders, feeders or herds. Alberta performance testing measures the performance of cows within the individual herd. It is a means of individual herd improvement

A list of Alberta Department of Agriculture trees for spring planting is now available from the D.A. office. The County of Vermilion River with pick up trees for anyone using the tree planter to plant roadside hedges.

FOCUS ON FALL FASHIONS

Fall fashions for 65 are shapely. Fit is achieved through yokes, shaped darts and belts. Gently gathered dirndle skirts are "in". Waistlines are moveable — from normal to the hipline. Welt seams, top stitching and wrap-arounds are high in design fashion.

Coat dresses, dress and jacket, and three-piece suits in one fabric or co-ordinates are very popular and practical.

Pinks are being seen through the winter months. Burgundy is the new color this year, with hot pink, deep wine, mauve and cranberry leading appearance again.

Greys are also among the popular colors with emphasis on the medium to dark tones.

Lovely fabrics are available with a trend toward open-weaves and handcrafted qualities in evidence. Bulky wool tweeds, airy wool knits, wool laces and crochet effects are popular. Some are branded to a Jersey lining fabric for easier sewing.

Manville Couple Visit Behind "Iron Curtain"

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones of Manville recently returned to their home following five weeks spent on a much enjoyed holiday in the British Isles and Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones have travelled overseas for years but for the first time they were able to arrange and spend two weeks behind the Iron Curtain in Czechoslovakia, Poland and Russia. While they found there the courteous treatment, excellent food at very moderate prices, good accommodation, little evidence of poverty or of great wealth.

IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Leaving England they went to Ostend and then boarded a bus, coach with driver, and a courier who spoke many languages. An all night trip brought them to the frontier of Czechoslovakia which was somewhat awesome with high fence, gates and plenty of land. Soldiers were on duty at the gate and the coach was thoroughly searched. An hour and a half was spent there. On entering Czechoslovakia a young lady was supplied to act as a guide and interpreter, she was very obliging and courteous. They continued to Prague and stayed at a good hotel and enjoyed a full course meal the first they had in Europe Tipping is unknown behind the "curtain". Considerable sight seeing was enjoyed.

IN RUSSIA

The party entered Russia at Brestlitovsk where they saw their first taste of their journey. Passing through the border took longer on this occasion as there was insufficient staff to handle the large number of tourists.

In Russia too a guide was supplied, again a young lady who was a university graduate, very co-operative, helpful and obliging. Excellent meals were enjoyed with caviar and champagne being served them at no extra charge in Moscow they saw the Kremlin the Red Square, Lenin's Tomb, and many historical cathedrals, palaces and towers.

They could travel where they wished there were no restrictions The Russians, they observed, were living better than they had ever lived before with lots of food, no evidence of poverty or of wealth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones now a wedding at the "Marriage Palace" in Moscow This was quite similar to weddings in this country except that there was no rice later and the wedding was conducted by a female official who had a female clerk next to her Everyone was merry, but no outstanding demonstrations of body was quite happy The marriage palace is reserved for the young people between the ages of 18 and 30 and they do not seem to worry much about one over 30

The travellers found that the churches were open throughout their countries visited more particularly in Czechoslovakia and Poland they found that each week the young people of the district go to the churches for mass and the elders still retain their attachment for their churches.

WARSAW VISITED

In travelling to Warsaw in Poland the soil of the country seemed quite sandy Lots of primitive agricultural work was seen in progress Warsaw a very beautiful city, however, built after being destroyed in the Second World War.

EAST BERLIN

East Berlin is not as prosperous as West Berlin but is not nearly as backward as reports would have a person believe Re building is underway with solid substantial buildings. There is more prosperity in West Berlin but prices are high.

Mr and Mrs Jones have a good deal of both sides of the Berlin Wall particularly at a point called "Check Point Charlie" Here it was built by Russians in Belgium, in Ostend and back to England . . . with thoughts predominating in their minds of how every official was particularly kind and anxious to please, of the good meals and comfortable accommodation at very reasonable prices, of the freedom accorded them as tourists, of the lack of any evidence of poverty or of wealth either which they had observed as interesting and enlightening trip into highly controversial countries.

Dewberry Locals

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Walker on the birth of a daughter in the Islay Hospital on Sept. 24th Mrs. John McGee (nee Betty Thomson) of Yellowknife, NWT, on the birth of a daughter.

Get-well wishes are extended to Shelly Cram and Billy and Bobby Imert who have been patients in the Islay Hospital.

Congratulations are extended to Mr Bruce Brock and Miss Mary Ann Grant who were married on Sept. 25th

The district was saddened last week by the passing of Mr. Jack McGilvrew of Vermilion. He was a former resident of Dewberry. Sympathy is extended to his relatives.

Promotion and Rally Day In Alliance Sunday School

It was "Promotion and Rally Day" in the Alliance Sunday School, Sept. 26. Superintendent Albert Tovell was chairman. The platform was suitably decorated for the occasion with a large steamboat, on the steps of which were shoes of various sizes, indicating the progression of pupils through the Sunday School from Nursery to the Adult Bible Class. At the top was the caption "The Best World Is Long Under My Feet". As each pupil was promoted a certificate was presented by the chairman on behalf of the school. Ellen Bonsor sang a solo "Jewels". The intermediate classes with Mrs. R. Tiddens, presented a skit on the theme "Missing Parts". Special mention was made that Malcolm Marleau had been present in Sunday School every Sunday during the past year. His record was followed closely by that of Mr. Ira Schurman who had only missed one Sunday.

Guest speaker in the morning church service was Rev. Olin Craig of Grande Prairie His sermon title was "God's Doubt". He came from Edmonton with Pastor Bell as they had been attending the District Conference of the Christian and Missionary Alliance held in that city. They were also accompanied by Rev. J. M. Schroeder of Kelowna, B.C., a former pastor of the local Alliance Church, who assisted in the morning service and also brought words of greeting from himself and family.

In the evening service guest speaker was Rev. Wm. Bonney, who spoke on the subject "Prepare". Chairman of the local Alliance Chapel.

Clandonald News

Upon moving myself from the bench in front of the poolroom to a mail bag in front of the hardware, a bit of news was gleaned from "three here parts". It was I was just too cold and wet to linger long on said log People weren't in the mood to sit around very long and pass the slip.

Garry Gobert, with his always cheery smile, has been moved from the Bon Accord ward to the Bonnyville branch.

An apology and correction on our last news: it was Donald MacIntyre who bought the Trach home here in town, not John.

Frances Garnier the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Garnier has plunged into her first year of studies at the U of Alberta

Hearty congratulations to two of our latest pupas and mamas, Mr and Mrs Keith Burt and Mr. and Mrs Bert Shaw The stork having delivered safely, amid rain and snow a new daughter to each

Mitchell Trost is enjoying his holidays at home doing some duck hunting and trying to stock, weather permitting

John Corvez, a member of the Grand Centre bowling staff, was home for the week-end

Mr. Jim McNeil, a former teacher here and now in Edmonton, visited friends over the long week-end

The outlook for the next few days at least is for warmer weather and if there is no news from our little village it is because we are all busy and happy.

See how Chris and may God Bless!

SMILE

Sentence to wife departing for a shopping trip with their little son: "And don't forget to take Donald's glasses off when he is looking at anything!"

The Canada Pension Plan and its benefits

Here is what the Canada Pension Plan will do for people like Robert Martin, a 55-year-old skilled tradesman who earns $100 a week ($5,200 a year).

If Robert works full time until age 65 he can look forward to a monthly retirement income of $104.17 from the Canada Pension Plan and $75 from Old Age Security - a total of $179.17 a month. When his wife, who is two years younger than Robert, receives her Old Age Security pension, the Martins' monthly income will rise to $254.13.

If Robert becomes disabled at age 60, having contributed for five years, he will get a disability pension of $103.13 a month until he reaches 65 when his retirement and Old Age Security pensions begin.

If Robert dies after contributing for three years, his wife will receive a widow's pension of $64.06 a month until age 65. From then on her widow's pension will become $62.50 and she will also receive the $75 Old Age Security pension—a total of $137.50 a month. At the time of Robert's death, Mrs. Martin will also be paid a lump sum of $300.

All benefits under the Plan will maintain their value. The actual benefits payable will depend on the higher of the earnings on which contributions have been made and the average earnings of all Canadians.

The Canada Pension Plan provides various other benefits. Individual circumstances

Marwayne News

Sincere sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. John Johnson and the family in the very sudden death of Herman John, son. The funeral service was held on Sept. 16 in the Alliance Tabernacle Marwayne with interment in North Park cemetery.

DEATH OF OLD TIMER

Still another old-timer has gone. Mr Fred Riley passed away in the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Victoria on Saturday, Sept. 11. He was 87 years of age. Mr. Riley came to what is now known as the Burbidge district in 1905. He and his wife Mary resided there until March, 1946, when they retired, to live in Victoria. He has been residing of late in the Aberdeen Nursing Home. He was predeceased by his wife in 1948 and by a brother in 1935. He is survived by several nieces and nephews and cousins. Dan Cox Addison called on him just a week prior to his death. His mind was very clear and he remembered Duncan without difficulty.

Mrs. Geo Carson who had been very ill in July, is now much improved and back at home with her daughter and son-in-law Mr and Mr. Duncan Addison.

Albert Heath of B.C. is formes Les Park district resident has been visiting here

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hines on the birth of a daughter.

Congratulations and good wishes go to Mr. and Mrs. John Bell who were married in Vermilion on Saturday, Sept. 18. Mr and Mrs Bell will continue their studies at the University of Alberta.

Adam Fairbairn got that election fish that "got away" in fact he landed three big ones, the largest one weighed 20 pounds. It measured 41 inches and needless to say Adam is lucky it measured to prove that there are such whoppers in Laurier Lake. All this happened on the Sept. 12 week-end.

Mr and Mrs. Geo Evill and boys have bought the Sonley house and moved in this week-end. The Meeks have bought the Evill farm and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Mock have moved there.

One tree was counted from a news item in the paper last week. It should have read, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Yemlin have moved into the Craig house and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lowrie have moved into the Doull house next to Millers.

We don't like to talk about suicide do we? Yet suicide takes many Canadian lives each year as traffic accidents, and an increasing number of them are quite young people. Another tragic fact is that a great many could be prevented, if we knew a little more about suicide. The Mental Health Association will be happy to send you a free pamphlet entitled "Some Facts About Suicide" Write to the Canadian Mental Health Association, 618 Revillon Building, Edmonton.

Happy Centre W. I.

Happy Centre W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Peggy Croft Sept. 8th. There were 11 members and one visitor present. The roll call was very interesting being "Something we can do to improve our community". Mrs. Croft reported that a desk had been purchased for the library and a new chair would be bought soon. Also drapes for the library when they were moved and settled. A few more lessons have turned in for Centennial cook book which will be our winner project. There are now being sold on the baby set knit by Ethel Mercer to be raffled at the October meeting. Ellen Burt gave a very interesting paper on books and importance of reading. A contest "Red Your Memory", was won by R. Young. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Pig in the Poke was won by Abbie Cain. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. N. Conford.

Mexican Trip For Bridal Couple

St. Olga's Greek Catholic Church, Vermilion, was the scene of a pretty afternoon wedding in July when Catherine Alexandra (Elsie) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pawlow of Vermilion became the bride of Mr. Orest Olineck, son of Mr. and Mrs Matty Olineck of Lavoy. Rev. Fr. John Cherkawsky of Lamont officiated at the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with pink peonies.

The bride, entering the church on the arm of her father looked radiant in a floor-length gown of silk organza over taffeta. She carried a bouquet of pale purple orchids. The gift of the groom to his bride were pearl drop earrings, her only jewelry.

Miss Stephanie Paskar of Vancouver, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a pink lace gown trimmed with satin, complemented with white accessories. The bridesmaids were Miss Olga Cymbaluk of Wetaskiwin, Miss Pat Olineck of Lavoy, Miss Gloria Dickson of Regina, Miss Anna Trevian of Minburn, and Miss Louise Paskar of Vancouver, a niece of the bride. All identical floor-length gowns of teal blue embroidered lace and chiffon over taffeta. They wore diamond tiaras, white accessories and carried bouquets of white roses.

Mr Henry Eliuk of Two Hills was the groomsman, and the ushers were Mr. Ed Hladun of Vanderhof, B.C., Mr. Peter Horon of Lavoy, Mr. Ron Dubiuk of Vegreville, Mr. Ron Babiuk of Edmonton and Mr Stanley Pawlow of Vermilion.

Following the reception the couple left by road for a one month tour which took them on to points in Mexico.

The groom's mother chose a two-piece dress of peach lace with white accessories.

All the reception held in the Elks Hall, the bride's table was laid with a lace cloth centred with a three-tier wedding cake decorated with red roses, flanked by white candles and vases of fresh cut red roses.

The number of ceremonies Mr George Spak of Vegreville called on the Rev. Fr. Cherkawsky to ask the blessing and Mr. Eliuk to propose the toast to the bride, to which the groom fittingly responded. Mr George Martin was called upon to give a few suitable words on the occasion.

The music for the wedding dance which followed was supplied by Mandrusiaks of Two Hills.

Miss Marion Dicke of Vermilion and Miss Rose Cherneski of Edmonton were in charge of the guest book.

For the first part of their honeymoon trip to Mexico, Mrs. the bride changed to a two-piece pink crushi knit dress with matching accessories. She wears pink to be present at a wedding of Lavoy. Mr. Ron Olineck of Lavoy for which the bride once attended her beautiful wedding gown.

HOW CAN YOUR BRILLIANT CHILD BE HELPED?

(Part II)

A remarkable children up study of some 1500 gifted children was made by psychologist Lewis M. Terman at Stanford University, California. His findings are quite startling. Comparing children of the same age, he showed that very bright ones tend to be superior in size, strength, muscle-control and general health. The idea that they are physically weak, unsocial, spectacled, bookish and an... but isn't so. More than this Terman's children were found ...ended in school work either. They were superior to most subjects, showing very marked flair for ...reading, arithmetic, science, arts and use of language. They were less well in hobbies, clubs and ...ming and were poor in leadership.

Do these results all of those children should read and be satisfied to operate and remain isolated? They don't think so. Terman and others have found that gifted children have many social and emotional problems. They want to get along with their friends, to be popular, to have fun, to be liked by others, to be well adjusted, to have good relationships, and to be successful in their chosen activities. They want to be "normal" children. Most of them succeed in this, but they often succeed at the price of unhappiness and frustration.

These gifted children seem up to be "split personalities." They had better draft rules about ...assure mental health, and there were a few books about bringing up children. Most of these were written before the gifted had been clearly identified but they are not necessarily as effective parents as adjusted normal parents. Gifted children are usually more sensitive to criticism. In short the typically gifted child may always grown up to be healthy, strong and well built. He is usually emotionally balanced is liked by others marries and has bright children. Off to a head start as a child he is well able to keep this lead throughout life.

The especially gifted children, like all other children, need the warmth and security of loving parents. Often the special talents make him the brunt of taunts and jibes by his playmates who make fun of his "differentness". Feeling loved and secure at home helps him from being "left out". To be part of the gang is so important to children. In fact some brilliant youngsters have been known to play dumb just to be like the others. Not in fact easy to have superior talent if it means we are left out and thought of as "different".

Pope Paul Makes History

History was made in New York on Monday when Pope Paul travelled into the heart of that great city, the first pope ever to set foot in the new world. The purpose of his historic one day journey was to "encourage, comfort and bless" the peace efforts of "the men of goodwill". The Pontiff addressed the United Nations Assembly; met with President Johnson, led noonday prayers at St. Patricks Cathedral and said mass in the New York Yankee Stadium The Pope did not forget Canada calling down upon the country and the Canadian people abundant divine favors and graces.

The Electors' Decision

Vermilion's civic election will be held on Wednesday next, October 13th, with an exceptionally able list of candidates presenting themselves for the offices of mayor, councillors and hospital board representatives. This has all the requirements of a most satisfying election but the electors are the unknown factor Will they turn out and vote in anything like satisfactory numbers? The candidates are offering themselves and want you, the elector, to pass an opinion, not 30 or 40 percent of the electors, but 80 or 85 percent. Many important issues remain to face the new council so that everyone should be interested on election day, Wednesday, Oct. 13th, all polls at the Elks Hall, polls open from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

To The Men Of The Fire Brigade

This being fire prevention week it does seem to be the appropriate time to pay tribute to those unsung heroes, the members of the Vermilion Fire Brigade. Night and day, rain and shine, winter and summer, they are always on call, always willing to answer the summons of the fire whistle and do everything possible to save lives and to prevent property damage and loss by fire.

Much of the good work of the Vermilion Fire Department goes unnoticed, but this work results in the prevention of fire and is achieved by regular inspections by the fire chief and his men. By this means fire hazards in public buildings are eliminated and fire isn't given a chance to start.

The Vermilion fire brigade has been an important organization in the town since 1908 when it was first formed and it has been active ever since. So all credit to the men of the fire brigade, and may they never lose interest in that most important of organizations. May their efforts in fire prevention continue to keep Vermilion free of major fire disasters.

THEY ALL STAND UP . . .

Don't anybody ask the real Art Wiebe to stand up. A whole crowd might rise to its feet.

I ran into my friend Art Wiebe the other day with the introduction of the Social Credit candidate for the federal constituency of Acadia, a short-grass kind of Inland empire in Eastern Alberta.

This Art Wiebe is a young affiable type from Trochu who electrified the 600 people at Robert Thompson's nomination meeting with a couple of tons salsa.

I met my first Art Wiebe 20 years ago in the Vermilion Vegreville area. A Vermilion boy he was of the hockey crowd and by a fair amount of ability advanced to the old Edmonton Eddy's and then to Chicago Black Hawks.

I was introduced to the second Art Wiebe a few months ago. This one is with the department of agriculture and is now stationed at Lac La Biche after a stint at Lacombe.

WARBLES

There are Alberta cattle that don't have warbles. Those same cattle do better on pasture in the winter easier Cattle owners get no re-mover when these animals are sold - leather is useful - and it doesn't cost as much to put them on the market.

There are several warble treatments available to livestock men. The best known are Co-Ral and more recently Ruelene spray on, spray on treatment required is a sprayer that operates at four hundred pounds per square inch. The high pressure spray that weighs well, the hide and must be done before adverse fall weather. Definite precautions must be observed to avoid the treatment of the human livestock as Co-Ral and Ruelene are very toxic.

Pour on Ruelene, a similar product may be applied with a long handled dipper along the animal's back. It gives equally good results and is most convenient especially with smaller herds. The pour on treatment doesn't wet the animal as thoroughly a definite advantage in Alberta weather.

The treatment date for spring warbles is September 15 to November 30 Calves weighing less than 300 lbs must not be treated. Each chemical has treatment restrictions and precautionary items which must be observed. Read the label it is the prescription.

Warbles and lice can be controlled simply and efficiently. Save those cattle a lot of misery and yourself some money. Treat now

WIND BAFFLES

The other day on the highway I passed several grain trucks and thought it was hailing. It wasn't hail, it was grain. Even the wild ducks know it's grain delivery time they were feeding in two sqs to along the road.

In a recent test during a calm day a truck travelling at 60 miles per hour lost five bushels of barley in eight miles On the next trip the same truck travelled at 30 miles an hour and lost eleven bushels

A tarpaulin stops grain loss Tarpaulins are used to prevent the loss of high priced grain but tarps are awkward and expensive

A cheap plywood wind baffle will prevent most grain loss. A wind baffle and lower speeds will reduce grain loss completely Plans for a wind baffle are available at the D.A. office

BEE IMPROVEMENT

Selection is a highly rated method of livestock improvement Selection is the tool that built our known breeds developing them to their present efficiency

Mr S. C. Hackbart, for the past eight years a member of the teaching staff of the Vermilion School of Agriculture and district supervisor of school fairs for northern Alberta, has recently purchased the well known insurance business established many years ago by the late Mr W. E. Simms.

One of the most vivid electrical storms of the year burst on the district last Thursday, late in the afternoon The natives were treated to some brilliant lighting and several deafening crashes of thunder which broke almost simultaneously with the lightning Unfortunately this all season display was accompanied by some heavy rain which hindered rain, with hail in some areas.

Art Wiebe well known local boy, property of the Chicago Black Hawks hockey team, has received instructions to report to that club's training camp at Champaign, Ill.

Study Uniform Traffic Act For Towns, Villages

Hon. Gordon E. Taylor, Alberta Minister of Highways, has announced that a committee has now been set up for the purpose of studying the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act and Town and Village and City legislation to see if a uniform Traffic Act is practical and possible.

Earlier this year the Alberta Motor Association made representations to the government in which it was shown that there is little uniformity between by-laws dealing with traffic in villages, towns and cities, as compared with the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act. The Alberta Motor Association asked that a committee to study the possibility of a uniform traffic act be set up.

Mr. Taylor, deputy minister and solicitor for the Department of Highways, will be chairman of the committee, while members will include Allen MacDonald, solicitor for the City of Edmonton representing the Union of Alberta Municipalities; D. J. Templeton, solicitor for the A.M.A. and H. F. Tait, Deputy Registrar of the Motor Vehicle Branch. The committee expects to go to work later this month. All members have volunteered their services to the committee.

Two Horton of Marwayne landed on the local "air strip" one recent Saturday to pick up a custom repair from C. A. Swain, who is noted in these parts for having what is usually called the wanted.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bauer and family are visiting at the home of Jon Bauer.

Mrs. R. Leitch, Mrs. E. Johnston, Mrs. W. Ree, Mrs. H. Hamilton, Mrs. H. Lee and Mrs. E. Prier visited Martha Chapter, Irma on Sept. 23rd for the session of the Worthy Grand Matron's visit to that Chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Korchinsky have moved into the station house.

The Homemakers

By
By: E. Marion Hooke

Wondering about how to get your white things whiter or what to do about those slipcovers?

A new publication entitled "Your Home Laundry Guide", just released by Alberta Home Economics Service is designed to eliminate common laundry problems.

The bulletin contains information on new laundering techniques, modern water softening methods, the removal of stains from linen water and different types of soaps, detergents and bleaches. Instructions are also given for washing specific articles such as curtains, slipcovers, pillows, blankets, etc.

"Your Home Laundry Guide" can be obtained free of charge from my office in Wainwright.

For good laundry results however, the procedure is still the same. Perhaps you are relying too much on your washing machine, soaps or other laundry aids. Maybe you should look to your method.

Proper sorting is a must! Sort for the degree of soil, keeping lightly soiled clothes in one load, heavily soiled clothing in another. Wash non-colorfast garments or those which are questionable separately. Sort as to fabric: cottons, linens, silks and woolens, synthetic fabrics. White synthetics should always be washed separately from dark loads, as they tend to pick up dye from other garments. Separate lint producers from dark loads.

Careful preparation is important. Mend before you wash clothes. Empty pockets and cuffs. Rinse zippers. Pretreat heavily soiled areas such as collars and cuffs, knees of children's clothes with a brush and a solution of your laundry detergent or soap. Remove stains. Write to me for the bulletin "Spots and Stain Removal" for helpful suggestions on the removal of common spots and stains. Soft water, relatively free from iron gives best results. Soap film caused by hard water dulls color, causes white clothes to appear gray, makes fabrics feel harsh and stiff and may reduce the wearing qualities by stiffening the individual fibres so that they break when creased or strained. You can soften your wash water with packaged chemical softeners. In order to be effective at least the first rinse must also be softened.

ISLAY LOCALS

The writer regrets that the mention of colored TV here is not true. I am sorry the proof-reader did not detect the error instead of emphasizing it However the truck is red.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Purser from Paradise Valley and Mr. and Mrs. Flynn from Ontario were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Maire and Mr. and Mrs. Ed McFadyen. Mr. and Mrs. Flynn were favorably impressed with Alberta ,remarking that it is the richest province in Canada.

Mrs. Garfield Potvin and small daughter Ellen spent Saturday night with his parents, leaving Sunday morning for Viking to visit Mr. and Mrs. R. Brooke and take Mrs. Potvin back to their home at Viscount, Alta.

Mrs. Sylvia Gould left via CN to spend a week with her son Maurice and family in Edmonton, going on to Athabasca to visit with relatives there for a week or more.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stollery, of Arnrow, spent a couple of days last week end at the latter's home, and family Mr. and Mrs. John Maire.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tedlie left Mr. Lawrence's cousin Dixie and wife to visit them on their recent trip from the Yukon. Their home is in Toronto.

Mrs. Percy Colby had some guests from Edmonton in visit her on Thursday last. They just couldn't believe that she had so many varieties of flowers, plants, bulbs and seeds as they came to see for themselves.

Teacher Added To Mannville Staff

MANNVILLE. Residents of the town welcome Alfred Louis Abelin, commercial instructor who has recently joined the teaching staff of the high school for the 1965-66 term. He comes from Bonnozak, Montana where he taught commercial for twelve years in addition of that area.

Mr. Abelin earned his B.E. in Business Education degree in Montana State University. He plans to do more graduate work in Business Education either in Calgary or at the University of Missoula, Montana this coming summer.

His hobbies include hunting, fishing, camping, hiking, swimming, boating and water and snow skiing.

SKI INSTRUCTOR

He is a certified ski instructor avalanche instructor and National Ski Patrolman and has had intensive first aid training. He also coached a high school riflemen for many years.

Mr. Abelin has always wanted to come to Canada to teach and now that his children are nearly finished their schooling he considered this a most opportune time to realize his ambition.

He has one more teaching venture in sight for the future and that is to teach in Europe for a few years, for he would like to learn, first hand, the ways of the people and their schools.

His one remark about Canada thus far is "I find the people of Canada very friendly, cordial and enjoyable to work with"

It is not the writer's intention to pry too much on Mr. Abelin but it is hoped that his many talents and years of experience will be made available to other forms than Academic, to the benefit of this area.

Someone with such a wealth of outdoor interests and qualifications is indeed an asset to the community.

U. C. W. Notes

The United Church Women held their general meeting in the church hall at 8 o'clock Thursday evening Sept. 30th. After a short business meeting Miss Ann Rhaw, home on furlough from Lima, Peru, showed colored slides of her missionary work among the Indians. She accompanied the pictures with an interesting commentary. She also had a display of arts and crafts done by these people which proved a very interesting and entertaining evening resulted.

N.H.L. Tie-in Out For Minor Hockey Here

A bid by the National Hockey League to take over North-Eastern Alberta minor hockey through the NHL affiliation with the Saskatchewan Junior Hockey League died an unmourned death in Vermilion last Sunday afternoon.

The bid, made some time back, was to come through sponsorship of a Junior B league by the S.J.H.L., covering the area we refer to as North Eastern Alberta. Towns in the league were to be Vermilion, Lloydminster, Vegreville, Wainwright, Bonnyville and St. Paul, with Wetaskiwin, Camrose and Viking rounding out the proposed loop.

James R. Robson

James R. Robson, long associated with education in the Vermilion area, was the guest speaker at the St. Jerome's Graduation Banquet held on Sept. 16th. Mr. Robson called on his experiences of the past, and the present, tieing his thoughts up neatly in what to look for in the future.

through its sponsorship of the Junior B League, the league could call the shot on every hockey player from six year-old mites to 20-year-old juniors in every town in the league. In effect this agreement would mean that if a boy wanted to play hockey he would have to play wherever the parent pen in Saskatchewan said he had to.

One alleged advantage for the towns involved was claimed to be financial. The lordly sum of $200 was to be given each team in the league to go toward the expenses of a Commissioner, responsible, no doubt, to Mr Boucher's organization.

As far as can be ascertained this $200 per town was all that the sponsors of the league risked. In return for that they would receive absolute control of the hockey life of several hundred boys under the age of 21 years.

Another "advantage" served up to proponents of the league was that it would give the "players" a better chance to get ahead through exposure to the "Big" League scouts. This premise is only a promoter's selling point. Last spring in the Stadium during the play-offs, Big League scouts were a dime a dozen", with the result today John MacLean is still in Brandon with the Wheat Kings, Dale Halterman, attending the U. of A. is turning out regularly with the Oil Kings in Edmonton, Barry Walsh was invited to the Oil King camp where he showed well despite the fact that he played most of the time with a temperature of over 100, and then was invited to the Regina Junior camp where he stayed until the last day before being cut. Barry still has a year in juvenile hockey and if you want a good bet, put your money on the fact of him making it next year.

Several other Vermilion boys, members of the Juveniles last spring, attended NHL sponsored camps this summer and fall, including Billy Wilson who broke a leg at the Oil Kings try-outs and Wayne Maughan still a Midget, who was told he could play in Edmonton and go to school there this year, but turned the offer down. The point here is that these Vermilion boys need not be N.H.L. fans for life" to get a chance to show their stuff.

INTERESTS IN THE LEAGUES

So North-Eastern Alberta remains one of Canada's hot beds of minor hockey, and one of the few districts where local leagues and teams still have a say in what, when, where and who they play against.

We say well done'

HEALTH UNIT NURSE SPEAKER AT ROTARY

Miss Wisdom was born in Jamaica, received her education there and took nursing courses in England, specializing in Public Health.

The speaker told a very interesting story of Jamaica, its history and development, customs, languages spoken (chiefly English), disposition of the people who are friendly, love music and singing. Politically they have an outstanding two-party system of government. Their independence gave rise to the motto "Out of many — one people."

Miss Wisdom was introduced by Dr. Ben King and thanked on behalf of the Club by Charles Heckbert.

Church Of Sacred Heart Dedicated At Marwayne

MARWAYNE. — A very large crowd attended the Dedication of the Church of the Sacred Heart, Marwayne on Sunday, June 20. The Dedication, the formal blessing, both outside and inside the building, was conducted by the Most Reverend Anthony Jordan, Archbishop of Edmonton.

The Dedication Mass was given by the Very Rev. B. G. Gorman, pastor. The sermon by the Rev. Father MacDonald of Edmonton. The lessons were read by H. Petryshen and 6d Golonowski, Marwayne Seminarian. The girls' choir of Lloydminster rendered some very beautiful numbers.

"Church of The Sacred Heart" was the name chosen by the late Mrs. Rose Culford and the handsome new structure is situated on two lots bought by her some 15 or 20 years ago, for this purpose.

The church is square in shape, of wood construction, and has a gable roof. The exterior is finished with vertical natural wood siding. It has two large colored glass windows, others are of glass block. The interior is plaster finish, painted blue and a soft yellow. The floor is light colored tile. The interior is somewhat different in design, with the sacristy across one corner. Pews to accommodate 120 persons are ranged about a central altar, which gives a feeling of togetherness in worship. The organ, loaned for the day by the Lloydminster Church, was later given as a gift,; the chalice by the A. Hughes family in honor of their parents' Golden Wedding. The Sacred Heart Statue by Mrs. M. Hughes, Lloydminster, formerly of the Alsworth district. Our Lady statue by Dr Maurice Freehill of Bellingham Wash. in memory of his mother Mrs. Pat Freehill. The Stations of the Cross are a gift of St. Anthony's, Dewberry.

Following the dedication an open reception, catered by the Altar Society, was held in the Elks Hall. For this memorable occasion the ladies were beautifully decorated with spring flowers, both wild and tame Except for the hand table the bountiful lunch was served buffet style. Mrs. M. Hughes and Mrs J. Swan poured tea.

Those at the head table were Archbishop Jordan, Father Gorman, Father Purvell and assistant, Mr. Macdonald, Father MacDonald, Father Groten, Rev. Mr Sayers and Mrs. Sayers of the United Church, Lloydminster, His Worship Mayor Wedelstedt and Mrs. Metkljohn, Ray Nelson the contractor and Fred Purcell of Lloydminster. J. Swan was the master of ceremonies. As well as Marwayne Parish there were guests from Lloydminster, Clandonald, Vermilion and Islay.

The congregation would like to express their heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the way their many friends from the other churches joined with them to make this wonderful day more complete.

Overture Concerts Plan 1965-6 Series

Lloydminster Overture Concert Association will conduct a fall membership drive from Sept. 30 through to Oct. 9. Headquarters will be Bob's Electric and Music in Lloydminster, while Harry Sherk is the representative in Vermilion. Voluntary canvassers are asked to contact new and former subscribers in order that the budget for the season's series may be assured.

The Jazz Ensemble with vocalists Jan Rubes and Ilona Kombrink and violinist Arthur Polsen, will be the feature attraction. These are outstanding performers on Canadian radio and television. As an ensemble they offer something new in concert programs — "three in one". The ensemble consists of a duo recital by these two soloists, a miniature instrumental program by the musicians, and a complete one-act opera, staged and costumed in English.

Another planned attraction for this season is the Dagnes Halman Trio, with Miss Hellman the beautiful and talented solo harpist for the first half of the program. She is joined in part of the program by bass and drums, to create one of the world's most unusual jazz combos.

A third attraction planned for the current series, is an exciting vocal duo offering music for solo, for duo from Opera, from Concert and from Broadway. Billed as Duo '66, Sylvia Grant and Alexander Gray blend together two perfectly matched voices. Altogether the new Overture series promises variety and excitement. Remember this week and when you may subscribe to the series. Phone Mr Harry Sherk 853-3297 in Vermilion or Bob's Electric and Music at 875-3194 in Lloydminster.

Old Bank Building Makes Way For New

The building pictured above was built originally as a bank by the Royal Bank of Canada, opening its doors in Vermilion on May 1st, 1912. It became a victim of the great depression and closed its doors on Dec. 31st, 1934. The first building was destroyed in the town fire of April 1938 but was rebuilt in the fall of the same year.

The building was empty for a few months and then was purchased in 1935 by the Dominion Government and used as a post office until 1959 when the present federal structure was erected.

Advertised for sale by tender it was purchased by Wm. H. Boulton and was again converted into a bakery unit.

It has now been torn down to make way for the construction of a new bank building this time for the Toronto-Dominion. Wrecking was done by the Robert Steigerwe Construction Company of Vermilion.

You Should Know This About Medicines

There have been frequent reports about serious consequences resulting from overdoses of medicines given to infants and children. A five grain tablet of aspirin can be a poisonous dose to an infant. Almost any household remedy can be dangerous if improperly taken.

Subject to variation, it is important to know that an average dose for a one month infant is 1 20th of an adult. For a one year child it is 1-7th and a five year old about 1-3rd. Now you can see why it is important to read directions carefully and follow your physicians instructions exactly.

Closing Dance: Providence if we think deeply enough has a personal meaning in our lives those we know. We have our ups and downs experiences and disappointments and setbacks, our nervous breakdowns and most of us at one time or another in our lives have thought life is not worth living. But God's word took a stand. God will help us overcome our setbacks, our failings and those we love. He has been in them for good and He will be in ours if we let Him. ## Powers Of Arrest

By A. E. Bridges, Fire Commissioner.

As Fire Commissioner I can only view with alarm the fact that fire in Alberta during 1964 cost 21½ million dollars in property and 71 people lost their lives.

Many fire victims paid the penalty because they ignored or were, for a few moments, careless of the power of fire. Sadly, died ignorant of the fact that fire themselves at set up the conditions leading to their untimely death. Others particular in children were caught in a web of circumstances not of their own making.

The current escape court action of time in careless while driving a motor vehicle on the highway but if through carelessness one causes a fire there is no penalty to the statutes. Yet accidental fires are far more costly and proportionately just as dangerous.

In fire prevention there are many efforts to be made. The trend of repeated fire accidents must be arrested; the muddled unconscious actions that bring about fire deaths must be restrained; the powers of arrest must extend to citizens who are negligent in smoke in bed who take a chance on home dry clean ing who quicken a fire with flammable liquids, who leave small children alone. They must be arrested in the act of doing what is dangerous to themselves and others; stopped in their tracks by the thought provoking consequences of such potentially deadly actions.

We ought to look again at our program of public information and if necessary by repeating the gruesome facts of waste and suffering caused by fire, frighten our citizens into a greater respect for it. Any method is preferable to letting them learn from bitter experience.

There can be no slackening in our best efforts to have build ings constructed and fire pro tection equipped that fire danger is confined and minimized. If we cannot protect the careless offender, at least we must do all we can to protect those whose lives he places in jeopardy.

We are constantly seeking a breakthrough in the matter of personal responsibility in preventing fires. If this trend is not more evident and fire losses continue to rise perhaps laws to provide penalties for carelessly causing fires are needed. It is to be hoped that the people of Alberta will realize what a lethal and costly criminal fire is, and use more effectively their own powers of arrest.

Be A Rug Roller

Clothing fires are a terrifying personal experience.

Roll the victim in a rug or anything handy that will help smother the flames.

If you are the victim, try to remember not to rush to the door. The outside air will fan the flames.

A ready stove flare-up is a case in point. Smother the pan. The writer once frying over-wet potatoes, was hurry to get the pan into the warming oven, slamming the door to contain the smoking outbreak.

When the moment of panic was over it brought a good cry and a thankful one. Her story could have had quite a different ending

Vows Exchanged At St. Saviour's

Baskets of colorful gladioli and mums decorated the front of St Saviour's Anglican Church on the altar of August when Caroline S Lindgreen became the bride of Mr. Ross F. Beecroft. The bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. Ralph Lindgren of Vermilion and the groom is the son of Mr and Mrs. Alfred Beecroft of Vermilion.

The bride who was given into marriage by her father, looked lovely in a floor length, three quarter sleeved white organza sheath which had a matching double bouffant chapel overskirt floating in a misty cloud of organza. Her fingertip veil was caught to a rhinestone and net crown. She carried a white prayer book with yellow roses and stephanotis trailing on white streamers. A lovely cameo necklace and earrings, set, gift of the groom, was the bride's jewelry.

Attending the bride were Miss Loretta Langevin, sister of the bride and Miss Twila and Rose Beecroft, sisters of the groom. They were identical silvery gold bell skirted gowns with matching gloves and patent shoes. The headpieces were chiffon attached to yellow bows. Bouquets carried were mauve carnations with white ribbons. Black Alaska pendants, gifts of the bride, were their jewelry.

Mr Bill Storehouse, a friend of the groom, Mr. Ralph Lundgren, brother of the bride, and Mr Phillip Taylor, cousin of the groom, attended him. Guests were seated by Mr Mercer Bell, cousin of the groom and Mr. F. Appleton Jr., an uncle of the bride. Mrs. Fay Kibblewhite sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register and Mrs. George Taylor was the organist.

A reception followed in the parish hall for 180 guests. Mr. John Scott acted as master of ceremonies and Rev. Hart gave the blessing and proposed the toast. The groom then gave a short speech. Miss Mabel Lockhart, a friend of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

For the departure the bride chose a three-piece tangerine suit with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. The newlyweds motored to Vancouver Island and into the States for a short honeymoon.

Out-of-town guests were from Chauvin, Wetaskiwin, Edmonton, Viking, Innisfree, Penhold, Lacombe and Willow River, B.C.

Mrs. Kneen Sr. is presently in Islay Hospital.

A bridal shower was held for Mrs Joseph Dechenko (nee Muriel Crowther), on Saturday evening Sept. 4th in honor of her recent marriage. Congratulations and good wishes go to the happy couple who were married in Edmonton Aug. 20th

HOW CAN YOUR BRILLIANT CHILD BE HELPED!

Since your brilliant child is so curious and quick thinking, he needs even more opportunities than his playmates to satisfy his creative demands. A nursery school experience is very valuable. Here he can work to his heart's content painting, cutting, modelling painting, crayoning, reading, etc. But nursery schools are expensive. Even without them, there are plenty of inexpensive children's books these days, lots of crayons, paper and paste water paints and so on. And soon he will be ready for his first trip to the library. Dad can join in too, by organizing trips to museums, fire and police stations, historical sites, airports, etc. Perhaps farm children have even a greater variety of things to do such as helping around the barn, working with the animals, learning about machinery. All these new experiences broaden his horizons. Then later on there is the Tid or Tot of the 4H Clubs, the Cubs, Scouts, Brownies and Guides or perhaps a ballet, drama, stamp or photography group at the church or community centre.

The brilliant child's questions are endless. Keeping up to their unceasing curiosity and need for knowledge is wearying, sometimes downright embarrassing! Yet he needs more and more chances to explore, experiment, ask questions and learn. This is the only way he can develop his special talents for a full and satisfying future.

Teachers and school authorities are constantly challenged by the special problems of gifted children. These children need a richer educational program to avoid the boredom and frustration of working below their mental capacity. Yet pushing them too much there is a real danger of them getting out of step both physically and socially.

No matter how gifted your child may be, remember he is still just a child. People are apt to think of him as older, perhaps more mature than he is. He has the same need to be liked and wanted, the same need for praise and recognition. Your warmth of understanding, acceptance and encouragement, will help him to make the most of his special talents.

Dental Cavities Reduced By Fluoridation

Dental cavities are becoming rare in Brantford, Ont. Since fluoridation was started there 20 years ago there has been a continuous reduction in the number of decayed and extracted teeth.

Brantford mechanically fluoridated and Stratford naturally fluoridated show 38% fewer cavities in 16 and 17 year olds than for the same age group in Simcoe which has almost no fluorine in its water supply.

Dr H. K. Brown, retired chief Dental Health Division, and Dr Myron Popkin Research Consultant Dental Health Division, Department of National Health and Welfare, published the results obtained in the final survey of this study in the Canadian Journal of Public Health. They state there is essentially no difference in decay reducing effect between mechanically and naturally fluoridated water supplies No cases of mottling of the teeth were observed among the children examined and we observed no ill effects attributable to the presence of fluoride in the water. The health authorities and practising physicians of Brantford and Stratford did not report any ill effects either."

"We must conclude that the beneficial effect of water fluoridation extends at least until the eighteenth year of life."

The right of the chartered banks to issue bank notes was cancelled in 1945 and since that time only the Bank of Canada has been permitted to issue paper money in Canada.
